THE CHURCH HYMNARY is the outgrowth of a smaller collection prepared some years ago for the use of the Church and Sabbath School of which the compiler is a member. The value and availability of much of the new music have thus been proven by practical use. From the treasures of the whole Church, "things new and old" have been brought together; very little of importance, it is believed, has been omitted, while much valuable matter not hitherto used in our Church Hymnals is now made available. It has been sought to make the CHURCH HYMNARY so varied, full, and rich, both in hymns and tunes, that it would commend itself to all Evangelical Churches.

Special thanks are due to William H. Clark, D.D., Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Bay City, Mich., Edward A. Collier, D.D., of Kinderhook, N. Y., and Rev. Frederic M. Bird, of South Bethlehem, Pa., for constant assistance in preparing the work and for many valuable suggestions. To their critical taste and judgment, as well as to their painstaking labor, the compiler is under many obligations.

The CHURCH HYMNARY is published both with and without the CHURCH PSALTER, a topical arrangement of the best Psalms for Responsive Reading, prepared by the Rev. Henry van Dyke, D.D., Pastor of the Brick Presbyterian Church in New York City, or with the Psalter following the Revised Version prepared by Rev. T. Ralston Smith, D.D., pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Buffalo, N. Y. It is believed that the increasing number of Congregational and Presbyterian Churches, in which Responsive Reading forms a regular part of Public Worship, will welcome this new Psalter designed especially to meet their needs, and arranged so as to make its use easy and helpful.

Permission to use hymns and tunes has been freely granted, and the compiler desires to express his appreciation of their courtesy to Houghton, Mifflin & Co., for the use of the hymns of John Greenleaf Whittier and Oliver Wendell Holmes; to Charles Scribner's Sons, for the use of No. 928 (from "Saxe Holm Stories," Vol. I.); to Denis Wortman, D.D., for the use of Nos. 702, 713, and 971 (the last from "Reliques of the Christ"); to U. C. Burnap, Richard Storrs Willis, George E. Oliver, Frederick W. Mills and many others—Authors, Composers, and Publishers, whose names appear in the body of the book.

If the CHURCH HYMNARY shall be accorded by the Church at large some measure of the favor with which, in a more limited sphere, much of it has already been received, the compiler will feel thankful for the opportunity of making this contribution to the promotion of the Service of Sacred Song.

The Law of God

As it is Written in the Twentieth Chapter of the Book of Exodus

GOD SPAKE ALL THESE WORDS, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I.—Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II.—Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

III.—Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV.—Remember the Sabbath-day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day and hallowed it.

V.—Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI.—Thou shalt not kill.

VII.—Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII.—Thou shalt not steal.

IX.—Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X.—Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

The Summary of the Law by our Lord Jesus Christ

St. Matthew, xxii: 37-40

THOU shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

The Apostles' Creed

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin
Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried;
He descended into hell;
The third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God
the Father Almighty;
From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost:
The Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints,
The forgiveness of sins:
The resurrection of the body:
And the life everlasting. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever. Amen.

Je - sus, Lord, for - ev - er liv - ing, From Thy Church what glad thanks-giv - ing

Should to Thee for - ev - er flow! Thine this day our heart's ob - la - tion,

All our praise and a - dor - a - tion, All we are, and have, and know.

JESUS, Lord, forever living,
From Thy Church what glad thanksgiving
Should to Thee forever flow!
Thine this day our heart's oblation,
All our praise and adoration,
All we are, and have, and know.

2 Here may prayer and sins' confession,
Perfumed by Thine intercession,
As sweet incense heavenward rise:
Here to contrite hearts and broken,
Give, O Lord, the secret token
Of accepted sacrifice.

3 On the children of affliction,
Let Thy hands of benediction
Drop Thy comfort from above:
Be Thyself our hidden Manna,
And above us let the banner
Of Thy banquet-house be love.

4 Thus with Thee and Thine in union,
Glad we own the blest communion
Of the saints' unnumbered host,
Who with angels bow before Thee,
And with endless praise adore Thee,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

O day of rest and gladness, O day of joy and light, O balm of care and sadness, Most beautiful, most bright:

On thee, the high and lowly, Through ages joined in tune, Sing holy, holy, ho-ly, To the Great God Triune.

O DAY of rest and gladness,
O day of joy and light,
O balm of care and sadness,
Most beautiful, most bright:
On thee, the high and lowly,
Through ages joined in tune,
Sing holy, holy, holy,
To the Great God Triune.

2 On thee, at the creation,
The light first had its birth;
On thee, for our salvation,
Christ rose from depths of earth;
On thee our Lord, victorious,
The Spirit sent from heaven,
And thus on thee, most, glorious,
A triple light was given.

3 To-day on weary nations
The heavenly manna falls;
To holy convocations
The silver trumpet calls,
Where gospel light is glowing
With pure and radiant beams,
And living water flowing
With soul-refreshing streams.

4 New graces ever gaining
From this our day of rest,
We reach the rest remaining
To spirits of the blest;
To Holy Ghost be praises,
To Father, and to Son;
The Church her voice upraises
To Thee, blest Three in One.

The dawn of God's new Sabbath Breaks o'er the earth again, As some sweet summer morning After a night of pain

3 C

The dawn of God's new Sabbath
Breaks o'er the earth again,
As some sweet summer morning
After a night of pain.
It comes as cooling showers
To cheer a thirsting land,
As shades of clustered palm-trees
'Mid weary wastes of sand.

2 Lord, we would bring our burden
Of sinful thought and deed,
In Thy pure presence kneeling
From bondage to be freed;
Our heart's most bitter sorrow
For all our work undone,
So many talents wasted,
So few true conquests won.

3 Yet still, O Lord long-suffering,
Still grant us in our need
Here in Thy holy presence
The saving name to plead;
And on Thy day of blessings,
Within Thy temple walls,
To foretaste the pure worship
Of Zion's golden halls:

4 Until in joy and gladness
We reach that home at last,
When life's short week of sorrow
And sin and strife is past;
When angel-hands have gathered
The first ripe fruit for Thee,
O Father, Son, and Spirit,
Most Holy Trinity!

OPEN now thy gates of beauty,
 Zion, let me enter there,
 Where my soul in joyful duty
 Waits for Him who answers prayer;
 O how blessed is this place,
 Filled with solace, light, and grace.
 2 Yes, my God, I come before Thee,
 Come Thou also down to me:
 Where we find Thee and adore Thee,
 There a heaven on earth must be.
 To my heart, O enter Thou,
 Let it be Thy temple now.

3 Here Thy praise is gladly chanted,
 Here Thy seed is duly sown,
 Let my soul, where it is planted,
 Bring forth precious sheaves alone,
 So that all I hear may be
 Fruitful unto life in me.
 4 Speak, O God, and I will hear Thee,
 Let Thy will be done indeed;
 May I undisturbed draw near Thee
 While Thou dost Thy people feed;
 Here of Life the Fountain flows,
 Here is balm for all our woes.

SAFELY, thro' another week, God has brought us on our way; Let us now a blessing seek, Waiting in His courts to-day:

Day of all the week the best, Emblem of e-ter-nal rest, Day of all the week the best, Emblem of e-ter-nal rest.

SAFELY, through another week,
 God has brought us on our way;
 Let us now a blessing seek,
 Waiting in His courts to-day:
 Day of all the week the best,
 Emblem of eternal rest.
 2 While we pray for pardoning grace,
 Through the dear Redeemer's name,
 Show Thy reconciled, safe,
 Take away our sin and shame:
 From our worldly cares set free,
 May we rest this day in Thee.

3 Here we come Thy name to praise;
 May we feel Thy presence near:
 May Thy glory meet our eyes,
 While we in Thy house appear:
 Here afford us, Lord, a taste
 Of our everlasting feast.
 4 May Thy gospel's joyful sound
 Conquer sinners, comfort saints;
 Make the fruits of grace abound,
 Bring relief for all complaints:
 Thus may all our Sabbaths prove,
 Till we join the Church above.

To Thee, my God and Saviour,
 My heart exulting sings,
 Rejoicing in Thy favor,
 Almighty King of kings:
 I'll celebrate Thy glory,
 With all Thy saints above,
 And tell the joyful story,
 Of Thy redeeming love.

2 Soon as the morn with roses
 Bedecks the dewy east,
 And when the sun reposes
 Upon the ocean's breast,
 My voice in supplication,
 Well pleas'd, Thou shalt hear:
 O grant me Thy salvation,
 And to my soul draw near.

3 By Thee through life supported,
 I pass the dangerous road.
 With heavenly hosts escorted
 Up to their bright abode;

There cast my crown before Thee;
 Now all my conflicts o'er,
 And day and night adore Thee:
 What can an angel more?

Thomas Haweis : 792

THINE holy day's returning
 Our hearts exult to see;
 And with devotion burning,
 Ascend, our God, to Thee.
 To-day with purest pleasure,
 Our thoughts from earth withdraw:
 We search for sacred treasure,
 We learn Thy holy law.

2 We join to sing Thy praises,
 God of the Sabbath day;
 Each voice in gladness raises
 Its loudest, sweetest lay.
 Thy richest mercies sharing,
 O fill us with Thy love,
 By grace our souls preparing
 For nobler praise above.

FATHER, again in Jesus' name we meet,
And bow in penitence beneath Thy feet;
Again to Thee our feeble voices raise,

And all Thy work from day to day declare!
Is not our life with hourly mercies crowned?
Does not Thine arm encircle us around?

we are
3 Alas! unworthy of Thy boundless love,
Too oft with careless feet from Thee we rove;
But now, encouraged by Thy voice, we come,
Returning sinners, to a Father's home.

O by ~~that~~ ^{Thy} love which every love excels,
O by ~~that~~ ^{Thy} blood so freely shed for sin,

WELCOME, delightful morn,
 Thou day of sacred rest:
 I hail thy kind return;
 Lord, make these moments blest;
 From the low train of mortal toys,
 I soar to reach immortal joys.

2 Now may the King descend,
 And fill His throne of grace:
 Thy sceptre, Lord, extend,
 While saints address Thy face;
 Let sinners feel Thy quickening word,
 And learn to know and fear the Lord.

3 Descend, celestial Dove,
 With all Thy quickening powers,
 Disclose a Saviour's love,
 And bless these sacred hours;
 Then shall my soul new life obtain,
 Nor Sabbaths e'er be spent in vain.

LORD of the worlds above,
 How pleasant and how fair
 The dwellings of Thy love,
 Thine earthly temples are!
 To Thine abode my heart aspires,
 With warm desires, to see my God.

2 O happy souls, that pray
 Where God appoints to hear;
 O happy men, that pay

Their constant service there!
 They praise Thee still; and happy they,
 That love the way to Zion's hill.

3 They go from strength to strength,
 Through this dark vale of tears,
 Till each arrives at length,
 Till each in heaven appears:
 O glorious seat, when God, our King,
 Shall thither bring our willing feet!

2 On this auspicious morn
 The Lord of life arose;
 He burst the bars of death,
 And vanquished all our foes;
 And now He pleads our cause above,
 And reaps the fruit of all His love.

3 All hail, triumphant Lord!
 Heaven with hosannas rings,
 And earth, in humbler strains,
 Thy praise responsive sings:
 Worthy the Lamb, that once was slain,
 Through endless years to live and reign.

2 Here, on the mercy-seat,
With radiant glory crowned,
Our joyful eyes behold Him sit,
And smile on all around.

3 To Him their prayers and cries
Each humble soul presents :
He listens to their broken sighs,
And grants them all their wants.

4 To them His sovereign will
He graciously imparts;
And in return accepts, with smiles,
The tribute of their hearts.

Hail to the Sabbath day :
The day divinely given;
When men to God their homage pay,
And earth draws near to heaven.

2 Lord, in this sacred hour
Within Thy courts we bend,
And bless Thy love, and own Thy power,
Our Father and our Friend.

3 But Thou art not alone
In courts by mortals trod;
Nor only is the day Thine own
When man draws near to God.

4 Thy temple is the arch
Of yon unmeasured sky;
Thy Sabbath, the stupendous march
Of grand eternity.

5 Lord, may that holier day
Dawn on Thy servants' sight;
And purer worship may we pay
In heaven's unclouded light.

3 One day amidst the place
Where my dear Lord hath been,

Of pleasurable sin.

And sit, and sing herself away
To everlasting bliss.

- This is the day of light;
 Let there be light to-day:
 O Dayspring, rise upon our night,
 And chase its gloom away.
- 2 This is the day of rest:
 Our failing strength renew!
 On weary brain and troubled breast
 Shed Thou Thy freshening dew.
- 3 This is the day of peace;
 Thy peace our spirits fill:
 Bid Thou the blast of discord cease,
 The waves of strife be still.
- 4 This is the day of prayer;
 Let earth to heaven draw near:
 Lift up our hearts to seek Thee there;
 Come down to meet us here.
- 5 This is the first of days!
 Send forth Thy quickening breath,
 And wake dead souls to love and praise,
 O Vanquisher of death!

John Ellerton 1868

- SING to the Lord, our Might,
 With holy fervor sing;
 Let hearts and instruments unite
 To praise our heavenly King.
- 2 This is His holy house,
 And this His festal day,
 When He accepts the humblest vows
 That we sincerely pay.
- 3 The Sabbath to our sires
 In mercy first was given;
 The Church her Sabbaths still requires
 To speed her on to heaven.
- 4 We still, like them of old,
 Are in the wilderness;
 And God is still as near His fold,
 To pity and to bless.
- 5 Then let us open wide
 Our hearts for Him to fill;
 And He that Israel then supplied,
 Will help His Israel still.

- SWEET is the work, O Lord,
 Thy glorious acts to sing,
 To praise Thy name, and hear Thy word,
 And grateful offerings bring.
- 2 Sweet, at the dawning light,
 Thy boundless love to tell;
 And, when approach the shades of night,
 Still on the theme to dwell.
- 3 Sweet, on this day of rest,
 To join in heart and voice
 With those who love and serve Thee best,
 And in Thy name rejoice.
- 4 To songs of praise and joy
 Be every Sabbath given,
 That such may be our blest employ
 Eternally in heaven,

BLEST day of God, most calm, most bright,
 The first and best of days;
 The laborer's rest, the saint's delight,
 A day of mirth and praise.

2 My Saviour's face did make thee shine,
 His rising did thee raise:
 This made thee heavenly and divine
 Beyond the common days.

3 The first-fruits do a blessing prove
 To all the sheaves behind;
 And they that do a Sabbath love
 A happy week shall find.

4 This day must I fore God appear,
 For, Lord, the day is Thine:
 O let me spend it in Thy fear,
 Then shall the day be mine.

A - rise, O King of grace, a - rise, And en - ter to Thy rest: Lo, Thy Church

waits with long - ing eyes, Thus to be owned and blest, Thus to be owned and blest.

20

ARISE, O King of grace, arise,
 And enter to Thy rest:
 Lo, Thy Church waits with longing eyes,
 Thus to be owned and blest.

2 Enter with all Thy glorious train,
 Thy Spirit and Thy word;
 All that the ark did once contain
 Could no such grace afford.

3 Here, mighty God, accept our vows,
 Here let Thy praise be spread;
 Bless the provisions of Thy house,
 And fill Thy poor with bread.

4 Here let the Son of David reign,
 Let God's Anointed shine,
 Justice and truth His court maintain,
 With love and power divine.

21

WITH joy we hail the sacred day,
 Which God has called His own;
 With joy the summons we obey
 'To worship at His throne.

2 Thy chosen temple, Lord, how fair,
 Where willing votaries throng,
 To breathe the humble, fervent prayer,
 And pour the choral song.

3 Spirit of grace, O deign to dwell
 Within Thy Church below;
 Make her in holiness excel,
 With pure devotion glow.

4 Let peace within her walls be found;
 Let all her sons unite,
 To spread with grateful zeal around
 Her clear and shining light.

O VERY God of very God,
And very Light of Light,
Whose feet this earth's dark valley trod,
That so it might be bright;

4 O guide us till our path is done,
And we have reached the shore
Where Thou, our Everlasting Sun,
Art shining evermore.

2 Our hopes are weak, our fears are strong,
Thick darkness blinds our eyes;
Cold is the night, and O we long
That Thou, our Sun, wouldst rise!

5 We wait in faith, and turn our face
To where the daylight springs,
Till Thou shalt come, our gloom to chase
With healing on Thy wings.

3 And even now, though dull and gray,
The east is brightening fast,
And kindling to the perfect Day,
That never shall be past.

6 To God the Father, power and might Both now and ever be;
To Him That is the Light of Light,
And, Holy Ghost, to Thee!

COME, Thou Desire of all Thy saints!
Our humble strains attend,
While, with our praises and complaints,
Low at Thy feet we bend.

2 How should our songs, like those above,
With warm devotion rise!
How should our souls, on wings of love,
Mount upward to the skies!

3 Come, Lord! Thy love alone can raise
In us the heavenly flame;

Then shall our lips resound Thy praise,
Our hearts adore Thy name.

4 Dear Saviour! let Thy glory shine,
And fill Thy dwellings here,
Till life, and love, and joy divine
A heaven on earth appear.

5 Then shall our hearts enraptured say,
Come, great Redeemer! come,
And bring the bright, the glorious day,
That calls Thy children home,

24 PH

LORD, in the morning Thou shalt hear
My voice ascending high;
To Thee will I direct my prayer,
To Thee lift up mine eye:

2 Up to the hills, where Christ is gone
To plead for all His saints,
Presenting, at His Father's throne,
Our songs and our complaints.

3 Thou art a God, before whose sight
The wicked shall not stand;
Sinners shall ne'er be Thy delight,
Nor dwell at Thy right hand.

4 But to Thy house will I resort,
To taste Thy mercies there;
I will frequent Thy holy court,
And worship in Thy fear.

5 O may Thy Spirit guide my feet
In ways of righteousness;
Make every path of duty straight
And plain before my face.

Isaac Watts 1719

3 Blest be the Lord, who comes to men
With messages of grace;
Who comes in God His Father's name,
To save our sinful race.

4 Hosanna, in the highest strains
The Church on earth can raise;
The highest heavens, in which He reigns,
Shall give Him nobler praise.

EARLY, my God, without delay,
I haste to seek Thy face;
My thirsty spirit faints away,
Without Thy cheering grace.

2 So pilgrims on the scorching sand,
Beneath a burning sky,
Long for a cooling stream at hand,
And they must drink or die.

3 I've seen Thy glory and Thy power
Through all Thy temple shine:
My God repeat that heavenly hour,
That vision so divine.

4 Not life itself, with all its joys,
Can my best passions move;
Or raise so high my cheerful voice,
As Thy forgiving love.

5 Thus, till my last expiring day,
I'll bless my God and King;
Thus will I lift my hands to pray,
And tune my lips to sing.

THIS is the day the Lord hath made,
He calls the hours His own;
Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad,
And praise surround the throne.

And Satan's empire fell;
To-day the saints His triumphs spread,
And all His wonders tell.

Behold we come, dear Lord, to Thee, And bow before Thy throne; We come to offer on our knee Our vows to Thee alone.

27 D

BEHOLD we come, dear Lord, to Thee,
And bow before Thy throne;
We come to offer on our knee
Our vows to Thee alone.

2 What'er we have, what'er we are,
Thy bounty freely gave;
Thou dost us here in mercy spare,
And wilt hereafter save.

3 Come then, my soul, bring all thy powers,
And grieve thou hast no more;
Bring every day thy choicest hours,
And thy great God adore.

4 But, above all, prepare thine heart
On this, His own blest day,
In its sweet task to bear thy part,
And sing, and love, and pray.

2 How sweetly rest Thy saints above
Which in Thy bosom lie;
The Church below doth rest in hope
Of that felicity.

3 Thou, Lord, who daily feed'st Thy sheep,
Mak'st them a weekly feast;
Thy flocks meet in their several folds
Upon this day of rest.

4 Welcome and dear unto my soul
Are these sweet feasts of love;
But what a Sabbath shall I keep
When I shall rest above!

5 I bless Thy wise and wondrous love,
Which binds us to be free;
Which makes us leave our earthly snares,
That we may come to Thee.

He all the pains did bear;

I sing to think this is the way
Unto my Saviour's face.

AGAIN our earthly cares we leave,
And in Thy courts appear;
Again, with joyful feet, we come
To meet our Saviour here.

2 Within these walls let holy peace,
And love, and concord dwell:
Here give the troubled conscience ease,
The wounded spirit heal.

3 May we in faith receive Thy word,
In faith present our prayers;
And, in the presence of our Lord,
Unbosom all our cares.

4 Show us some token of Thy love,
Our fainting hope to raise;
And pour Thy blessing from above,
That we may render praise.

To show Thy love by morning light,

2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest;
No mortal cares shall seize my breast;
O may my heart in tune be found,
Like David's harp of solemn sound.

3 My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
And bless His works, and bless His word;
Thy works of grace, how bright they shine,
How deep Thy counsels, how divine

4 Lord, I shall share a glorious part,
When grace hath well refined my heart,
And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
Like holy oil, to cheer my head.

5 Then shall I see, and hear, and know
All I desired or wished below;

And every power find sweet employ,
In that eternal world of joy.

ALL people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice:
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell
Come ye before Him, and rejoice.

2 The Lord, ye know, is God indeed,
Without our aid He did us make:
We are His flock, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take

3 O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto:
Praise, laud, and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

4 For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is forever sure:
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

O Lord of hosts, Thy dwellings are;
With long desire my spirit faints,

2 Blest are the saints who sit on high,
Around Thy throne of majesty;
Thy brightest glories shine above,
And all their work is praise and love.

3 Blest are the souls who find a place

There they behold Thy gentler rays,
And seek Thy face, and learn Thy praise.

4 Blest are the men whose hearts are set
To find the way to Zion's gate;

Till all shall meet in heaven at length;
Till all before Thy face appear,
And join in nobler worship there.

ANOTHER six days' work is done,
Another Sabbath is begun:
Return my soul, enjoy thy rest,
Improve the day thy God hath blest.

2 O that our thoughts and thanks may rise,
As grateful incense, to the skies;
And draw from heaven that sweet repose,
Which none but he that feels it knows.

3 This heavenly calm within the breast
Is the dear pledge of glorious rest,
Which for the Church of God remains,
The end of cares, the end of pains.

4 In holy duties let the day,
In holy pleasures, pass away;
How sweet a Sabbath thus to spend,
In hope of one that ne'er shall end.

COME, dearest Lord, descend and dwell,
By faith and love, in every breast;
Then shall we know, and taste, and feel,
The joys that cannot be expressed.

Make our enlarged souls possess,
And learn the height and breadth and length
Of Thine unmeasurable grace.

3 Now to the God whose power can do
More than our thoughts or wishes know,
Be everlasting honors done,
By all the Church, through Christ, His Son

In compassion, now descend;
Fill our hearts with Thy rich grace,
Tune our lips to sing Thy praise.
3 In Thine own appointed way,
Now we seek Thee, here we stay:
Lord, we know not how to go,
Till a blessing Thou bestow.

4 Send some message from Thy word,
That may joy and peace afford;
Let Thy Spirit now impart
Full salvation to each heart.
5 Comfort those who weep and mourn,
Let the time of joy return;
Those that are cast down lift up,
Strong in faith, in love, and hope.
6 Grant that those who seek may find
Thee a God sincere and kind;
Heal the sick, the captive free,
Let us all rejoice in Thee.

On this day, the first of days,
God the Father's name we praise;
Who, creation's Fount and Spring,
Did the world from darkness bring.

2 On this day the eternal Son
Over death His triumph won;
On this day the Spirit came
With His gifts of living flame.

3 O that fervent love to-day
May in every heart have sway,
Teaching us to praise aright
God, the Source of life and light!

4 Father! who didst fashion me
Image of Thyself to be,
Fill me with Thy love divine,
Let my every thought be Thine.

5 Holy Jesus! may I be
Dead and buried here with Thee;
And, by love inflamed, arise
Unto Thee a sacrifice.

COME, my soul, thy suit prepare,
Jesus loves to answer prayer;
He Himself has bid thee pray,
Therefore will not say thee nay.

2 With my burden I begin:
Lord, remove this load of sin;
Let Thy blood, for sinners spilt,
Set my conscience free from guilt.

3 Lord, I come to Thee for rest,
Take possession of my breast;
There Thy blood-bought right maintain
And without a rival reign.

4 While I am a pilgrim here,
Let Thy love my spirit cheer;
As my Guide, my Guard, my Friend,
Lead me to my journey's end.

5 Show me what I have to do,
Every hour my strength renew;
Let me live a life of faith,
Let me die Thy people's death.

How pleased and blest was I,
To hear the people cry,
"Come, let us seek our God to-day!"
Yes, with a cheerful zeal,
We haste to Zion's hill,
And there our vows and honors pay.

2 Zion, thrice happy place,
Adorned with wondrous grace,
And walls of strength embrace thee round:
In thee our tribes appear,
To pray, and praise, and hear
The sacred gospel's joyful sound.

3 There David's greater Son
Has fixed His royal throne;
He sits for grace and judgment there.

He bids the saints be glad;
He makes the sinner sad;
And humble souls rejoice with fear.

4 May peace attend thy gate,
And joy within thee wait,
To bless the soul of every guest:
The man that seeks thy peace,
And wishes thine increase,
A thousand blessings on him rest!

5 My tongue repeats her vows,
"Peace to this sacred house!"
For there my friends and kindred dwell;
And since my glorious God
Makes thee His blest abode,
My soul shall ever love thee well.

WELCOME, sacred day of rest!
 Sweet repose from worldly care:
 Day above all days the best,
 When our souls for heaven prepare;
 Day, when our Redeemer rose,
 Victor o'er the hosts of hell:
 Thus He vanquished all our foes;
 Let our lips His glory tell.

2 Gracious Lord! we love this day,
 When we hear Thy holy word;
 When we sing Thy praise, and pray
 Earth can no such joys afford:
 But a better rest remains,
 Heavenly Sabbaths, happier days,
 Rest from sin, and rest from pains,
 Endless joys, and endless praise.

PLEASANT are Thy courts above,

 Pleasant are Thy courts below,
 In this land of sin and woe.
 O, my spirit longs and faints
 For the converse of Thy saints,
 For the brightness of Thy face,
 King of glory, God of grace.
 2 Happy souls, their praises flow
 Even in this vale of woe;
 Waters in the desert rise,
 Manna feeds them from the skies:

On they go from strength to strength,
 Till they reach Thy throne at length;
 At Thy feet adoring fall,
 Who hast led them safe through all.
 3 Lord be mine this prize to win;
 Guide me through a world of sin;
 Keep me by Thy saving grace;
 Give me at Thy side a place.

 Guide and guard my erring heart;
 Grace and glory flow from Thee,
 Shower, O shower them, Lord, on me.

HOLY offerings, rich and rare,
Offerings of praise and prayer
Purer life and purpose high,
Clasped hands, uplifted eye,
Lowly acts of adoration
To the God of our salvation—
On His altar laid we leave them:
Christ, present them! God receive them!

2 Promises in sorrow made,
Left, alas! too long unpaid;
Fervent wishes, earnest thought,
Never into action wrought—
Long withheld, we now restore them,
On Thy holy altar pour them:
There in trembling faith to leave them,
Christ, present them! God, receive them!

3 Vows and longings, hopes and fears,
Broken-hearted sighs and tears,
Dreams of what we yet might be
Could we cling more close to Thee,
Which, despite of faults and failings—
Help Thy grace in its prevailings—
On Thine altar laid we leave them:
Christ, present them! God, receive them!

4 Brighter joys and tenderer tears,
Fonder faith, more faithful fears,
Lowlier penitence for sin,
More of Christ our souls within;
Love which, when its life was newer,
Burnt within us deeper, truer—
Lost too long, while we deplore them,
Jesus, plead for! God, restore them!

5 Homage of each humble heart
Ere we from Thy house depart;
Worship fervent, deep and high,
Adoration, ecstasy;
All that childlike love can render
Of devotion true and tender—
On Thine altar laid we leave them:
Christ, present them! God, receive them!

6 To the Father, and the Son,
And the Spirit, Three in One,
Though our mortal weakness raise
Offerings of imperfect praise,
Yet with hearts bowed down most lowly,
Crying, Holy! Holy! Holy!
On Thine altar laid we leave them;
Christ, present them! God, receive them!

ALMIGHTY Father, heaven and earth
With lavish wealth before Thee bow;
Those treasures owe to Thee their birth,
Creator, Ruler, Giver, Thou.

2 The wealth of earth, of sky, of sea,
The gold, the silver, sparkling gem,
The waving corn, the bending tree,
Are Thine: to us Thou lendest them.

3 To Thee, as early morning's dew,
Our praises, alms, and prayer shall rise;

As rose, when joyous earth was new,
Faith's patriarchal sacrifice.

The costliest offerings on Thy shrine;
But when we give, and give our best,
We only give Thee that is Thine.

Though dim our faith may be,
Whate'er for Thine we do, O Lord,
We do it unto Thee.

LORD, lead the way the Saviour went,
By lane and cell obscure,
And let our treasures still be spent,
Like His, upon the poor.

2 Like Him, through scenes of deep distress,
Who bore the world's sad weight,
We, in their crowded loneliness,
Would seek the desolate.

3 For Thou hast placed us side by side
In this wide world of ill;
And that Thy followers may be tried,
The poor are with us still.

4 Mean are all offerings we can make;
But Thou hast taught us, Lord,
If given for the Saviour's sake,
They lose not their reward.

O Lord of heaven and earth and sea, To Thee all praise and glo - ry be: How shall we show our love to Thee, Who giv - est all?

56 A

O LORD of heaven and earth and sea,
 To Thee all praise and glory be:
 How shall we show our love to Thee,
 Who givest all?

2 The golden sunshine, vernal air,
 Sweet flowers and fruit Thy love declare:
 When harvests ripen, Thou art there,
 Who givest all.

3 For peaceful homes, and healthful days,
 For all the blessings earth displays,
 We owe Thee thankfulness and praise,
 Who givest all.

4 For souls redeemed, for sins forgiven,
 For means of grace and hopes of heaven,
 What can to Thee, O Lord, be given,
 Who givest all?

5 We lose what on ourselves we spend;
 We have as treasure without end
 Whatever, Lord, to Thee we lend,
 Who givest all.

6 Whatever, Lord, we lend to Thee,
 Repaid a thousandfold will be;
 Then gladly will we give to Thee,
 Who givest all.

O God of mercy, God of might,
 In love and pity infinite,
 Teach us, as ever in Thy sight,
 To live our life to Thee.

2 And Thou who can'st on earth to die,
 That fallen man might live thereby,
 O hear us, for to Thee we cry,
 In hope, O Lord, to Thee.

3 Teach us the lesson Thou hast taught,
 To feel for those Thy blood hath bought;
 That every word, and deed, and thought
 May work a work for Thee.

4 For all are brethren, far and wide
 Since Thou, O Lord, for all hast died:
 Then teach us, whatsoe'er betide,
 To love them all in Thee.

5 In sickness, sorrow, want, or care,
 Whate'er it be, 'tis ours to share;
 May we, where help is needed, there
 Give help as unto Thee.

6 And may Thy Holy Spirit move
 All those who live, to live in love,
 Till Thou shalt greet in heaven above
 All those who give to Thee.

FATHER of our feeble race,
 Wise, beneficent, and kind!
 Spread o'er nature's ample face,
 Flows Thy goodness unconfined.

2 Lord, what offerings shall we bring,
 At Thine altars when we bow?
 Grateful loving hearts, the spring
 Whence the kind affections flow:

 Bind the wounded, feed the poor;
 Love, embracing all our kind;
 Charity, with liberal store.

 Thus to show our grateful mind;
 Thus the accepted offering bring,

Fall from the darkening sky,
Upon the fragrance of the flowers
The dews of evening lie;
Before Thy throne, O Lord of heaven!
We kneel at close of day;
Look on Thy children from on high,
And hear us while we pray.

2 The sorrows of Thy servants, Lord,
O do not Thou despise,
But let the incense of our prayers
Before Thy mercy rise;
The brightness of the coming night
Upon the darkness rolls;
With hopes of future glory chase
The shadows of our souls.

3 Slowly the rays of daylight fade;
So fade within our heart
The hopes in earthly love and joy,
That one by one depart;
Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
Within the heavens shine:
Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in heaven,
And trust in things divine.

Still guide, O Christ, to Thee.
4 O make Thy Church, dear Saviour,
A lamp of burnished gold,
To bear before the nations
Thy true light, as of old.
O teach Thy wandering pilgrims
By this their path to trace,
Till, clouds and darkness ended,
They see Thee face to face.

William Walsham How 186;

Behold, the morning sun Begins his glorious way; His beams through all the nations run, And life and light convey.

89

BEHOLD, the morning sun
Begins his glorious way;
His beams through all the nations run,
And life and light convey.
2 But where the Gospel comes,
It spreads diviner light;
It calls dead sinners from their tombs,
And gives the blind their sight.

3 How perfect is Thy word,
And all Thy judgments just;
For ever sure Thy promise, Lord,
And men securely trust.
4 My gracious God, how plain
Are Thy directions given:
O may I never read in vain,
But find the path to heaven.

The heav'ns declare Thy glory, The firmament Thy pow'r; Day un-to day the sto-ry Repeats from hour to hour;

Night unto night reply-ing, Proclaims in ev'ry land, O Lord, with voice undying The wonders of Thy hand.

The heavens declare Thy glory,
The firmament Thy power;
Day unto day the story
Repeats from hour to hour:
Night unto night replying,
Proclaims in every land,
O Lord, with voice undying
The wonders of Thy hand.

2 How perfect, just, and holy
The precepts Thou hast given;
Still making wise the lowly,
They lift the thoughts to heaven:
How pure, how soul-restoring
Thy gospel's heavenly ray,
A brighter radiance pouring
Than noon of brightest day!

3 Thy statutes, Lord, with gladness
Rejoice the humble heart;
And guilty fear and sadness
From contrite souls depart.
Thy word hath richer treasure
Than dwells within the mine,
And sweetness beyond measure
Attends Thy voice divine.

4 All heaven on high rejoices
To do its Maker's will;
The stars with solemn voices
Resound Thy praises still:
So let my whole behavior,
Thoughts, words, and actions be,
O Lord, my strength, my Saviour,
One ceaseless song to Thee.

SPREAD, O spread, Thou mighty word,
Spread the kingdom of the Lord,
Wheresoe'er His breath has given
Life to beings meant for heaven.

2 Tell them how the Father's will
Made the world, and keeps it still;
How He sent His Son to save
All who help and comfort crave.

3 Word of life, most pure and strong,
Lo, for Thee the nations long:
Spread, till from its dreary night
All the world awakes to light.

4 Lord of harvest, let there be
Joy and strength to work for Thee.
Let the nations, far and near,
See Thy light, and learn Thy fear.

Come, Thou Al - might - y King, Help us Thy name to sing, Help us to praise:
 Father all glo - ri - ous, O'er all vic - to - ri - ous, Come, and reign o - ver us, Ancient of days.

COME, Thou Almighty King,
 Help us Thy name to sing,
 Help us to praise:
 Father, all-glorious,
 O'er all victorious,
 Come, and reign over us,
 Ancient of days.

2 Jesus, our Lord, arise;
 Scatter our enemies,
 And make them fall:
 Let Thine almighty aid
 Our sure defence be made;
 Our souls on Thee be stayed;
 Lord, hear our call.

3 Come, Thou Incarnate Word,
 Gird on Thy mighty sword,
 Our prayer attend:
 Come, and Thy people bless,
 And give Thy Word success;
 Spirit of holiness,
 On us descend.

4 Come, Holy Comforter,
 Thy sacred witness bear
 In this glad hour:
 Thou who Almighty art,
 Now rule in every heart,
 And ne'er from us depart,
 Spirit of power.

5 To the great One in Three Eternal praises be
 Hence evermore.

His sovereign majesty
 May we in glory see,
 And to eternity
 Love and adore.

THOU, Lord, art God alone,
 Veiling Thy burning throne
 From mortal sight:
 Yet Thou our Father art,
 From whose all-pitying heart,
 Nor life, nor death can part,
 Nor depth, nor height.

2 We praise Thee, Holy One,
 The Father's only Son,—
 His image bright.

Our Prophet, Priest, and King,
 Who dost redemption bring,
 Thy matchless grace we sing,
 Thy saving might.

3 We praise Thee, Heavenly Guest,
 Thou great and last bequest
 Of Love to man.

O blessed Paraclete,
 Guide Thou our pilgrim feet,
 Till glory shall complete
 What grace began.

4 We praise Thee, Father, Son,
 And Spirit, Three in One,—
 God of all grace!
 Angels and Cherubim,
 With flaming Seraphim,
 Thy Name, thrice holy, hymn
 With veiled face

O Holy Father, who hast led Thy children
In all the ages, with the fire and cloud,
Through seas dry-shod; through weary wastes
bewildering;
To Thee, in reverent love, our hearts are bowed.

2 O Holy Jesus, Prince of Peace and Saviour,
To Thee, we owe the peace that still prevails,
Stilling the rude wills of men's wild behavior,
And calming passion's fierce and stormy gales.

3 O Holy Ghost, the Lord and the Life-
Giver,
Thine is the quickening power that gives increase.
From Thee have flowed, as from a pleasant river,
Our plenty, wealth, prosperity and peace

4 O Triune God, with heart and voice adoring,
Praise we the goodness that has crowned
our day;
Pray we, that Thou wilt hear us, still imploring
Thy love and favor, kept to us alway.

SING to the Lord a joyful song,

Lift up your hearts, your voices raise:

To us His gracious gifts belong,

To Him our songs of love and praise.—REF.

2 For life and love, for rest and food,

For daily help and nightly care,

Sing to the Lord; for He is good:

And praise His name, for it is fair.—REF.

3 For strength to those who on Him wait,

His truth to prove, His will to do,

Praise ye our God; for He is great:

Trust in His name, for it is true.—REF.

4 For joys untold that daily move

Round those who love His sweet employ,

Sing to our God; for He is love:

Exalt His name, for it is joy.—REF.

5 For life below, with all its bliss,

WE give immortal praise
For God the Father's love,
For all our comforts here,
And better hopes above :
He sent His own eternal Son
To die for sins that we had done.

2 To God the Son belongs
Immortal glory too ;
Who bought us with His blood
From everlasting woe :
And now He lives and now He reigns,
And sees the fruit of all His pains.

3 To God the Spirit's name
Immortal worship give,
Whose new-creating power
Makes the dead sinner live:
His work completes the great design,
And fills the soul with joy divine.

3 Glory to the King of angels,
 Glory to the Church's King,
 Glory to the King of nations,
 Heaven and earth, your praises bring:
 Glory, glory,
 To the King of glory bring!

2 Glory be to Him who loved us,
 Washed us from each spot and stain;
 Glory be to Him who bought us,
 Made us kings with Him to reign:
 Glory, glory,
 To the Lamb that once was slain!

4 Glory, blessing, praise eternal!
 Thus the choir of angels sings;
 Honor, riches, power, dominion!
 Thus its praise creation brings:
 Glory, glory,
 Glory to the King of kings!

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty!
 Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee;

 Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
 Cherubim and Seraphim falling down before Thee,

 Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see,
 Only Thou art holy, there is none beside Thee,
 Perfect in power, in love, and purity.

Sweet the time, exceeding sweet,
 When the saints together meet;
 When the Saviour is the theme,
 When they join to sing of Him.

2 Sing we then eternal love,
 Such as did the Father move;
 He beheld the world undone,
 Loved the world, and gave His Son.

3 Sing the Son's amazing love:
 How He left the realms above,
 Took our nature and our place,
 Lived and died to save our race.

4 Sing we, too, the Spirit's love:
 With our wretched hearts He strove,
 Took the things of Christ, and showed
 How to reach His blest abode.

5 Sweet the place, exceeding sweet,
 Where the saints in glory meet;
 Where the Saviour's still the theme,
 Where they see, and sing of Him.

103 From Tucker's Church Hymnal, by per.

HOLY, holy, holy Lord,
God of Hosts, eternal King,
By the heavens and earth adored;
Angels and Archangels sing,
Chanting everlastingly,
To the Blesséd Trinity.

2 Since by Thee were all things made,
And in Thee do all things live,
Be to Thee all honor paid;
Praise to Thee let all things give,
Singing everlastingly
To the Blesséd Trinity.

3 Thousands, tens of thousands, stand,
Spirits blest, before the throne,
Speeding thence at Thy command,
And, when Thy commands are done,
Singing everlastingly
To the Blesséd Trinity

4 Cherubim and Seraphim
Veil their faces with their wings;
Eyes of angels are too dim
To behold the King of kings,
While they sing eternally
To the Blesséd Trinity.

5 Thee apostles, prophets Thee,
Thee the noble martyr band,
Praise with solemn jubilee,
Thee, the Church in every land,
Singing everlastingly
To the Blesséd Trinity.

6 Hallelujah! Lord, to Thee,

Join with us the heavenly host,
Singing everlastingly
To the Blesséd Trinity.

The God of Abraham praise,
Who reigns enthroned above;
Ancient of everlasting days,
And God of love:

Jehovah, Great I Am!

By earth and heaven confessed:

For ever blest.

2 The God of Abraham praise,

The King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.

2 Where streams of living water flow,
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

3 Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,

And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

4 In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

5 And so through all the length of days,
Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever.

PRAISE, my soul, the King of Heaven;
 To His feet thy tribute bring:
 Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
 Evermore His praises sing;
 Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
 Praise the everlasting King.
 2 Praise Him for His grace and favor
 To our fathers in distress;
 Praise Him, still the same for ever,
 Slow to chide, and swift to bless;
 Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
 Glorious in His faithfulness.

3 Father-like He tends and spares us,
 Well our feeble frame He knows;
 In His hands He gently bears us,
 Rescues us from all our foes;
 Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
 Widely yet His mercy flows.

God is love; that anthem olden
 Sing the glorious orbs of light,
 In their language glad and golden
 Telling to us day and night
 Their great story,
 God is love, and God is might!
 2 And the teeming earth rejoices
 In that message from above,
 With ten thousand thousand voices,
 Telling back from hill and grove
 Her glad story,
 God is might, and God is love!

3 Through these anthems of creation,
 Struggling up with gentle strife,
 Christian songs of Christ's salvation,
 To the world with blessings rife,
 Tell their story,
 God is love, and God is life!
 4 Up to Him let each affection
 Daily rise, and round Him move;
 Our whole lives one resurrection
 To the life of life above;
 Our glad story
 God is life, and God is love!

O BLESS the Lord, my soul,
Let all within me join,
And aid my tongue to bless His name,
Whose favors are divine.

2 O bless the Lord, my soul,
Nor let His mercies lie
Forgotten in unthankfulness,
And without praises die.

3 'Tis He forgives thy sins,
'Tis He relieves thy pain,
'Tis He that heals thy sicknesses,
And makes thee young again.

4 He crowns thy life with love,
When ransomed from the grave;
He that redeemed my soul from hell,

BEYOND, beyond that boundless sea,
Above that dome of sky,
Farther than thought itself can flee,
Thy dwelling is on high;
Yet dear the awful thought to me
That Thou, my God, art nigh.
2 Art nigh, and yet my laboring mind
Feels after Thee in vain,
Thee in these works of power to find
Or to Thy seat attain;
Thy messenger, the stormy wind,
Thy path, the trackless main.
3 These speak of Thee with loud acclaim;
They thunder forth Thy praise,
The glorious honor of Thy name,

The wonders of Thy ways:
But Thou art not in tempest flame,
Nor in the solar blaze.
4 We hear Thy voice when thunders roll
Through the wide fields of air;
The waves obey Thy dread control;
Yet still Thou art not there;
Where shall I find Him, O my soul!
Who yet is everywhere?
5 O, not in circling depth or height,
But in the conscious breast,
Present to faith, though veiled from sight
There does His Spirit rest;
O come, Thou Presence infinite!
And make Thy creature blest.

WHEN all Thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys,
Transported with the view, I'm lost

LORD, with glowing heart I'd praise Thee
 For the bliss Thy love bestows,
 For the pardoning grace that saves me,
 And the peace that from it flows.
 Help, O God, my weak endeavor,
 This dull soul to rapture raise;
 Thou must light the flame, or never
 Can my love be warmed to praise.

2 Praise, my soul, the God that sought thee,
 Wretched wanderer, far astray;
 Found thee lost, and kindly brought thee
 From the paths of death away.

Praise, with love's devoutest feeling,
 Him who saw thy guilt-born fear,
 And the light of hope revealing,
 Bade the blood-stained cross appear.
 3 Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling,
 Vainly would my lips express;
 Low before Thy footstool kneeling,
 Deign Thy suppliant's prayer to bless.
 Let Thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
 Love's pure flame within me raise;
 And since words can never measure,
 Let my life show forth Thy praise.

1 Songs of praise the angels sang,
Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
When Jehovah's work begun,
When He spake, and it was done.

2 Songs of praise awoke the morn,
When the Prince of Peace was born;
Songs of praise arose, when He
Captive led captivity.

3 Heaven and earth must pass away,
Songs of praise shall crown that day;
God will make new heavens, new earth,
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.

4 And can man alone be dumb
Till that glorious kingdom come?
No; the Church delights to raise
Psalms, and hymns, and songs of praise.

5 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice;
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.

6 Borne upon their latest breath,
Songs of praise shall conquer death;
Then, amidst eternal joy,
Songs of praise their powers employ.

1 God eternal, mighty King,
Unto Thee our praise we bring;
All the earth doth worship Thee;
We amid the throng would be.

2 Holy, holy, holy! cry
Angels round Thy throne on high:
Lord of all the heavenly Powers,
Be the same loud anthem ours.

3 Glorified Apostles raise,
Night and day, continual praise;
Hast not Thou a mission too
For Thy children here to do?

4 With the Prophets' goodly line
We in mystic bond combine;
For Thou hast to us revealed
Things that to the wise were sealed.

5 Martyrs, in a noble host,
Of the cross are heard to boast;
O that we our cross may bear,
And a crown of glory wear!

Unto Thee our praise we bring;

Glory be to God on high, God, whose glory fills the sky ; Peace on earth to man forgiven, Man, the well-beloved of heaven.

GLORY be to God on high,
God, whose glory fills the sky;
Peace on earth to man forgiven,
Man, the well-beloved of heaven.

2 Sovereign Father, heavenly King,
Thee we now presume to sing;
Glad, Thine attributes confess,
Glorious all, and numberless.

3 Hail, by all Thy works adored,
Hail, the everlasting Lord:
Thee, with thankful hearts we prove
God of power, and God of love.

4 Christ our Lord and God we own,
Christ, the Father's only Son;
Lamb of God, for sinners slain,
Saviour of offending man.

5 Bow Thine ear, in mercy bow;
Hear, the world's atonement Thou:
Jesus, in Thy name we pray,
Take, O take our sins away.

6 Hear, for Thou, O Christ, alone
Art with Thy great Father One;
One, the Holy Ghost with Thee;
One supreme, eternal Three.

LET us, with a gladsome mind,
Praise the Lord, for He is kind:
For His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

2 He, with all-commanding might,
Filled the new-made world with light:
For His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

3 He His chosen race did bless
In the wasteful wilderness:
For His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

4 He hath, with a piteous eye,
Looked upon our misery:
For His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

5 All things living He doth feed,
His full hand supplies their need:
For His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

6 Let us therefore warble forth
His high majesty and worth:
For His mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

HOLY, holy, holy Lord,
Be Thy glorious name adored:
Lord, Thy mercies never fail;
Hail, celestial Goodness, hail!

2 Though unworthy, Lord, Thine ear,
Deign our humble songs to hear;
Purer praise we hope to bring;
When around Thy throne we sing.

3 While on earth ordained to stay,
Guide our footsteps in Thy way,
Till we come to dwell with Thee,
Till we all Thy glory see.

4 Then with angel-harps again
We will make a nobler strain;
There, in joyful songs of praise,
Our triumphant voices raise.

5 There no tongue shall silent be,
All shall join in harmony;
That through heaven's capacious round
Praise to Thee may ever sound.

6 Lord, Thy mercies never fail:
Hail, celestial Goodness, hail!
Holy, holy, holy Lord,
Be Thy glorious name adored.

O God, the Rock of Ages,
 Who evermore hast been,
 What time the tempest rages,
 Our dwelling-place serene;
 Before Thy first creations,
 O Lord, the same as now,
 To endless generations
 The Everlasting Thou!

2 Our years are like the shadows
 On sunny hills that lie,
 Or grasses in the meadows
 That blossom but to die:
 A sleep, a dream, a story
 By strangers quickly told,
 An unremaining glory
 Of things that soon are old.

3 O Thou, who canst not slumber,
 Whose light grows never pale,
 Teach us aright to number
 Our years before they fail.
 On us Thy mercy lighten,
 On us Thy goodness rest,
 And let Thy Spirit brighten
 The hearts Thyself hast blessed.

4 Lord, crown our faith's endeavor
 With beauty and with grace,
 Till, clothed in light for ever,
 We see Thee face to face:
 A joy no language measures;
 A fountain brimming o'er;
 An endless flow of pleasures;
 An ocean without shore.

SWEET is the memory of Thy grace,
 My God, my heavenly King!
 Let age to age Thy righteousness
 In sounds of glory sing.

2 God reigns on high, but not confines
 His goodness to the skies;
 Through the whole earth His bounty shines,
 And every want supplies.

3 With longing eyes Thy creatures wait
 On Thee for daily food;

Thy liberal hand provides their meat,
 And fills their mouths with good.

4 How kind are Thy compassions, Lord!
 How slow Thine anger moves!
 But soon He sends His pardoning word
 To cheer the souls He loves.

5 Creatures, with all their endless race,
 Thy power and praise proclaim;
 But saints that taste Thy richer grace
 Delight to bless Thy name.

Isaac Watts 1719

We cannot praise Thee now, Lord, A spirits perfect made, Who walk in white before Thee, With Christ the Living Head;

2 We cannot praise Thee here, Lord,
As those around Thy throne,
Who sing the song of glory,
And know as they are known;
But praise is waiting for Thee .
When Zion's hill we gain;
And here we would be singing
A prelude to the strain.

With gloomy horrors overspread,
My steadfast heart shall fear no ill,
For Thou, O Lord, art with me still:
Thy friendly crook shall give me aid,
And guide me through the dreadful shade.

With sudden greens and herbage crowned,
And streams shall murmur all around.

O COME, all ye faithful, joyfully triumphant,
To Bethlehem hasten now with glad accord;
Lo! in a manger, lies the King of angels;
O, come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord.

2 Raise, raise, choirs of angels, songs of loudest triumph, [poured:
Through heaven's high arches be your praises

Now to our God be glory in the highest;
O, come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord.

3 Amen! Lord, we bless Thee, born for our salvation,

O Jesus! for ever be Thy name adored;
Word of the Father, late in flesh appearing;
O, come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord.

Zion, the marvellous story be telling,
 The Son of the Highest, how lowly His birth!
 The brightest archangel in glory excelling,
 He stoops to redeem thee, He reigns upon earth!
 Shout the glad tidings, exultingly sing;
 Jerusalem triumphs, Messiah is King!

2 Tell how He cometh; from nation to nation,
 The heart-cheering news let the earth echo round;
 How free to the faithful He offers saivation,

How His people with joy everlasting are crowned.
 Shout the glad tidings, exultingly sing;
 Jerusalem triumphs, Messiah is King!

3 Mortals, your homage be gratefully bringing,
 And sweet let the gladsome hosanna arise;
 Ye angels, the full hallelujah be singing;
 One chorus resound through the earth and the skies.
 Shout the glad tidings, exultingly sing;
 Jerusalem triumphs, Messiah is King!

Hark! the her-ald angels sing, "Glo-ry to the new-born King! Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sin-ners re-conciled!" { Joyful all ye na-tions rise, } U-ni-ver-sal na-ture say,
"Christ the Lord is born to-day." U-ni-ver-sal nature say, "Christ the Lord is born to day."

182

HARK! the herald angels sing,
"Glory to the new-born King!
Peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled!"
Joyful all ye nations, rise,
Join the triumph of the skies;
Universal nature say,
"Christ the Lord is born to-day."
2 Christ, by highest heaven adored!
Christ the everlasting Lord!
Late in time behold Him come,
Offspring of a Virgin's womb!

Veiled in flesh the Godhead see,
Hail, the incarnate Deity!
Pleased as Man with men to dwell,
Jesus, our Immanuel.
3 Hail, the heavenly Prince of Peace!
Hail, the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all He brings,
Risen with healing in His wings,
Mild He lays His glory by,
Born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth.

As with gladness men of old
Did the guiding star behold;
As with joy they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright;
So, most gracious Lord, may we
Evermore be led to Thee.
2 As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger-bed,
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore;
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek the mercy-seat.

3 As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare;
So may we with holy joy,
Pure, and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to Thee, our heavenly King.
4 Holy Jesus, every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

CHRISTMAS MORN 7s.

184 A

He has come, the Christ of God;
Left for us His glad abode;
Stooping from His throne of bliss,
To this darksome wilderness!

2 He has come, the Prince of Peace;
Come to bid our sorrows cease;
Come to scatter, with His light,
All the shadows of our night.

3 He, the mighty King, has come,
Making this poor earth His home;
Come to bear our sin's sad load,
Son of David, Son of God.

4 He has come, whose Name of grace
Speaks deliverance to our race;
Son of Mary, Son of God.

5 Unto us a Child is born;
Ne'er has earth beheld a morn
Out of all the morns of time
Half so glorious in its prime.

6 Unto us a Son is given;
He has come from God's own heaven,
Bringing with Him from above
Holy peace, and holy love.

Horatius Bonar 1857

2 Angels bending from the sky,
Chanted at the wondrous birth,
"Glory be to God on high,
Peace, good-will to man on earth."

3 Him prophetic strains proclaim
King of kings, the Incarnate Word;
Great and wonderful His name,
Prince of Peace, the Mighty God.

4 Join we then our feeble lays,
To the chorus of the sky;
And, in songs of grateful praise,
Glory give to God on high.

Harriet Auber 1825

BRIGHT and joyful is the morn,
For to us a Child is born;
From the highest realms of heaven,
Unto us a Son is given.

2 Wonderful in counsel He,
The incarnate Deity;
Sire of ages ne'er to cease,
King of kings, and Prince of Peace.

3 Come and worship at His feet,
Yield to Christ the homage meet:
From His manger to His throne,
Homage due to God alone.

4 Glory be to God on high!
Earth, uplift the joyful cry!
Praise Him, all ye heavenly host,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

James Montgomery 1825

Ho-ly night! Peaceful night! All is dark, save the light Yonder where they sweet vigils keep, O'er the Babe who in silent sleep, Rests in heav'nly, heav'nly peace, Rests in heav'nly, heav'nly peace.

HOLY night! Peaceful night!
All is dark, save the light
Yonder where they sweet vigils keep,
O'er the Babe who in silent sleep,
Rests in heavenly peace.

2 Silent night! holiest night!
Darkness flies and all is light!
Shepherds hear the angels sing—
"Hallelujah! hail the King!
Jesus Christ is here!"

3 Silent night! peaceful night!
Child of heaven! O how bright

Thou didst smile when Thou wast born;
Blesséd was that happy morn,
Full of heavenly joy.

4 Silent night! holiest night!
Guiding star, O, lend thy light!
See the eastern wise men bring
Gifts and homage to our King!
Jesus Christ is here!

5 Silent night! holiest night!
Wondrous star! O, lend thy light!
With the angels let us sing
Hallelujah to our King!
Jesus Christ is here!

COME ye lofty, come ye lowly,
Let your songs of gladness ring;
In a stable lies the Holy,
In a manger rests the King:
See in Mary's arms reposing
Christ by highest heaven adored:
Come, your circle round Him closing,
Pious hearts that love the Lord.

2 Come ye poor, no pomp of station
Robes the Child your hearts adore:
He, the Lord of all salvation,
Shares your want, is weak and poor:
Oxen, round about behold them!
Rafters naked, cold, and bare,
See the shepherds, God has told them
That the Prince of Life lies there.

3 High above a star is shining,
And the Wise men haste from far:
Come glad hearts, and spirits pining:
For you all has risen the star.
Let us bring our poor oblations,
Thanks and love and faith and praise:
Come ye people, come ye nations,
All in all draw nigh to gaze.

4 Hark the Heaven of heavens is ringing
Christ the Lord to man is born!
Are not all our hearts too singing,
Welcome, welcome, Christmas morn?
Still the Child, all power possessing,
Smiles as through the ages past;
And the song of Christmas blessing
Sweetly sinks to rest at last.

ANGELS, from the realms of glory,
 Wing your flight o'er all the earth,
 Ye who sang creation's story,

3 Sages, leave your contemplations,
 Brighter visions beam afar;
 Seek the great Desire of nations;

4 Saints, before the altar bending,
 Watching long in hope and fear,
 Suddenly the Lord, descending,
 In His temple shall appear;
 Come and worship,
 Worship Christ the new-born King.

CHRISTIANS, awake! salute the happy morn,
Whereon the Saviour of mankind was born;
Rise to adore the mystery of love,
Which hosts of angels chanted from above;
With them the joyful tidings first begun
Of God Incarnate and the Virgin's Son.

O may we keep and ponder in our mind,
God's wondrous love in saving lost mankind,
Trace we the Babe, who hath retrieved our loss,
From His poor manger to His bitter cross;
Treading His steps, assisted by His grace,
Till man's first heavenly state again takes place.

2 With burst of music the celestial choir
In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire:
The praises of redeeming love they sang,
And heaven's whole arch with Alleluias rang;
God's highest glory, was their anthem still,
Peace upon earth, and unto men good-will.

4 Then may we hope, the angelic thrones among,
To sing, redeemed, a glad triumphal song;
He, that was born upon this joyful day,
Around us all His glory shall display;
Saved by His love, incessant we shall sing
Eternal praise to heaven's Almighty King.

ALL my heart this night rejoices,
 As I hear, far and near,
 Sweetest angel voices;
 "Christ is born!" their choirs are singing,
 Till the air everywhere
 Now with joy is ringing.

2 For it dawns, the promised morrow
 Of His birth, who the earth
 Rescues from her sorrow.
 God to wear our form descendeth;
 Of His grace to our race
 Here His Son He lendeth.

3 Hark! a voice from yonder manger
 Soft and sweet, doth entreat—
 "Flee from woe and danger
 Brethren, come; from all that grieves you
 You are freed; all you need
 Here your Saviour gives you."

4 Come, then, let us hasten yonder:
 Here let all, great and small,
 Kneel in awe and wonder.
 Love Him who with love is yearning:
 Hail the Star, that from far
 Bright with hope is burning.

O little town of Bethlehem!
 How still we see thee lie,
 Above thy deep and dreamless sleep,
 The silent stars go by;
 Yet in thy dark streets shineth
 The everlasting Light;
 The hopes and fears of all the years,
 Are met in thee to-night.

2 For Christ is born of Mary,
 And gathered all above,
 While mortals sleep the angels keep
 Their watch of wondering love.
 O morning stars together
 Proclaim the holy birth!
 And praises sing to God the King,
 And peace to men on earth.

3 How silently, how silently,
 The wondrous gift is given;
 So God imparts to human hearts
 The blessings of His heaven,
 No ear may hear His coming,
 But in this world of sin,
 Where meek souls will receive Him still,
 The dear Christ enters in.

4 O holy Child of Bethlehem!
 Descend to us, we pray,
 Cast out our sin and enter in,
 Be born in us to-day.
 We hear the Christmas angels,
 The great glad tidings tell,
 O, come to us, abide with us,
 Our Lord Immanuel!

ON this night, all nights excelling,
God's high praises sounded forth,
While the angels' songs were telling
Of the Lord's mysterious birth.
Through the darkness, strangely splendid,
Flashed the light on shepherds' eyes;
As their lowly flocks they tended,
Came new tidings from the skies.

- 2 On this day then through creation
Let the glorious hymn ring out;
Let men hail the great salvation,
"God with us," with song and shout.
See the powers of hell are broken,
Fierce and tyrannous and wild,
And on earth glad words are spoken,
Heralding the new-born Child.
- 3 Christ, who rules the earth and heaven,
By His truth's controlling power,
Who a grace to men hath given
That transforms them hour by hour.
Grant to us of His great pity
Pardon for our guilt and sin;
Grant us in the heavenly city
Peace and rest and life to win.

IT CAME upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth,
To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace on the earth, good will to men
From heaven's all gracious King."
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.

2 Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary-world:
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

3 And ye, beneath life's crushing load
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way,
With painful steps and slow,—
Look now; for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing:
O rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

4 For lo, the days are hastening on
By prophet bards foretold,
When with the ever circling years
Comes round the age of gold:
When Peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendors fling,
And the whole world give back the song
Which now the angels sing.

CALM on the listening ear of night
 Come heaven's melodious strains,
 Where wild Judea stretches far
 Her silver-mantled plains;
 Celestial choirs from courts above
 Shed sacred glories there;
 And angels, with their sparkling lyres,
 Make music on the air.

2 The answering hills of Palestine
 Send back the glad reply,
 And greet from all their holy heights
 The dayspring from on high:
 O'er the blue depths of Galilee
 There comes a holier calm;
 And Sharon waves in solemn praise
 Her silent groves of palm.

3 Glory to God! the lofty strain
 The realm of ether fills;
 How sweeps the song of solemn joy
 O'er Judah's sacred hills!
 "Glory to God!" the sounding skies
 Loud with their anthems ring;
 "Peace on the earth; good-will to men,
 From heaven's eternal King."

4 This day shall Christian tongues be mute,
 And Christian hearts be cold?
 O catch the anthem that from heaven
 O'er Judah's mountains rolled!
 When nightly burst from seraph-harps
 The high and solemn lay,—
 "Glory to God; on earth be peace;
 Salvation comes to-day!"

Joy to the world, the Lord is come: Let earth receive her King; Let ev-'ry heart pre-pare Him room,
 And heav'n and na-ture sing, And heav'n and na-ture sing, And heav'n, And heav'n and na-ture sing.

206 PH

And heav'n and nature sing, And heav'n and nature sing.

Joy to the world, the Lord is come:
 Let earth receive her King;
 Let every heart prepare Him room,
 And heaven and nature sing.
 2 Joy to the earth, the Saviour reigns:
 Let men their songs employ;
 While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains,
 Repeat the sounding joy.

3 No more let sins and sorrows grow,
 Nor thorns infest the ground:
 He comes to make His blessings flow
 Far as the curse is found.
 4 He rules the world with truth and grace,
 And makes the nations prove
 The glories of His righteousness,
 And wonders of His love.

EPIPHANY P. M.

There came three kings, ere break of day, All on E-piphanie;
 Their gifts they bare both rich and rare, All, all, Lord Christ for Thee: Gold, frankincense, and myrrh are there, Where is the King? O where? O where? O where is the King? O where?

207 D

There came three kings, ere break of day,
 All on Epiphanie;
 Their gifts they bare both rich and rare,
 All, all, Lord Christ for Thee:
 Gold, frankincense, and myrrh are there,
 Where is the King? O where? O where?
 O where is the King? O where?
 2 The Star shone brightly over-head,
 The air was calm and still,
 O'er Bethlehem fields its rays were shed,
 The dew lay on the hill:

We see no throne, no palace fair,
 Where is the King? O where? O where?
 O where is the King? O where?
 3 An old man knelt at a manger low,
 A Babe lay in the stall;
 The starlight played on the Infant brow,
 Deep silence lay o'er all:
 A maiden bent o'er the Babe in prayer:—
 There is the King! O there! O there!
 O there is the King! O there!

HARK! the glad sound, the Saviour comes,
The Saviour promised long;
Let every heart prepare a throne,
And every voice a song.

2 He comes, the prisoners to release
In Satan's bondage held;
The gates of brass before Him burst,
The iron fetters yield.

3 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure,
And with the treasures of His grace
To enrich the humble poor.

4 Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,
Thy welcome shall proclaim,
And heaven's eternal arches ring
With Thy beloved name.

THE race that long in darkness pined
Have seen a glorious light;
The people dwell in day, who dwelt
In death's surrounding night.

2 To us a Child of hope is born,
To us a Son is given;
Him shall the tribes of earth obey,
Him all the hosts of heaven.

3 His name shall be the Prince of Peace,
Forevermore adored,
The Wonderful, the Counsellor,
The great and mighty Lord.

4 His power increasing still shall spread,
His reign no end shall know:
Justice shall guard His throne above,
And peace abound below.

O Thou, who by a star didst guide
The wise men on their way,
Until it came and stood beside
The place where Jesus lay:

2 Although by stars Thou dost not lead
Thy servants now below,
Thy Holy Spirit, when they need,
Will show them how to go.

3 As yet we know Thee but in part:
But still we trust Thy word,
That blessed are the pure in heart,
For they shall see the Lord.

4 O Saviour, give us then Thy grace,
To make us pure in heart,
That we may see Thee face to face
Hereafter as Thou art.

Pressing on they come,
Wise men in their wisdom
To His humble home;
Stirred by deep devotion,
Hasting from afar,
Ever journeying onward,
Guided by a star.

REFRAIN—Light of life that shinedst,
Ere the world began;
Draw Thou near, and lighten
Every heart of man.

Meek and lowly lay,
Wondrous light that led them
Onward on their way,
Ever now to lighten
Nations from afar,
As they journey homeward
By that guiding star.—REF.

Once hast lowly lain,

Who dost now in glory
O'er all kingdoms reign,
Gather in the heathen,
Who in lands afar
Ne'er have seen the brightness
Of Thy guiding star.—REF.

Of the lonely night,
Shining still before them
With Thy kindly light,
Guide them, Jew and Gentile,
Homeward from afar,
Young and old together,
By Thy guiding star.—REF.

GIVE heed, my heart, lift up thine eyes,
 Who is it in yon manger lies?
 Who is this Child, so young and fair?
 The blessed Christ-Child lieth there.

2 Ah, dearest Jesus, holy Child,
 Make Thee a bed, soft, undefiled
 Within my heart, that it may be
 A quiet chamber kept for Thee.

3 My heart for very joy doth leap,
 My lips no more can silence keep;
 I, too, must sing with joyful tongue
 That sweetest ancient cradle song.

 While angels sing with pious mirth.

 He commanded; it was done:
 Heaven and earth and depths of ocean
 In their threefold order one;
 All that grows beneath the shining

SLEEP, my Saviour, sleep,
 On Thy bed of hay,
 Angels in the spangled heaven
 Sing their glad some Christmas carols
 Till the dawn of day.

2 Sleep, my Saviour, sleep,
 On Thy bed of hay,
 Ere the mourning angel cometh
 To the moon-lit olive garden,
 Wiping tears away.

3 Sleep, my Saviour, sleep,
 Sweet on Mary's breast,
 Now the shepherds kneel adoring,
 Now the mother's heart is joyous,
 Take a happy rest.

4 Sleep, my Saviour, sleep,
 Sweet on Mary's breast;
 Crucified, with wounds, and bruised,
 Bleeding, purple, stained, disfigured,
 One day Thou wilt rest.

1. A pilgrim through this lone ly world, The bless-éd Sav-iour passed; A

218 D

A PILGRIM through this lonely world,
The blessed Saviour passed;
A mourner all His life was He,
A dying Lamb at last.

2 That tender heart that felt for all,
For all its life-blood gave:
It found on earth no resting place,
Save only in the grave.

3 Such was our Lord; and shall we fear
The cross with all its scorn?
Or love a faithless, evil world,
That wreathed His brow with thorn?

4 No, facing all its frowns or smiles,
Like Him, obedient still,
We homeward press, through storm or calm,
To Zion's blessed hill.

Edward Denny 1839

219 D

O LORD, when we the path retrace
Which Thou on earth hast trod,
To man, Thy wondrous love and grace,
Thy faithfulness to God:—

2 Thy love, by man so sorely tried,
Proved stronger than the grave;
The very spear that pierced Thy side
Drew forth the blood to save.

3 Faithful amidst unfaithfulness,
Midst darkness only light,
Thou didst Thy Father's name confess,
And in His will delight.

4 O Lord, with sorrow and with shame,
We meekly would confess
How little we who bear Thy name,
Thy mind, Thy ways, express.

5 Give us Thy meek, Thy lowly mind:
We would obedient be;
And all our rest and pleasure find
In fellowship with Thee.

James George Deck 1842

O JESUS, when I think of Thee,
Thy manger, cross, and throne,
My spirit trusts exultingly
In Thee, and Thee alone.

2 I see Thee in Thy weakness first;
Then, glorious from Thy shame,
I see Thee death's strong fetters burst,
And reach heaven's mightiest name.

3 For me Thou didst become a man,
For me didst weep and die;
For me achieve Thy wondrous plan,
For me ascend on high.

4 O let me share Thy holy birth,
Thy faith, Thy death to sin!
And, strong amidst the toils of earth,
My heavenly life begin.

5 Then shall I know what means the strain
Triumphant of Saint Paul:
"To live is Christ, to die is gain;"
"Christ is my all in all."

BEHOLD, where in a mortal form
 Appears each grace divine!
 The virtues, all in Jesus met,
 With mildest radiance shine.
 2 To spread the rays of heavenly light,
 To give the mourner joy,
 To preach glad tidings to the poor,
 Was His divine employ.
 3 'Mid keen reproach, and cruel scorn,
 Patient and meek He stood;
 His foes, ungrateful, sought His life;
 He labored for their good.
 4 In the last hour of deep distress,
 Before His Father's throne,
 With soul resigned, He bowed, and said,
 "Thy will, not Mine, be done!"
 5 Be Christ our pattern and our guide;
 His image may we bear;
 O may we tread His holy steps,
 His joy and glory share!

William Enfield 1772

WHAT grace, O Lord, and beauty shone
 Around Thy steps below:
 What patient love was seen in all
 Thy life and death of woe.
 2 Forever on Thy burdened heart
 A weight of sorrow hung;
 Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
 Escaped Thy silent tongue.
 3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
 Thy friends unfaithful prove;

Unwearied in forgiveness still,
 Thy heart could only love.
 4 O give us hearts to love like Thee,
 Like Thee, O Lord, to grieve,
 Far more for others' sins, than all
 The wrongs that we receive.
 5 One with Thyself, may every eye
 In us, Thy brethren, see
 That gentleness and grace that spring
 From union, Lord, with Thee.

Edward Denny 1839

JESUS! exalted far on high,
 To whom a name is given —
 A name surpassing every name,
 That's known in earth or heaven!
 2 Before whose throne shall every knee
 Bow down with one accord;
 Before whose throne shall every tongue
 Confess that Thou art Lord:
 3 Jesus, who in the form of God,
 Didst equal honor claim;
 Yet, to redeem our guilty souls,
 Didst stoop to death and shame.
 4 O may that mind in us be formed,
 Which shone so bright in Thee;
 An humble, meek, and lowly mind,
 From pride and envy free.
 5 May we to others stoop, and learn
 To emulate Thy love;
 So shall we bear Thine image here,
 And share Thy throne above.

In crowded streets, by restless couch,
As by Gennesareth's shore.

3 Be Thou our great Deliverer still,

IMMORTAL Love, forever full,
Forever flowing free,
Forever shared, forever whole,
A never-ebbing sea.

2 Our outward lips confess the Name
All other names above;
Love only knoweth whence it came,
And comprehendeth love.

3 We may not climb the heavenly steeps
To bring the Lord Christ down;
In vain we search the lowest deeps,
For Him no depths can drown.

4 Nor holy bread, nor blood of grape
The lineaments restore
Of Him we know in outward shape
And in the flesh no more.

5 But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is He;
And faith has still its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.

6 The healing of His seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain;
We touch Him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again.

7 Through Him the first fond prayers are said
Our lips of childhood frame;
The last low whispers of our dead
Are burdened with His name.

8 O Lord and Master of us all!
Whate'er our name or sign,
We own Thy sway, we hear Thy call,
We test our lives by Thine.

O, WHERE is He that trod the sea,
 O, where is He that spake,
 And demons from their victims flee,
 The dead their slumbers break;
 The palsied rise in freedom strong,
 The dumb men talk and sing,
 And from blind eyes, benighted long,
 Bright beams of morning spring.

2 O, where is He that trod the sea,
 O, where is He that spake,
 And dark waves, rolling heavily,
 A glassy smoothness take;
 And lepers, whose own flesh has been
 A solitary grave,
 See with amaze that they are clean,
 And cry, 'T is He can save.

3 O, where is He that trod the sea,
 'T is only He can save;
 To thousands hungering wearily,
 A wondrous meal He gave:
 Full soon, with food celestial fed,
 Their mystic fare they take;
 'T was springtide when He blest the bread,
 And harvest when He brake.

4 O, where is He that trod the sea;
 My soul, the Lord is here:
 Let all thy fears be hushed in thee;
 To leap, to look, to hear,
 Be thine: thy needs He 'll satisfy:
 Art thou diseased, or dumb?
 Or dost thou in thy hunger cry?
 "I come," saith Christ, "I come."

As oft, with worn and weary feet,
We tread earth's rugged valley o'er,
The thought, how comforting and sweet,
Christ trod this very path before!
Our wants and weaknesses He knows,
From life's first dawning to its close.

2 Do sickness, feebleness or pain
Or sorrow in our path appear?
The recollection will remain,
More deeply did He suffer here:
His life, how truly sad and brief,
Filled up with suffering and with grief.

3 If Satan tempt our hearts to stray
And whisper evil things within,
So did he, in the desert way,
Assail our Lord with thoughts of sin,
When worn and in a feeble hour
The tempter came with all his power.

4 Just such as I, this earth He trod,
With every human ill but sin;
And though indeed the Son of God,
As I am now, so He has been.
My God, my Saviour, look on me
With pity, love, and sympathy.

THOU to whom the sick and dying
Ever came, nor came in vain,
Still with healing words replying
To the wearied cry of pain;
Hear us, Jesus, as we meet,

2 Every care, and every sorrow,
Be it great, or be it small,
Yesterday, to-day, to-morrow,
When, where'er, it may befall,

3 Still the weary, sick and dying
Need a brother's, sister's care;
On Thy higher help relying

May we now their burden share,
Bringing all our offerings meet,
Supliants at Thy mercy seat.

4 May each child of Thine be willing,
Willing both in hand and heart,
All the law of love fulfilling,

How sweetly flowed the gospel's sound
From lips of gentleness and grace,
When listening thousands gathered round,
And joy and reverence filled the place.

To heaven He led His followers' way;
Dark clouds of gloomy night He broke,
Unveiling an immortal day.

Howauteous were the marks divine,
That in Thy meekness used to shine,
That lit Thy lonely pathway, trod
In wondrous love, O Son of God.

2 O who like Thee, so mild, so bright,
Thou Son of Man, Thou Light of Light,
O who like Thee did ever go
So patient, through a world of woe?

3 O who like Thee, so humbly bore
The scorn, the scoffs of men, before?
So meek, so lowly, yet so high,
So glorious in humility?

4 And death, that sets the prisoner free,
Was pang, and scoff, and scorn to Thee;
Yet love through all Thy torture glowed,
And mercy with Thy life-blood flowed.

When, His sal-va-tion bring-ing, To Zi-on Je-sus came, The children all stood sing-ing

Ho-san-na to His name. Nor did their zeal of-fend Him, But as He rode a-long, He let them still at-tend Him, And smiled to hear their song.

237

WHEN, His salvation bringing,
To Zion Jesus came,
The children all stood singing
Hosanna to His name.
Nor did their zeal offend Him,
But as He rode along,
He let them still attend Him,
And smiled to hear their song.

2 And since the Lord retaineth
His love to children still,
Though now as King He reigneth
On Zion's heavenly hill;
We'll flock around His banner,
We'll bow before His throne,
And cry aloud, Hosanna
To David's royal Son.

3 For should we fail proclaiming
Our great Redeemer's praise,
The stones, our silence shaming,
Would their hosannas raise.
But shall we only render
The tribute of our words?
No; while our hearts are tender,
They too shall be the Lord's.

238

ALL glory, laud, and honor,
To Thee, Redeemer, King!
To whom the lips of children
Made sweet hosannas ring.
Thou art the King of Israel,
Thou David's royal Son,
Who in the Lord's name comest,
The King and blessèd One.

2 The company of angels
Are praising Thee on high;
And mortal men, and all things
Created, make reply.
The people of the Hebrews
With palms before Thee went:
Our praise and prayer and anthems
Before Thee we present.

3 To Thee before Thy passion
They sang their hymns of praise:
To Thee, now high exalted
Our melody we raise.
Thou didst accept their praises;
Accept the prayers we bring,
Who in all good delightest,
Thou good and gracious King.

O how shall I receive Thee, How meet Thee on Thy way; Blest hope of every na-tion, My soul's delight and

239 A

O how shall I receive Thee,
 How meet Thee on Thy way;
 Blest hope of every nation,
 My soul's delight and stay?
 O Jesus, Jesus, give me
 Now by Thine own pure light,
 To know whate'er is pleasing
 And welcome in Thy sight.
 2 Thy Zion palms is strewing,
 And branches fresh and fair;
 My soul, in praise awaking,
 Her anthem shall prepare.

Perpetual thanks and praises
 Forth from my heart shall spring;
 And to Thy name the service
 Of all my powers I bring.
 3 Ye who with guilty terror
 Are trembling, fear no more:
 With love and grace the Saviour
 Shall you to hope restore.
 He comes, who contrite sinners
 Will with the children place,
 The children of His Father,
 The heirs of life and grace.

FIERCE raged the tempest o'er the deep,
 Watch did Thine anxious servants keep,
 But Thou wast wrapp'd in guileless sleep,
 Calm and still.
 2 "Save, Lord; we perish," was their cry;
 O save us in our agony!"—
 Thy word above the storm rose high,
 "Peace be still."

3 The wild winds hushed, the angry deep
 Sank, like a little child, to sleep,
 The sullen billows ceased to leap,
 At Thy will.
 4 So, when our life is clouded o'er,
 And storm-winds drift us from the shore,
 Say, lest we sink to rise no more,
 "Peace, be still."

EVER patient, gentle, meek,
 Holy Saviour! was Thy mind;
 Vainly in myself I seek
 Likeness to my Lord to find;
 Yet that mind which was in Thee,
 May be, must be formed in me.

2 Days of toil, 'mid throngs of men,
 Vexed not, ruffled not Thy soul;
 Still collected, calm, serene,
 Thou each feeling couldst control:
 Lord, that mind which was in Thee,
 May be, must be formed in me.

3 Though such griefs were Thine to bear,
 For each sufferer Thou could'st feel;
 Every mourner's burden share,
 Every wounded spirit heal;
 Saviour! let Thy grace in me
 Form that mind which was in Thee.

4 When my pain is most intense,
 Let Thy cross my lesson prove:
 Let me hear Thee e'en from thence,
 Breathing words of peace and love:
 Saviour! let Thy grace in me
 Form that mind which was in Thee.

O MEAN may seem this house of clay,
 Yet 't was the Lord's abode;
 Our feet may mourn this thorny way,
 Yet here Immanuel trod.

2 This fleshly robe the Lord did wear;
 This watch the Lord did keep;
 These burdens sore the Lord did bear;
 These tears the Lord did weep!

3 This world the Master overcame;
 This death the Lord did die:

O vanquished world! O glorious shame!
 O hallowed agony!

4 O vale of tears, no longer sad,
 Wherein the Lord did dwell!
 O holy robe of flesh that clad
 Our own Immanuel!

5 Our very frailty brings us near
 Unto the Lord of heaven;
 To every grief, to every tear,
 Such glory strange is given.

THE royal banners forward go,
The cross shines forth in mystic glow;
Where He in flesh, our flesh who made,
Our sentence bore, our ransom paid.
2 There while He hung, His sacred side
By soldier's spear was opened wide,
To cleanse us in the precious flood
Of water mingled with His blood.
3 To Thee, Eternal Three in One,
Let homage meet by all be done:
As by the cross Thou dost restore,
So rule and guide us evermore.

In love, though rich, becoming poor,
That I through Him enriched might be.

2 The ever blessed Son of God
Went up to Calvary for me;
There paid my debt, there bore my load,
In His own body on the tree.

3 Jesus, whose dwelling is the skies,
Went down into the grave for me;
There overcame my enemies,
There won the glorious victory.

WE sing the praise of Him who died,
Of Him who died upon the cross;
The sinner's hope let men deride,
For this we count the world but loss.
2 Inscribed upon the cross we see,
In shining letters, "God is Love;"
He bears our sins upon the tree,
He brings us mercy from above.
3 The cross! it takes our guilt away;
It holds the fainting spirit up;

It cheers with hope the gloomy day,
And sweetens every bitter cup.
4 It makes the coward spirit brave,
And nerves the feeble arm for fight;
It takes its terror from the grave,
And gilds the bed of death with light:
5 The balm of life, the cure of woe,
The measure and the pledge of love,
The sinner's refuge here below,
The angels' theme in heaven above.

O COME, and mourn with me awhile;
O come ye to the Saviour's side;
O come, together let us mourn;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

2 Have we no tears to shed for Him,
While soldiers scoff and Jews deride?
Ah, look how patiently He hangs;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

3 How fast His hands and feet are nailed;
His throat with parching thirst is dried;
His failing eyes are dimmed with blood,
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

4 Seven times He spake, seven words of love;
And all three hours His silence cried
For mercy on the souls of men;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

5 Come, let us stand beneath the cross;
So may the blood from out His side
Fall gently on us drop by drop;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

6 A broken heart, a fount of tears
Ask, and they will not be denied;
Lord Jesus, may we love and weep,
Since Thou for us art crucified.

'Tis midnight; and on Olive's brow
The star is dimmed that lately shone:
'Tis midnight; in the garden, now,
The suffering Saviour prays alone.
2 'Tis midnight; and from all removed,
The Saviour wrestles lone with fears;
E'en that disciple whom He loved
Heeds not his Master's grief and tears.
3 'Tis midnight; and for others' guilt
The Man of Sorrows weeps in blood;
Yet He that hath in anguish knelt
Is not forsaken by His God.
4 'Tis midnight; and from ether-plains
Is borne the song that angels know;
Unheard by mortals are the strains
That sweetly soothe the Saviour's woe.

William Bingham Tappan 1822

"'Tis finished!" so the Saviour cried,
And meekly bowed His head, and died:
"'Tis finished!" yes, the race is run,
The battle fought, the victory won.
2 'Tis finished! all that heaven decreed,
And all the ancient Prophets said
Is now fulfilled, as was designed,
In Me, the Saviour of mankind.
3 'Tis finished! this My dying groan
Shall sins of every kind atone;
Millions shall be redeemed from death,
By this My last expiring breath.
4 'Tis finished! let the joyful sound
Be heard through all the nations round;
'Tis finished! let the echo fly
Thro' heaven and hell, thro' earth and sky.

WHEN I survey the wondrous cross
 On which the Prince of glory died,
 My richest gain I count but loss,
 And pour contempt on all my pride.
 2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
 Save in the death of Christ, my God;
 All the vain things that charm me most,
 I sacrifice them to His blood.
 3 See, from His head, His hands, His feet,
 Sorrow and love flow mingled down:
 Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
 Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
 4 His dying crimson, like a robe,
 Spreads o'er His body on the tree:
 Then am I dead to all the globe,
 And all the globe is dead to me.
 5 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
 That were a present far too small:
 Love so amazing, so divine,
 Demands my soul, my life, my all.

 O may we count the world as loss.
 2 When we behold Thy bleeding wounds,
 And the rough way that Thou hast trod,
 Make us to hate the load of sin
 That lay so heavy on our God.
 3 O holy Lord, uplifted high
 With outstretched arms, in mortal woe,
 Embracing in Thy wondrous love
 The sinful world that lies below;

 To gaze beyond the things we see;
 And, in the mystery of Thy death,
 Draw us and all men unto Thee.

THERE is a green hill far away,
 Without a city wall,
 Where the dear Lord was crucified,
 Who died to save us all.

2 We may not know, we cannot tell
 What pains He had to bear;
 But we believe it was for us
 He hung and suffered there.

3 He died that we might be forgiven;
 He died to make us good,

That we might go at last to heaven,
 Saved by His precious blood.

I saw One hanging on a tree,
In agony and blood,
Who fixed His languid eyes on me,
As near His cross I stood.

2 Sure, never till my latest breath,
Can I forget that look;
It seemed to charge me with His death,
Though not a word He spoke.

3 A second look He gave, which said,
"I freely all forgive;
This blood is for thy ransom paid;
I die that thou may'st live."

4 Thus while His death my sin displays
In all its blackest hue,
Such is the mystery of grace,
It seals my pardon too.

John Newton 1779

2 Sweet resting-place of every heart
That feels the plague of sin,
Yet knows that deep mysterious joy,
The peace of God within.

3 There, through Thine hour of deepest woe,
Thy suffering spirit passed;
Grace there its wondrous victory gained,
And love endured its last.

4 Dear suffering Lamb, Thy bleeding wounds,
With cords of love divine,
Have drawn our willing hearts to Thee,
And linked our life with Thine.

ALAS! and did my Saviour bleed,
And did my Sovereign die?
Would He devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?

2 Was it for crimes that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut His glories in,

When God, the mighty Maker, died
For man, the creature's sin.

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face
While His dear cross appears:
Dissolve, my heart, in thankfulness!
And melt, mine eyes, to tears!

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away,
'Tis all that I can do.

Yet, though de-spised and go-ry, I joy to call Thee mine.

259

O SACRED Head, now wounded,
With grief and shame weighed down,
Now scornfully surrounded
With thorns, Thine only crown;
O sacred Head, what glory,
What bliss, till now was Thine!
Yet, though despised and gory,
I joy to call Thee mine.

2 What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered
Was all for sinner's gain:
Mine, mine was the transgression,
But Thine the deadly pain:
Lo, here I fall, my Saviour!
'Tis I deserve Thy place;
Look on me with Thy favor,
Vouchsafe to me Thy grace.

3 The joy can ne'er be spoken,
Above all joys beside,
When in Thy body broken,
I thus with safety hide:
My Lord of life, desiring
Thy glory now to see,
Beside the cross expiring,
I'd breathe my soul to Thee.

4 What language shall I borrow
To thank Thee, dearest Friend,
For this Thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end?
O make me Thine forever;
And should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never,
Outlive my love to Thee

JESUS, in Thy dying woes,
Even while Thy life-blood flows,
Craving pardon for Thy foes:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

2 Saviour, for our pardon sue,
When our sins Thy pangs renew,
For we know not what we do:

3 O may we, who mercy need,
Be like Thee in heart and deed,
When with wrong our spirits bleed:

PART II.

JESUS, pitying the sighs
Of the thief, who near Thee dies,
Promising him paradise:

2 May we in our guilt and shame,
Still Thy love and mercy claim,
Calling humbly on Thy name:

3 O remember us who pine,
Looking from our cross to Thine;
Cheer our souls with hope divine:

PART III.

JESUS, loving to the end
Her whose heart Thy sorrows rend,
And Thy dearest human friend:

2 May we in Thy sorrows share,
And for Thee all peril dare,
And enjoy Thy tender care:

3 May we all Thy loved ones be,
All one holy family,
Loving for the love of Thee:

PART IV.

JESUS, whelmed in fears unknown,
With our evil left alone,
While no light from heaven is shown:

2 When we vainly seem to pray,
And our hope seems far away,
In the darkness be our stay:

3 Though no Father seem to hear,
Though no light our spirits cheer,
Tell our faith that God is near:

PART V.

JESUS, in Thy thirst and pain,
While Thy wounds Thy life-blood drain,
Thirsting more our love to gain:

2 Thirst for us in mercy still;
All thy holy work fulfil,—
Satisfy Thy loving will:

3 May we thirst Thy love to know;
Lead us in our sin and woe
Where the healing waters flow:

PART VI.

JESUS,—all our ransom paid,
All Thy Father's will obeyed,
By Thy sufferings perfect made:

2 Save us in our souls' distress,
Be our help to cheer and bless,
While we grow in holiness:

3 Brighten all our heavenward way,
With an ever holier ray,
Till we pass to perfect day:

PART VII.

JESUS,—all Thy labor vast,
All Thy woe and conflict past,—
Yielding up Thy soul at last:

2 When the death shades round us lower,
Guard us from the tempter's power,
Keep us in that trial hour:

3 May Thy life and death supply
Grace to live and grace to die,
Grace to reach the home on high:

FROM the cross the blood is falling,
And to us a voice is calling
Like a trumpet silver-clear:
'T is the voice announcing pardon,

Pardon to the far and near.

All our wounds forever healing,

Words of peace that voice has spoken,
Peace that shall no more be broken,
Peace between the soul and God.

"It is finished," is its burden,
Pardon to the far and near.
2 Peace that glorious blood is sealing,
All our wounds forever healing,
And removing every load;

Words of peace that voice has spoken,
Peace that shall no more be broken,
Peace between the soul and God.
3 God is love;—we read the writing
Traced so deeply in the smiting
Of the glorious Surety there.
God is light;—we see it beaming,
Like a heavenly dayspring gleaming,
So divinely sweet and fair.

REQUIEM 8s, 7s, 7.

W. SCHULTZES

All is o'er, the pain, the sorrow, Human taunts and fiendish spite; Death shall be despoiled to - morrow Of the prey he grasps to night; Yet once more to seal his doom, Christ must sleep within the tomb.

267 Org.

1 All is o'er, the pain, the sorrow,
Human taunts and fiendish spite;
Death shall be despoiled to-morrow
Of the prey he grasps to-night;
Yet once more to seal his doom,
Christ must sleep within the tomb.

2 Close and still the cell that holds Him,
While in brief repose He lies;
Deep the slumber that enfolds Him,
Veiled awhile from mortal eyes;
Slumber such as needs must be
After hard-won victory.

3 Fierce and deadly was the anguish,
Which on yonder cross He bore;
How did soul and body languish,
Till the toil of death was o'er:
But that toil, so fierce and dread,
Bruised and crushed the serpent's head.

4 Now to-night, with plaintive voicing,
Chant His requiem soft and low;
Loftier strain of loud rejoicing
From to-morrow's harps shall flow:
"Death and hell at length are slain,
Christ hath triumphed, Christ doth reign."

1 Cross of Jesus, cross of sorrow,
Where the blood of Christ was shed,
Perfect man on thee was tortured,
Perfect God on thee has bled!

2 Here the King of all the ages,
Throned in light ere worlds could be,
Robed in mortal flesh is dying,
Crucified by sin for me.

3 O mysterious condescending!
O abandonment sublime!
Very God Himself is bearing
All the sufferings of time!

4 Evermore for human failure
By His passion we can plead;
God has borne all mortal anguish,
Surely He will know our need.

269

SING, my tongue! the Saviour's glory;
Tell His triumphs far and wide;
Tell aloud the wondrous story
Of His body crucified;
How upon the cross a victim,
Vanquishing in death He died.

2 Such the order God appointed
When for sin He would atone;
To the serpent thus opposing
Schemes yet deeper than his own;
Thence the remedy procuring,
Whence the fatal wound had come.

3 Thus did Christ to perfect manhood
In our mortal flesh attain:
Then of His free choice He goeth
To a death of bitter pain;
He, the Lamb, upon the altar
Of the cross, for us was slain.

4 Lo, with gall His thirst He quenches!
See the thorns upon His brow!
Nails His hands and feet are rending!
See, His side is open now!
Whence, to cleanse the whole creation,
Streams of blood and water flow.

Go to dark Gethsemane,
 Ye that feel the tempter's power;
 Your Redeemer's conflict see,
 Watch with Him one bitter hour:
 Turn not from His griefs away,
 Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.

RESTING from His work to-day,
 In the tomb the Saviour lay;
 Still He slept, from head to feet
 Shrouded in the winding sheet,
 Lying in the rock alone,
 Hidden by the sealéd stone.

2 Follow to the judgment-hall,
 View the Lord of life arraigned;
 O the wormwood and the gall!
 O the pangs His soul sustained!
 Shun not suffering, shame or loss;
 Learn of Him to bear the cross.

2 Late at even there was seen
 Watching long the Magdalene;
 Early, ere the break of day,
 Sorrowful she took her way
 To the holy garden glade,
 Where her buried Lord was laid.

3 Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
 There, adoring at His feet,
 Mark that miracle of time,
 God's own sacrifice complete:
 "It is finished," hear the cry;
 Learn of Jesus Christ to die.

3 So with Thee, till life shall end,
 I would solemn vigil spend;
 Let me hew Thee, Lord, a shrine
 In this rocky heart of mine,
 Where in pure embalméd cell
 None but Thee may ever dwell.

4 Early hasten to the tomb,
 Where they laid His breathless clay:
 All is solitude and gloom;
 Who hath taken Him away?
 Christ is risen; He meets our eyes;
 Saviour, teach us so to rise.

4 Myrrh and spices will I bring,
 True affection's offering;
 Close the door from sight and sound
 Of the busy world around;
 And in patient watch remain
 Till my Lord appear again.

HARK, the voice of love and mercy
 Sounds aloud from Calvary;
 See, it rends the rocks asunder,
 Shakes the earth and veils the sky:
 "It is finished!"
 Hear the dying Saviour cry.

Flow to us from Christ the Lord:
 "It is finished!"
 Saints, the dying words record.

2 "It is finished!" O what pleasure

THE GRAVE OF JESUS 8s. D.

By Jesus' grave on either hand,
While night is brooding o'er the land,
||:The sad and silent mourners stand.:||
At last the weary life is o'er,
The agony and conflict sore,
||:Of Him who all our sufferings bore.:||

2 O hearts bereaved and sore distressed,
Here is for you a place of rest;
||:Here leave your griefs on Jesus' breast.:||
So when the Dayspring from on high
Shall chase the night and fill the sky,
||:Then shall the Lord again draw nigh.:||

So rest, our Rest,
Thou ever blest,
Thy grave with sinners making:
By Thy precious death, from sin
Our dead souls awaking.
2 Here hast Thou lain
After much pain,
Life of our life, reposing:
Round Thee now a rock-hewn grave,
Rock of Ages, closing.
3 Breath of all breath!
We know from death
Thou wilt our dust awaken:

Wherefore should we dread the grave,
Or our faith be shaken?

4 The body dies,—
Naught else,—and lies
In dust until victorious
From the grave it shall arise
Beautiful and glorious.

5 Meantime we will,
O Jesus, still
Deep in remembrance lay Thee,
Musing on Thy death; in death
Be with us, we pray Thee.

2 The strife is o'er, naught hurts Thee more: The heart at last hath slumbered That in conflict sore for us Bore our sins unnumbered.

3 Thou awful tomb, once filled with gloom, How blessed and how holy Art thou now, since in the grave Slept the Saviour lowly!

4 How calm and blest, the dead now rest Who in the Lord departed: All their works do follow them, Yea, they sleep glad-hearted!

5 O lead us Thou to rest e'en now, With all who, sorely anguished 'Neath the burden of their sins, Long in woe have languished.

COME, ye faithful, raise the strain
Of triumphant gladness!
God hath brought His Israel
Into joy from sadness,
Loosed from Pharaoh's bitter yoke
Jacob's sons and daughters,
Led them with unmoistened foot
Through the Red sea waters.

2 'Tis the spring of souls to-day:
Christ hath burst His prison,
From the frost and gloom of death
Light and life have risen.
All the winter of our sins,
Long and dark, is flying
From His light to whom we give Thanks and praise undying.

3 Now the queen of seasons, bright
With the day of splendor,
With the royal feast of feasts,
Comes its joy to render;
Comes to glad Jerusalem,
Who, with true affection,
Welcomes in unwearied strains
Jesus' resurrection!

4 "Hallelujah!" now we cry
To our King Immortal,
Who, triumphant, burst the bars
Of the tomb's dark portal;
"Hallelujah" with the Son,
God the Father praising;
"Hallelujah" yet again
To the Spirit raising.

THE day of resurrection,
 Earth, tell it out abroad:
 The Passover of gladness,
 The Passover of God.
 From death to life eternal,
 From earth unto the sky,
 Our Christ hath brought us over,
 With hymns of victory.
 2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
 That we may see aright
 The Lord in rays eternal
 Of resurrection-light;

And, listening to His accents,
 May hear, so calm and plain,
 His own "All hail!" and hearing,
 May raise the victor-strain.
 3 Now let the heavens be joyful;
 Let earth her song begin;
 Let the round world keep triumph
 And all that is therein;
 Invisible and visible,
 Their notes let all things blend,
 For Christ the Lord hath risen,
 Our Joy that hath no end.

How calm and beautiful the morn,
 That gilds the sacred tomb,
 Where Christ the Crucified was borne,
 And veiled in midnight gloom!
 O weep no more the Saviour slain:
 The Lord is risen! He lives again!

2 Ye mourning saints, dry every tear
 For your departed Lord;
 "Behold the place, He is not here,"

The tomb is all unbarred:
 The gates of death were closed in vain:
 The Lord is risen! He lives again!

3 Now cheerful to the house of prayer
 Your early footsteps bend;
 The Saviour will Himself be there,
 Your advocate and friend:
 Once by the law your hopes were slain,
 But now in Christ ye live again.

Hear the joy-inspiring sound.

3 Heaven displays her portals wide,
Glorious Hero, through them ride;

King of glory, mount Thy throne,
Thy great Father's and Thine own.

4 Praise Him, all ye heavenly choirs,
Strike and sweep your golden lyres:
Shout, O earth, in rapturous song,
Let the strains be sweet and strong.

5 Every note with wonder swell,
Sin o'erthrown and captived hell;
Where is hell's once dreaded king?
Where, O death, thy mortal sting?

JESUS Christ is risen to-day,
Our triumphant holy-day;
Who did once upon the cross
Suffer to redeem our loss.

2 Hymns of praise then let us sing
Unto Christ our heavenly King,
Who endured the cross and grave,
Sinners to redeem and save.

3 But the pains which He endured,
Our salvation have procured:
Now above the sky He's King,
Where the angels ever sing.

4 Sing we to our God above
Praise eternal as His love;
Praise Him, all ye heavenly host,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

“CHRIST, the Lord, is risen to-day,”
 Sons of men and angels say.
 Raise your joys and triumphs high;
 Sing, ye heavens; and earth, reply.

2 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal;
 Christ has burst the gates of hell;
 Death in vain forbids His rise;
 Christ has opened paradise.

3 Lives again our glorious King:
 Where, O Death, is now thy sting?
 Once He died our souls to save:
 Where's thy victory, O grave?

4 Soar we now where Christ has led,
 Following our exalted Head:
 Made like Him, like Him we rise;
 Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.

WELCOME HAPPY MORNING Hs. 5 ines

A. S. SULLIVAN

296 A

“WELCOME happy morning!” age to age shall say;
 Hell to-day is vanquished, heaven is won to-day!
 Lo! the dead is living, God for evermore!
 Him, their true Creator, all His works adore!
 “Welcome, happy morning!” age to age shall say.

2 Earth her joy confesses, clothing her for spring,
 All fresh gifts returned with her returning King:
 Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough.
 Speak His sorrow ended, hail His triumph now.
 Hell to-day is vanquished, heaven is won to-day.

3 Months in due succession, days of lengthening light,
 Hours and passing moments praise Thee in their flight;
 Brightness of the morning, sky and fields and sea,
 Vanquisher of darkness, bring their praise to Thee!
 “Welcome, happy morning!” age to age shall say.

4 Maker and Redeemer, life and health of all,
 Thou from heaven beholding human nature’s fall,
 Of the Father’s Godhead true and only Son.
 Manhood to deliver, manhood didst put on.
 Hell to-day is vanquished, heaven is won to-day.

5 Thou, of life the Author, death didst undergo,
 Tread the path of darkness, saving strength to show;
 Come then, true and faithful, now fulfill Thy word;
 ’T is Thine own third morning, rise O buried Lord!
 “Welcome, happy morning!” age to age shall say.

6 Loose the souls long prisoned, bound with Satan’s chain
 All that now is fallen raise to life again;
 Shew Thy face in brightness, bid the nations see:
 Bring again our daylight; day returns with Thee! [day!
 Hell to-day is vanquished, heaven is won to-day!
 [This may be sung to the tunes on opposite page by omitting fifth line of each stanza, using first and second line of first stanza as a chorus.

Golden harps are sounding,
 Angel voices sing,
 Pearly gates are opened,
 Opened for the King;
 Jesus, King of glory,
 Jesus, King of love,
 Is gone up in triumph
 To His throne above.

REFRAIN.—All His work is ended,
 Joyfully we sing;
 Jesus hath ascended!
 Glory to our King!

He is gone; a cloud of light Has received Him from our sight; High in heaven where

HE is gone; a cloud of light
Has received Him from our sight;
High in heaven, where eye of men
Follows not, nor angels' ken;
Through the veils of time and space,
Passed in to the holiest place;
All the toil, the sorrow done,
All the battle fought and won.

2 He is gone; towards their goal
World and Church must onward roll:
Far behind we leave the past;
Forward are our glances cast:

Still His words before us range
Through the ages, as they change:
Wheresoe'er the truth shall lead,
He will give whate'er we need.

3 He is gone; but we once more
Shall behold Him as before;
In the heaven of heavens the same,
As on earth He went and came.
In the many mansions there,
Place for us He will prepare:
In that world unseen, unknown,
He and we shall yet be one.

God is gone up on high,
With a triumphant noise;
The anthems of the sky
Proclaim the angelic joys:
Join all on earth, rejoice and sing,
Glory ascribe to glory's King!

2 God in the flesh below,
For us He reigns above;
Let all the nations know
The Saviour's conquering love:
Join all on earth, rejoice and sing,
Glory ascribe to glory's King!

3 All power to our great Lord
Is by the Father given;
By angel hosts adored
He reigns supreme in heaven:
Join all on earth, rejoice and sing,
Glory ascribe to glory's King!

4 Till all the earth renewed
In righteousness divine,
With all the hosts of God,
In one great chorus join:
Join all on earth, rejoice and sing,
Glory ascribe to glory's King!

The winepress of the wrath of God
Ascend, and claim again on high
Thy glory, left for us to die.

2 A radiant cloud is now Thy seat,
And earth lies stretched beneath Thy feet;
Ten thousand thousands round Thee sing,
And share the triumph of their King.

3 The angel-host enraptured waits:
“Lift up your heads, eternal gates!”
O God and Man! the Father’s throne
Is ours, for evermore, Thine own.

4 Our great High-Priest and Shepherd, Thou
Within the veil art entered now,
To offer there Thy precious blood,
Once poured on earth a cleansing flood

5 And thence the Church, Thy chosen bride,
With countless gifts of grace supplied,
Through all her members draws from Thee
Her hidden life of sanctity.

6 O Christ, our Lord, of Thy dear care
Thy lowly members heavenward bear;
Be ours with Thee to suffer pain,
With Thee for evermore to reign.

SEE, the Conqueror mounts in triumph,
See the King in royal state,
Riding on the clouds His chariot
To His heavenly palace-gate;
Hark, the choirs of angel voices
Joyful hallelujahs sing,
And the portals high are lifted,
To receive their heavenly King.

2 Who is this that comes in glory,
With the trump of jubilee?
Lord of battles, God of armies,
He has gained the victory;
He who on the cross did suffer,
He who from the grave arose,
He has vanquished sin and Satan,
He by death has spoiled His foes.

3 Thou hast raised our human nature
On the clouds to God's right hand,
There we sit in heavenly places,
There with Thee in glory stand;

Jesus reigns adored by angels,
Man with God is on the throne,
Mighty Lord, in Thine ascension
We by faith behold our own.

4 Lift us up from earth to heaven,
Give us wings of faith and love,
Gales of holy aspiration
Wafting us to realms above;
That, with hearts and minds uplifted,
We with Christ our Lord may dwell,
Where He sits enthroned in glory
In the heavenly citadel.

5 So at last, when He appeareth,
We from out our graves may spring,
With our youth renewed like eagles',
Flocking round our heavenly King,
Caught up on the clouds of heaven,
And may meet Him in the air,
Rise to realms where He is reigning,
And may reign forever there.

Who is this that comes from Edom,
All His raiment stained with blood,
To the captive speaking freedom,
Bringing and bestowing good;
Glorious in the garb He wears,
Glorious in the spoil He bears?

2 'Tis the Saviour, now victorious,
Travelling onward in His might;

'Tis the blood of many slain;
Of His foes there's none remaining,
None the contest to maintain.
Fallen they are, no more to rise;
All their glory prostrate lies.

Ancient of eternal days:
 God Eternal, Word Incarnate,
 Whom the heaven of heavens obeys.
 2 Ere He raised the lofty mountains,
 Formed the sea, or built the sky,
 Love eternal, free, and boundless,
 Led the Lord of life to die:
 Lifted up the Prince of princes
 On the throne of Calvary.
 3 Now on these eternal mountains
 Stands the sapphire throne, all bright,
 Where unceasing hallelujahs
 They upraise, the sons of light:
 Zion's people tell His praises,
 Victor after hard-won fight.
 4 Bring your harps and bring your incense,

COME, every pious heart
That loves the Saviour's name,
Your noblest power exert
To celebrate His fame:
Tell all above, and all below,
The debt of love to Him you owe.

2 He left His starry crown,
And laid His robes aside;
On wings of love came down,
And wept, and bled, and died:
What He endured, O who can tell,
To save our souls from death and hell.

The mansion of the dead,
And thence His mighty foes
In glorious triumph led;
Up through the sky the Conqueror rode,
And reigns on high, the Saviour, God.

 Lift up your heart, lift up your voice,
 Rejoice, again I say, rejoice.

2 Jesus the Saviour reigns,
 The God of truth and love;
 When He had purged our stains,
 He took His seat above:
 Lift up your heart, lift up your voice,
 Rejoice, again I say, rejoice.

3 His kingdom cannot fail,
 He rules o'er earth and heaven;
 The keys of death and hell

Are to our Jesus given;
 Lift up your heart, lift up your voice,
 Rejoice, again I say, rejoice.

4 He all His foes shall quell,
 Shall all our sins destroy,
 And every bosom swell
 With pure seraphic joy:
 Lift up your heart, lift up your voice,
 Rejoice, again I say, rejoice.

5 Rejoice in glorious hope;
 Jesus, the Judge, shall come,
 And take His servants up
 To their eternal home:
 We soon shall hear the archangel's voice,
 The trump of God shall sound, Rejoice.

320

ALL hail the power of Jesus' name!

- Let angels prostrate fall,
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him Lord of all.
- 2 Crown Him, ye martyrs of your God,
Who from His altar call;
Extol the stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown Him Lord of all.
- 3 Ye seed of Israel's chosen race,
Ye ransomed from the fall,

Hail Him, who saves you by His grace,
And crown Him Lord of all.

- 4 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
Go, spread your trophies at His feet,
And crown Him Lord of all.

5 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him Lord of all.

HOSANNA, raise the pealing hymn
To David's son and Lord;
With cherubim and seraphim
Exalt the incarnate Word.

- 2 Hosanna, Sovereign, Prophet, Priest,
How vast Thy gifts, how free:
Thy blood, our life; Thy word, our feast;
Thy name, our only plea.

3 Hosanna, Master, lo, we bring
Our offerings to Thy throne;
Not gold, nor myrrh, nor mortal thing,
But hearts to be Thine own.

- 4 O Saviour, if, redeemed by Thee,
Thy temple we behold,
Hosannas through eternity
We'll sing to harps of gold.

322

COME let us join our cheerful songs
With angels round the Throne;
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.

2 "Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry,
"To be exalted thus;"
"Worthy the Lamb," our lips reply,
"For He was slain for us."

3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and power divine;
And blessings, more than we can give,
Be, Lord, for ever Thine.

4 Let all creation join in one
To bless the sacred name
Of Him that sits upon the Throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

Isaac Watts 1707

He entered heaven, with all our names
Engraven on His breast.

2 Below He washed our guilt away,
By His atoning blood;
Now He appears before the throne,
And pleads our cause with God.

3 Clothed with our nature still, He knows
The weakness of our frame,
And how to shield us from the foes
Which He Himself o'ercame.

4 Nor time, nor distance, e'er shall quench
The fervor of His love;
For us He died in kindness here,
Nor is less kind above.

5 O may we ne'er forget His grace,
Nor blush to wear His name;
Still may our hearts hold fast His faith,
Our mouths His praise proclaim.

Beho'd the glories of the Lamb, Amidst His Father's throne: Prepare new honors for His name, And songs before unknown.

BEHOLD the glories of the Lamb,
Amidst His Father's throne:
Prepare new honors for His name,
And songs before unknown.

2 Let elders worship at His feet,
The Church adore around,
With vials full of odors sweet,
And harps of sweeter sound.

3 Those are the prayers of all the saints,
And these the hymns they raise:

Jesus is kind to our complaints,
He loves to hear our praise.

4 Now to the Lamb that once was slain,
Be endless blessings paid;
Salvation, glory, joy remain
Forever on Thy head.

5 Thou hast redeemed our souls with blood,
Hast set the prisoners free,
Hast made us kings and priests to God,
And we shall reign with Thee.

And ever prays for me;
A token of His love He gives,
A pledge of liberty.

2 I find Him lifting up my head,

His presence makes me free indeed,
And He will soon appear.

3 Jesus, I hang upon Thy word;

Thou wilt return, and claim me, Lord,

326

O CHRIST, our hope, our hearts' desire,
Redemption's only spring,
Creator of the world art Thou,
Its Saviour and its King.

2 How vast the mercy and the love,
Which laid our sins on Thee,
And led Thee to a cruel death,
To set Thy people free!

3 But now the bonds of death are burst,
The ransom has been paid;
And Thou art on Thy Father's throne
In glorious robes arrayed.

4 O may Thy mighty love prevail
Our sinful souls to spare;
O may we come before Thy throne,
And find acceptance there!

327

WITH joy we meditate the grace
Of our High Priest above;
His heart is made of tenderness,
His bosom glows with love.

2 Touched with a sympathy within,
He knows our feeble frame;
He knows what sore temptations mean,
For He hath felt the same.

3 He, in the days of feeble flesh,
Poured out His cries and tears;
And, in His measure, feels afresh
What every member bears.

4 Then let our humble faith address
His mercy and His power;
We shall obtain delivering grace
In the distressing hour.

What joy the blest assurance gives;
And now, before His Father, God,

3 In every dark, distressful hour,
When sin and Satan join their power,
Let this dear hope repel the dart,

Sweet mercy smiles, and all is peace.

WHERE high the heavenly temple stands,
The house of God not made with hands,
A great High Priest our nature wears,
The patron of mankind appears.

2 Reign, Prince of life, that once Thy brow
Didst yield to wear the wounding thorn;
Reign, throned beside Thy Father now,
Adored the Son of God first-born!

2 He who for men in mercy stood,
And poured on earth His precious blood,
Pursues in heaven His plan of grace.
The guardian God of human race.

3 From angel hosts that round Thee stand,
With forms more pure than spotless snow,
From the bright burning seraph band,
Let praise in loftiest numbers flow!

3 Though now ascended up on high,
He bends on earth a brother's eye;
Partaker of the human name,
He knows the frailty of our frame.

4 To Thee, the Lamb, our mortal songs,
Born of deep, fervent love, shall rise;
All honor to Thy name belongs,
Our lips would sound it through the skies.

4 In every pang that rends the heart,
The Man of sorrows had a part;
He sympathizes in our grief,
And to the sufferer sends relief.

5 "Jesus!"—all earth shall speak the word;
"Jesus!"—all heaven resound it still;
Immanuel, Saviour, Conqueror, Lord,
Thy praise the universe shall fill.

5 With boldness, therefore, at the throne,
Let us make all our sorrows known,
And ask the aid of heavenly power,
To help us in the evil hour.

Help to sing our Saviour's merits,
Help to chant Immanuel's praise.

Thus I wait for His returning,
Singing all the way to heaven;

Such the tranquil song of even.

CHRIST, above all glory seated!
 King triumphant, strong to save!
 Dying, Thou hast death defeated;
 Buried, Thou hast spoiled the grave.

 Heaven above and earth below;
 While the depths of hell before Thee,
 Trembling and defeated, bow.
 We, O Lord, with hearts adoring,
 Follow Thee above the sky:
 Hear our prayers, Thy grace imploring,
 Lift our souls to Thee on high!

 Owned for evermore as Thine.

Crown Him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon His throne!
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own!
With His most precious blood,
From sin He set us free:
We hail Him as our matchless King
Through all eternity.

2 Crown Him, the Lord of Love!
Behold His hands and side!
Rich wounds, yet visible above
In beauty glorified!
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his burning eye,
At mysteries so bright.

3 Crown Him the Lord of Peace!
Whose power a sceptre sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
And all be prayer and praise:
His reign shall know no end,
And round His piercéd feet,
Fair flowers of paradise extend
Their fragrance ever sweet.

4 Crown Him the Lord of heaven!
One with the Father known,
One with the Spirit through Him given
From yonder glorious throne!
To Thee be endless praise,
For Thou for us hast died!
Be Thou, O Lord, through endless days,
Adored and magnified!

Praise, brethren, praise!
What more befits the tongues
Soon to join the angels' songs?
Whilst heaven the note prolongs,
Praise, brethren, praise!

The Lord of might, from Sinai's brow,
 Gave forth His voice of thunder
 And Israel lay on earth below,
 Outstretched in fear and wonder.
 Beneath His feet was pitchy night,
 And at His left hand and His right
 The rocks were rent asunder.

2 The Lord of love, on Calvary,
 A meek and suffering stranger,
 Upraised to heaven His languid eye,
 In nature's hour of danger.

For us He bore the weight of woe,
 For us He gave His blood to flow,
 And met His Father's anger.

3 The Lord of love, the Lord of might,
 The King of all created,
 Shall back return to claim His right,
 On clouds of glory seated;

 And hallelujahs loud and long,
 O'er death and hell defeated.

THE world is very evil;
The times are waxing late:
Be sober and keep vigil;
The Judge is at the gate;
The Judge who comes in mercy,
The Judge who comes in might,
To terminate the evil,
And vindicate the right.

2 Prepare we then to meet Him;
Let right to wrong succeed;
Let penitential sorrow
To heavenly gladness lead:
So may we sound His praises,
Who from destruction saved,
Bore with us in defilement,
And from defilement laved.

3 Far, far as we have wandered,
And deep as is our fall,
His mercies never fail us,
Who freely pardons all;
Who bids His grace abounding
Love's mightiness display,
And David's royal fountain
Purge every sin away.

Rise, my soul, from sleep awaking,
Rise, and sing, and watch, and pray;

Waits my anxious soul for Thee,
Life is dark, and earth is dreary,
Where Thy light I do not see;
O my Saviour,
When wilt Thou return to me?

HE is coming, He is coming,
 Not as once He came before,
 Wailing Infant born in weakness
 On a lowly stable floor:
 But upon His cloud of glory,
 In the crimson-tinted sky,
 Where we see the golden sunrise
 In the rosy distance lie.

2 He is coming, He is coming,
 Not as once He wandered through
 All the hostile land of Judah,
 With His followers poor and few:

But with all the holy angels
 Waiting round His judgment-seat,
 And the chosen twelve Apostles
 Sitting crowned at His feet.

3 He is coming, He is coming,
 Let His lowly first estate,
 And His tender love, so teach us
 That in faith and hope we wait,
 Till in glory eastward burning,
 Our redemption draweth near;
 And we see the sign in heaven
 Of our Judge and Saviour dear.

EXPECTATION 8s, 7s.

350 A

From Tucker's "Parish Hymnal," by permission.

HARK! a thrilling voice is sounding:
 "Christ is nigh!" it seems to say;
 "Cast away the dreams of darkness,
 O ye children of the day!" 12 National

2 Lo! the Lamb, so long expected,
 Comes with pardon down from heaven: 12

Let us haste with tears of sorrow,
 One and all, to be forgiven,

3 So, when next He comes in glory
 Wrapping all the earth in fear,
 Not for chastening, but salvation,
 Unto us shall He appear.

THE Church has waited long
Her absent Lord to see;
And still in loneliness she waits,
A friendless stranger she.

2 Age after age has gone,
Sun after sun has set,
And still in weeds of widowhood,
She weeps, a mourner yet.

3 Saint after saint on earth
Has lived, and loved, and died;
And as they left us one by one,
We laid them side by side.

4 We laid them down to sleep,
But not in hope forlorn,
We laid them but to ripen there
Till the last glorious morn.

5 We long to hear Thy voice
To see Thee face to face.
To share Thy crown and glory there,
As here we share Thy grace.

6 Come, Lord, and wipe away
The curse, the sin, the stain,
And make this blighted world of ours
Thine own fair world again.

GREENWOOD S. M.

Musical score for 'GREENWOOD S. M.' in B-flat major, 3/4 time. It consists of two systems of two staves each (treble and bass clef). The melody is in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

Come, Lord, and tarry not; Bring the long-looked-for day! O why these years of waiting here, These ages of delay?

352

COME, Lord, and tarry not;
Bring the long-looked-for day!
O why these years of waiting here,
These ages of delay?

2 Come, for Thy saints still wait;
Daily ascends their sigh;
The Spirit and the Bride say, "Come!"
Dost Thou not hear the cry?

3 Come, for the corn is ripe,
Put in Thy sickle now;
Reap the great harvest of the earth,
Sower and reaper Thou!

4 Come in Thy glorious might,
Come with the iron rod,
Scattering Thy foes before Thy face,
Most mighty Son of God!

5 Come, and make all things new,
Build up this ruined earth;
Restore our faded paradise,
Creation's second birth.

6 Come, and begin Thy reign
Of everlasting peace;
Come take the kingdom to Thyself,
Great King of Righteousness.

353 A

HOLY Spirit! Lord of light!
From Thy clear celestial height,
Thy pure beaming radiance give.
Come, Thou Father of the poor!
Come, with treasures which endure!
Come, Thou Light of all that live!

2 Thou of all consolers best,
Visiting the troubled breast,
Dost refreshing peace bestow;
Thou, in toil, art comfort sweet,
Pleasant coolness in the heat,
Solace in the midst of woe.

3 Light immortal! Light divine!
Visit Thou these hearts of Thine,
And our inmost being fill:
If Thou take Thy grace away,
Nothing pure in man will stay;
All his good is turned to ill.

4 Thou, on those who evermore
Thee confess, and Thee adore,
In Thy sevenfold gifts, descend;
Give them comfort when they die;
Give them life with Thee on high;
Give them joys which never end.

Our blest Redeemer, ere He breathed His tender last farewell, A Guide, a Comforter, bequeathed With us to dwell.

354

OUR blest Redeemer, ere He breathed
His tender last farewell,
A Guide, a Comforter, bequeathed
With us to dwell.
2 He came in semblance of a dove
With sheltering wings outspread,
The holy balm of peace and love
On earth to shed.
3 He came sweet influence to impart,
A gracious, willing Guest,
While He can find one humble heart
Wherein to rest.

4 And His that gentle voice we hear,
Soft as the breath of even,
That checks each thought, that calms each fear,
And speaks of heaven.
5 And every virtue we possess,
And every victory won,
And every thought of holiness
Is His alone.
6 Spirit of purity and grace,
Our weakness, pitying, see:
O make our hearts Thy dwelling-place,
And meet for Thee.

SPIRIT of God! descend upon my heart;
Wean it from earth, through all its pulses
move;

Stoop to my weakness, mighty as Thou art,
And make me love Thee as I ought to love.

2 I ask no dream, no prophet ecstasies;
No sudden rending of the veil of clay;
No angel visitant, no opening skies;
But take the dimness of my soul away.

3 Hast Thou not bid us love Thee, God
and King? [and mind,
All, all Thine own, soul, heart, and strength,

I see Thy cross, then teach my heart to cling!
O, let me seek Thee, and O, let me find!

4 Teach me to feel that Thou art always nigh;
Teach me the struggles of the soul to bear;
To check the rising doubt, the rebel sigh;
Teach me the patience of unanswered
prayer.

5 Teach me to love Thee as Thine angels
love;

One holy passion filling all my frame;
The baptism of the heaven-descended Dove,
My heart an altar, and Thy love the flame!

GRACIOUS Spirit, Holy Ghost,
Taught by Thee, we covet most,
Of Thy gifts at Pentecost,
Holy, heavenly Love.

2 Love is kind, and suffers long,
Love is meek, and thinks no wrong,
Love than death itself more strong:
Give us heavenly Love.

3 Prophecy will fade away,
Melting in the light of day;

Love will ever with us stay:
Give us heavenly Love.

4 Faith will vanish into sight,
Hope be emptied in delight;
Love in heaven will shine more bright:
Give us heavenly Love.

5 Faith and hope and love we see
Joining hand in hand agree;
But the greatest of the three,
And the best, is Love.

COME, Holy Spirit, come!
Mercies revealing;
Make this cold heart Thine home;
Quicken its feeling:
Then shall my song ascend,

2 Come like a ray of light
Tranquilly beaming,
Chasing the shades of night,
Waking the dreaming;

Give me again to see,
As it was wont to be,
His love who ransomed me,
From the cross streaming.
3 Come, Holy Spirit, come!

Gladness to give for gloom,

Mourners in faith to go
Where healing waters flow,
Still let me pleasures know,
Purest and brightest.

Holy Ghost, the Infinite,
Shine upon our nature's night
With Thy blessed inward light,
Comforter Divine!
2 We are sinful, cleanse us, Lord;
We are faint, Thy strength afford;
Lost, until by Thee restored,
Comforter Divine!
3 Like the dew, Thy peace distil;
Guide, subdue our wayward will,
Things of Christ unfolding still,
Comforter Divine!

4 In us, for us, intercede,
And with voiceless groanings plead
Our unutterable need,
Comforter Divine!
5 In us "Abba, Father," cry,
Earnest of our bliss on high,
Seal of immortality,

6 Search for us the depths of God;
Bear us up the starry road,
To the height of Thine abode,
Comforter Divine!

- WHEN God of old came down from heaven,
 In power and wrath He came;
 Before His feet the clouds were riven,
 Half darkness and half flame.
- 2 But when He came the second time,
 He came in power and love;
 Softer than gale at morning prime,
 Hovered His holy Dove.
- 3 The fires, that rushed on Sinai down
 In sudden torrents dread,
 Now gently light, a glorious crown,
 On every sainted head.
- 4 And, as on Israel's awe-struck ear
 The voice exceeding loud,
 The trump that angels quake to hear,
 Thrilled from the deep, dark cloud;
- 5 So, when the Spirit of our God
 Came down His flock to find,
 A voice from heaven was heard abroad,
 A rushing mighty wind.
- 6 Come, Lord, come wisdom, love, and
 Open our ears to hear; [power,
 Let us not miss the accepted hour;
 Save, Lord, by love or fear.

- WHY should the children of a King
 Go mourning all their days?
 Great Comforter, descend and bring
 Some token of Thy grace.
- 2 Dost Thou not dwell in all the saints,
 And seal the heirs of heaven?
 When wilt Thou banish my complaints,
 And show my sins forgiven?
- 3 Assure my conscience of her part
 In the Redeemer's blood;
 And bear Thy witness with my heart,
 That I am born of God.
- 4 Thou art the earnest of His love,
 The pledge of joys to come;
 And Thy soft wings, celestial Dove,
 Will safe convey me home.

 Behold Thy servants wait;
 With longing eyes and lifted hands,
 We flock around Thy gate.
- 2 O shed abroad that royal gift,
 Thy Spirit from above,
 To bless our eyes with sacred light,
 And fire our hearts with love.
- 3 Blest earnest of eternal joy,
 Declare our sins forgiven;
 And bear, with energy divine,
 Our raptured thoughts to heaven.
- 4 Diffuse, O God, Thy copious showers,
 That earth its fruit may yield,
 And change the barren wilderness
 To Carmel's flowery field.

COME, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all Thy quickening powers,
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.

2 Look how we grovel here below,
Fond of these trifling toys:
Our souls can neither fly nor go
To reach eternal joys.

3 In vain we tune our formal songs,
In vain we strive to rise;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.

4 Dear Lord, and shall we ever live
At this poor dying rate,
Our love so faint, so cold, to Thee,
And Thine to us so great?

5 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all Thy quickening powers,
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

NO TRACK is on the sunny sky,
No footprints on the air;
Jesus hath gone; the face of earth
Is desolate and bare.

2 That Upper Room is heaven on earth:
Within its precincts lie
All that earth has of faith, or hope,
Or heaven-born charity.

3 One moment—and the Spirit hung
O'er all with dread desire;
Then broke upon the heads of all
In cloven tongues of fire.

4 The Spirit came into the Church
With His unfailing power;
He is the living Heart that beats
Within her at this hour.

To sanctify the soul,
To pour fresh life in every part,

Victorious death accord,
And, with our glorious Lord,
Eternal joy!

I'm of a meek and lowly mind;
But passion rages like the sea,
And pride is restless as the wind.

3 "Blest is the man, whose shoulders take
My yoke, and bear it with delight;
My yoke is easy to his neck,
My grace shall make the burden light."

4 Jesus, we come at Thy command;
With faith, and hope, and humble zeal,
Resign our spirits to Thy hand,
To mould and guide us at Thy will.

TAKE up thy cross, the Saviour said,
If thou wouldst My disciple be;
Deny thyself, the world forsake,
And humbly follow after Me.

2 Take up thy cross; let not its weight
Fill thy weak spirit with alarm;
His strength shall bear thy spirit up,
And brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm.

3 Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame;
Nor let thy foolish pride rebel;
Thy Lord for thee the cross endured,
To save thy soul from death and hell.

4 Take up thy cross and follow Christ,
Nor think till death to lay it down;
For only he who bears the cross
May hope to wear the glorious crown.

God calling yet! shall I not hear?
Earth's pleasures shall I still hold dear?
Shall life's swift passing years all fly,
And still my soul in slumber lie?

2 God calling yet! and shall He knock,
And I my heart the closer lock?
He still is waiting to receive,
And shall I dare His Spirit grieve?

3 God calling yet! and shall I give
No heed, but still in bondage live?
I wait, but He does not forsake;
He calls me still; my heart, awake!

4 God calling yet! I cannot stay;
My heart I yield without delay:
Vain world, farewell, from thee I part;
The voice of God hath reached my heart.

BEHOLD, a Stranger at the door!
He gently knocks, has knocked before;
Has waited long, is waiting still;
You treat no other friend so ill.

2 O lovely attitude! He stands
With melting heart and loaded hands:
O matchless kindness! and He shows
This matchless kindness to His foes.

3 But will He prove a friend indeed?
He will; the very friend you need:
The Friend of sinners—yes, 'tis He,
With garments dyed on Calvary.

4 Rise, touched with gratitude divine;
Turn out His enemy and thine,
That soul-destroying monster, sin,
And let the heavenly Stranger in.

1 WHERE shall rest be found,
Rest for the weary soul?
'Twere vain the ocean-depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole.

2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh;
'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.

3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years;
And all that life is love.

4 There is a death, whose pang
Outlasts the fleeting breath:
O what eternal horrors hang
Around the second death.

5 Lord God of truth and grace,
Teach us that death to shun,
Lest we be banished from Thy face,
And evermore undone.

James Montgomery 1819

How kind our Father's voice!
All may draw near in prayer;
Cast down their burden at His feet,
And meekly leave it there.

2 His wisdom orders all,
His power not less controls;
His love makes all things work for good
To trusting, loving souls.

3 Sorrows, and fears, and cares,
But waste the heart and mind;
While they who humbly rest in God
Both strength and comfort find.

4 He grants their spirits peace,
And so He gives them power;
For still with peace comes mighty love,
Our greatest, holiest dower.

5 O hear then, all, His voice;
Draw near with praise and prayer;
Cast down your burden at His feet,
And meekly leave it there.

THE Spirit, in our hearts,
Is whispering, "Sinner, come;"
The bride, the Church of Christ, proclaims
To all His children, "Come."

2 Let him that heareth, say
To all about him, "Come;"
Let him that thirsts for righteousness
To Christ, the fountain, come.

3 Yes, whosoever will,
O let him freely come,
And freely drink the stream of life:
'Tis Jesus bids him come.

4 Lo, Jesus, who invites,
Declares, "I quickly come;"
Lord, even so; I wait Thine hour;
Jesus, my Saviour, come.

Sinners ruined by the fall;
Here a pure and healing fountain
Flows to you, to me, to all,

2 Come, in sorrow and contrition,
Wounded, impotent, and blind;
Here the guilty, free remission,

Health this fountain will restore,
He that drinks shall thirst no more.

ETERNAL Light! Eternal Light!
 How pure the soul must be,
 When placed within Thy searching sight,
 It shrinks not, but, with calm delight
 Can live, and look on Thee!
 2 O! how shall I, whose native sphere
 Is dark, whose mind is dim,
 Before the Ineffable appear,
 And on my naked spirit bear
 That uncreated beam?

3 There is a way for man to rise
 To that sublime abode:—
 An offering and a sacrifice,
 A Holy Spirit's energies,
 An Advocate with God:—
 4 These, these prepare us for the sight
 Of Holiness above:
 The sons of ignorance and night
 May dwell in the Eternal Light,
 Through the Eternal Love!

SINNERS, turn, why will ye die?
God, your Maker, asks you why;
God, who did your being give,
Made you with Himself to live;
He the fatal cause demands,
Asks the work of His own hands,
Why, ye thankless creatures, why
Will ye cross His love, and die?

2 Sinners, turn, why will ye die?
God, your Saviour, asks you why;
God who did your souls retrieve,
Died Himself that ye might live:
Will you let Him die in vain?
Crucify your Lord again?
Why, ye ransomed sinners, why
Will you slight His grace, and die?

3 Sinners, turn, why will ye die?

And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,
Lose all their guilty stains.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there have I, as vile as he,
Washed all my sins away.

3 Dear dying Lamb, Thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,

Till all the ransomed Church of God
Be saved, to sin no more.

4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shal' be till I die.

5 Then in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing Thy power to save,
When this poor lisping, stammering tongue
Lies silent in the grave.

Beneath the cross of Jesus I fain would take my stand; The shadow of a mighty rock Within a weary land.

411

BENEATH the cross of Jesus
I fain would take my stand;
The shadow of a mighty rock
Within a weary land.
A home within the wilderness,
A rest upon the way,
From th' burning of the noon-tide heat,
And th' burden of the day.

2 Upon that cross of Jesus,
Mine eye at times can see
The very dying form of One
Who suffered there for me.

And from my smitten heart with tears,
Two wonders I confess,—
The wonders of His glorious love,
And my own worthlessness.

3 I take, O cross, thy shadow,
For my abiding place;
I ask no other sunshine
Than the sunshine of His face:
Content to let the world go by,
To know no gain nor loss,—
My sinful self, my only shame,—
My glory all the cross.

Outside the fast-closed door,
In lowly patience waiting
To pass the threshold o'er:
Shame on us, Christian brethren,

O sin that hath no equal,
So fast to bar the gate!

In accents meek and low,
"I died for you, My children,

misery

O JESUS, our Salvation,
 Low at Thy cross we lie;
 Lord, in Thy great compassion,
 Hear our bewailing cry.
 We come to Thee with mourning,
 We come to Thee in woe;
 With contrite hearts returning,
 And tears that overflow.

2 O gracious Intercessor,
 O Priest within the veil,
 Plead, for each lost transgressor,
 The blood that cannot fail.
 We spread our sins before Thee,
 We tell them one by one;
 O for Thy name's great glory,
 Forgive all we have done.

3 O by Thy cross and passion,
 Thy tears and agony,
 And crown of cruel fashion,
 And death on Calvary;
 By all that untold suffering
 Endured by Thee alone;
 O Christ, O spotless offering,
 Plead for us, and atone.

WE stand in deep repentance,
 Before Thy throne of love;
 O God of grace, forgive us,
 The stain of guilt remove;
 Behold us while with weeping
 We lift our eyes to Thee;
 And all our sins subduing,
 Our Father, set us free!

2 O shouldst Thou from us, fallen,
 Withhold Thy grace to guide,
 Forever we should wander
 From Thee, and peace, aside;
 But Thou to spirits contrite
 Dost light and life impart,
 That man may learn to serve Thee
 With thankful, joyous heart.

3 Our souls—on Thee we cast them,
 Our only refuge Thou!
 Thy cheering words revive us,
 When pressed with grief we bow:
 Thou bear'st the trusting spirit
 Upon Thy loving breast,
 And givest all Thy ransomed
 A sweet, unending rest.

I lay my sins on Je-sus, The spotless Lamb of God; He bears them all, and frees us From the accursed load;

1 I LAY my sins on Jesus,
The spotless Lamb of God;
He bears them all, and frees us
From the accursed load:

I bring my guilt to Jesus,
To wash my crimson stains
White, in His blood most precious,
Till not a spot remains.

2 I lay my wants on Jesus,
All fulness dwells in Him;
He heals all my diseases,
He doth my soul redeem:

I lay my griefs on Jesus,
My burdens and my cares;
He from them all releases,
He all my sorrows shares.

3 I long to be like Jesus,—
Meek, loving, lowly, mild;
I long to be like Jesus,
The Father's holy child;
I long to be with Jesus,
Amid the heavenly throng,
To sing, with saints, His praises,
To learn the angels' song.

God of my saivation! hear,
And help me to believe;
Simply do I now draw near,
Thy blessing to receive;
Full of guilt, alas! I am,
But to Thy wounds for refuge flee;
Friend of sinners, spotless Lamb!
Thy blood was shed for me.

2 Standing now as newly slain,
To Thee I lift mine eye,
Balm of all my grief and pain,
Thy blood is always nigh:

Now as yesterday the same
Thou art, and wilt for ever be:
Friend of sinners, spotless Lamb!
Thy blood was shed for me.

3 Nothing have I, Lord! to pay,
Nor can Thy grace procure;
Empty send me not away,
For I, Thou knowest, am poor;
Dust and ashes is my name;
My all is sin and misery:
Friend of sinners, spotless Lamb!
Thy blood was shed for me.

O Thou, the contrite sinners' friend,
Who, loving, lov'st them to the end,
On this alone my hopes depend—
That Thou wilt plead for me.

2 When, weary in the Christian race,
Far off appears my resting-place,
And, fainting, I mistrust Thy grace,
Then, Saviour, plead for me.

3 When I have erred, and gone astray,
Afar from Thine and wisdom's way,
And see no glimmering, guiding ray,
Still, Saviour, plead for me.

4 When Satan, by my sins made bold,
Strives from Thy cross to loose my hold,
Then with Thy pitying arms enfold,
And plead, O plead for me.

Darkened with anguish, guilt and fear,
Then to my fainting sight appear,
Pleading in heaven for me.

TAKE me, O my Father! take me,
Take me, save me, through Thy Son;
That, which Thou wouldst have me, make me,
Let Thy will in me be done.

2 Long from Thee my footsteps straying,
Thorny proved the way I trod;
Weary come I now, and praying
Take me to Thy love, my God!

3 Fruitless years with grief recalling,
Humbly I confess my sin;
At Thy feet, O Father! falling,
To Thy household take me in.

4 Freely now to Thee I proffer
This relenting heart of mine;
Freely, life and soul I offer,
Gift unworthy love like Thine.

5 Once the world's Redeemer dying,
Bore our sins upon the tree;
On that sacrifice relying,
Now I look in hope to Thee;

6 Father! take me; all forgiving,
Fold me to Thy loving breast;
In Thy love for ever living,
I must be for ever blest!

At the door of mercy sighing
With the burden of my sin,
Day and night my soul is crying,
"Open, Lord, and let me in."

2 Waiting 'mid the darkness dreary,
Stretching out my hands to Thee,
In the refuge for the weary
Is there not a place for me?

3 Hark, what sounds my ear receiveth,
Sweet as songs of seraphim!
"He that in the Lord believeth
Life eternal hath in Him."

Nothing, soul, hast thou to pay:
Christ in love to thee is saying,
"Weary child, come in to-day."

444

O, THE bitter shame and sorrow,
That a time could ever be,
When I let the Saviour's pity
Plead in vain, and proudly answered,
"All of self, and none of Thee."

2 Yet He found me; I beheld Him
Bleeding on the accursed tree,
Heard Him pray: "Forgive them, Father."
And my wistful heart said faintly,
"Some of self, and some of Thee."

3 Day by day His tender mercy,
Healing, helping, full and free,
Sweet and strong, and ah! so patient,
Brought me lower, while I whisper'd,
"Less of self and more of Thee."

4 Higher than the highest heavens,
Deeper than the deepest sea,
Lord, Thy love at last hath conquered;
Grant me now my soul's petition,
"None of self, and all of Thee."

TAKE my heart, O Father, take it;
Make and keep it all Thine own;
Let Thy Spirit melt and break it,
This proud heart of sin and stone.

2 Father, make it pure and lowly,
Fond of peace, and far from strife;
Turning from the paths unholy
Of this vain and sinful life.

3 Ever let Thy grace surround it;
Strengthen it with power divine,
Till Thy cords of love have bound it:

My gracious Lord, I own Thy right
To every service I can pay,
And call it my supreme delight
To hear Thy dictates and obey.

2 What is my being but for Thee,
Its sure support, its noblest end,
Thine ever-smiling face to see,
And serve the cause of such a friend!

3 'Tis to my Saviour I would live,
To Him who for my ransom died;
Nor could the bowers of Eden give
Such bliss as blossoms at His side.

JESUS, our best beloved friend,
Draw out our souls in pure desire;
Jesus, in love to us descend,
Baptize us with Thy Spirit's fire.

2 Our souls and bodies we resign,
To fear and follow Thy commands;
O take our hearts, our hearts are Thine,
Accept the service of our hands.

3 Firm, faithful, watching unto prayer,
May we Thy blessed will obey;
Toil in Thy vineyard here, and bear
The heat and burden of the day.

4 Yet, Lord, for us a resting-place,
In heaven, at Thy right hand prepare;
And till we see Thee face to face,
Be all our conversation there.

Nor all the blood of beasts
 On Jewish altars slain,
 Could give the guilty conscience peace,
 Or wash away the stain.

 Takes all our sins away;
 A sacrifice of nobler name,

457 PH 932 of all the

O GIFT of gifts! O grace of faith! honest
 My God, how can it be simple
 That Thou, who hast discerning love,
 Shouldst give that gift to me?

2 How many hearts Thou mightst have had
 More innocent than mine,
 How many souls more worthy far
 Of that sweet touch of Thine!

3 Ah, Grace, into unlikeliest hearts,
 It is Thy boast to come,
 The glory of Thy light to find
 In darkest spots a home.

4 The crowd of cares, the weightiest cross,
 Seem trifles less than light;
 Earth looks so little and so low
 When faith shines full and bright.

5 O happy, happy that I am!
 If Thou canst be, O Faith,
 The treasure that Thou art in life,
 What wilt Thou be in death?

Frederick William Faber 1849

FATHER of love, our guide and friend,
 O lead us gently on,
 Until life's trial-time shall end,
 And heavenly peace be won.

2 We know not what the path may be
 As yet by us untrod;
 But we can trust our all to Thee,
 Our Father and our God.

3 But if some darker lot be good,
 O teach us to endure
 The sorrow, pain, or solitude,
 That make the spirit pure.

4 Christ by no flowery pathway came;
 And we, His followers here,
 Must do Thy will and praise Thy name,
 In hope, and love, and fear.

5 And, till in Heaven we sinless bow,
 And faultless anthems raise,
 O Father, Son, and Spirit, now
 Accept our feeble praise.

 And cry for strength and light.

3 Lord, I believe; but oft I know,

 The confidence I seek!

 Canst give my soul relief:
 Lord! to Thy truth my spirit bow;
 "Help Thou mine unbelief!"

 That Jesus died for me?

Whose wondrous love redeemed me
At such tremendous cost;
Thy righteousness, Thy pardon,
Thy precious blood must be
My only hope and comfort,
My glory and my plea.

2 I could not do without Thee,
I cannot stand alone,
I have no strength or goodness,
No wisdom of my own;
But Thou, beloved Saviour,

And perfect strength in weakness
Is theirs who lean on Thee.

3 I could not do without Thee,
For, O the way is long,
And I am often weary,
And sigh replaces song.
How could I do without Thee?
I do not know the way;
Thou knowest, and Thou leapest,
And wilt not let me stray.

4 I could not do without Thee!
For life is fleeting fast,
And soon in solemn loneliness

I KNOW no life divided,
O Lord of life, from Thee;
In Thee is life provided
For all mankind and me:
I know no death, O Jesus,
Because I live in Thee;
Thy death it is which frees us
From death eternally.

2 I fear no tribulation,
Since, whatso'er it be,
It makes no separation
Between my Lord and me.
If Thou, my God and Teacher,
Vouchsafe to be my own,
Though poor, I shall be richer
Than monarch on his throne.

3 If, while on earth I wander,
My heart is light and blest,
Ah, what shall I be yonder
In perfect peace and rest?
O blessed thought in dying,
We go to meet the Lord,
Where there shall be no sighing,
A kingdom our reward.

SOMETIMES a light surprises
 The Christian while he sings;
 It is the Lord who rises
 With healing in His wings:
 When comforts are declining,
 He grants the soul again
 A season of clear shining,
 To cheer it after rain.
 2 In holy contemplation,
 We sweetly then pursue
 The theme of God's salvation,
 And find it ever new:
 Set free from present sorrow,
 We cheerfully can say,
 E'en let the unknown to-morrow
 Bring with it what it may.

3 It can bring with it nothing
 But He will bear us through;
 Who gives the lilies clothing,
 Will clothe His people too;
 Beneath the spreading heavens,
 No creature but is fed;
 And He who feeds the ravens
 Will give His children bread.
 4 Though vine nor fig-tree neither,
 Their wonted fruit shall bear,
 Though all the field should wither,
 Nor flocks nor herds be there;
 Yet God the same abiding,
 His praise shall tune my voice,
 For, while in Him confiding,
 I cannot but rejoice.

 If we could cast our care on Thee,
 If we from self could rest;
 And feel at heart that One above

 2 How far from this our daily life,
 How oft disturbed by anxious strife,

 O could we but relinquish all
 Our earthly props, and simply fall

His the arm I lean upon.

471

EVERLASTING arms of love
Are beneath, around, above;
He who left His throne of light,
And unnumbered angels bright;—

2 He who on the accursed tree
Gave His precious life for me;—
He it is that bears me on,
His the arm I lean upon.

3 All things hasten to decay,
Earth and sea will pass away;
Soon will yonder circling sun
Cease his blazing course to run.

4 Scenes will vary, friends grow strange,
But the Changeless cannot change:
Gladly will I journey on,
With His arm to lean upon.

JESUS, Master, whose I am,
 Purchased Thine alone to be,
 By Thy blood, O spotless Lamb,
 Shed so willingly for me;
 Let my heart be all Thine own,
 Let me live to Thee alone.
 2 Other lords have long held sway;
 Now Thy name alone to bear,
 Thy dear voice alone obey,

Is my daily, hourly prayer.
 Whom have I in heaven but Thee?
 Nothing else my joy can be.
 3 Jesus, Master, I am Thine;
 Keep me faithful, keep me near:
 Let Thy presence in me shine
 All my homeward way to cheer.
 Jesus, at Thy feet I fall,
 O be Thou my All in all.

THINE for ever! God of love,
 Hear us from Thy throne above;
 Thine for ever may we be,
 Here and in eternity.
 2 Thine for ever! Lord of life,
 Shield us through our earthly strife;
 Thou, the Life, the Truth, the Way,
 Guide us to the realms of day.
 3 Thine for ever! Saviour, keep
 These Thy frail and trembling sheep;
 Safe alone beneath Thy care,
 Let us all Thy goodness share.
 4 Thine for ever! Thou our Guide,
 All our wants by Thee supplied,
 All our sins by Thee forgiven,
 Lead us, Lord, from earth to heaven.

To Thy pastures fair and large,
 Heavenly Shepherd, lead Thy charge,
 And my couch, with tenderest care,
 Mid the springing grass prepare.
 2 When I faint with summer's heat
 Thou shalt guide my weary feet
 To the streams that, still and slow,
 Through the verdant meadows flow.
 3 Safe the dreary vale I tread,
 By the shades of death o'erspread,
 With Thy rod and staff supplied,
 This my guard, and that my guide.
 4 Constant to my latest end,
 Thou my footsteps shalt attend;
 And shalt bid Thy hallowed dome
 Yield me an eternal home.

JESUS, I my cross have taken,
All to leave, and follow Thee;
Destitute, despised, forsaken,
Thou, from hence, my all shalt be:
Perish, every fond ambition,
All I've sought, and hoped, and known;
Yet how rich is my condition,
God and heaven are still my own!

2 Let the world despise and leave me,
They have left my Saviour, too;
Human hearts and looks deceive me,
Thou art not, like man, untrue;
And while Thou shalt smile upon me,
God of wisdom, love, and might,
Foes may hate, and friends may shun me,
Show Thy face and all is bright.

3 Go then, earthly fame and treasure!
Come disaster, scorn, and pain!
In Thy service, pain is pleasure;
With Thy favor, loss is gain.
I have called Thee, Abba, Father;
I have stayed my heart on Thee:
Storms may howl, and clouds may gather,
All must work for good to me.

4 Man may trouble and distress me,
'Twill but drive me to Thy breast;
Life with trials hard may press me,
Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.
O 'tis not in grief to harm me,
While Thy love is left to me;
O 'twere not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmixed with Thee.

My God! accept my heart this day,
And make it always Thine,
That I from Thee no more may stray,
No more from Thee decline.

Behold I prostrate fall;
Let every sin be crucified;
Let Christ be all in all.

Ask ye what great thing I know
That delights and stirs me so?
What the high reward I win?
Whose the name I glory in?
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.

2 What is faith's foundation strong?
What awakes my lips to song?
He who bore my sinful load,
Purchased for me peace with God,
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.

3 Who defeats my fiercest foes?
Who consoles my saddest woes?
Who revives my fainting heart,

Healing all its hidden smart?
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.

4 Who is Life in life to me?
Who the Death of death will be?
Who will place me on His right
With the countless hosts of light?
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.

5 This is that great thing I know;
This delights and stirs me so:
Faith in Him who died to save,
Him who triumphed o'er the grave,
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.

Now begin the heavenly theme,
Sing aloud in Jesus' name;
Ye who Jesus' kindness prove,
Triumph in redeeming love.

2 Ye who see the Father's grace
Beaming in the Saviour's face,
As to Canaan on ye move,
Praise and bless redeeming love.

3 Mourning souls, dry up your tears;
Banish all your guilty fears;
See your guilt and curse remove,
Cancelled by redeeming love.

4 Welcome, all by sin oppressed,
Welcome to His sacred rest;

As ye journey, sweetly sing;
Sing your Saviour's worthy praise,
Glorious in His works and ways.

2 We are travelling home to God,
In the way the fathers trod:
They are happy now, and we
Soon their happiness shall see.

3 Shout, ye little flock, and blest,
You on Jesus' throne shall rest;
There your seat is now prepared,
There your kingdom and reward.

4 Fear not, brethren, joyful stand
On the borders of your land;
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,

Lovely forms or beauties rare,
But before my eyes they bring
Christ, of beauty source and spring.

2 When the morning paints the skies,
When the golden sunbeams rise,
Then my Saviour's form I find
Brightly imaged on my mind.

3 When, as moonlight softly steals,

Which, for many a generation,
Hid in God's foreknowledge lay,
But with holy exultation
We may sing aloud to-day.

2 Jesus is the name we treasure,
Name beyond what words can tell;
Name of gladness, name of pleasure,
Ear and heart delighting well;
Name of sweetness, passing measure,
Saving us from sin and hell.

3 'Tis the name for adoration;
'Tis the name of victory;
'Tis the name for meditation

In this vale of misery;
'Tis the name for veneration

Strengthen to them who else had halted,
Eyes to blind, and feet to lame.

So to write it in our heart,

3 Through mighty hosts of cruel foes,
Where earth and hell my way oppose,

O CHRIST, our King, Creator, Lord,
Saviour of all who trust Thy word,
To them who seek Thee ever near,
Now to our praises bend Thine ear.

2 In Thy dear cross a grace is found,
It flows from every streaming wound,
Whose power our inbred sin controls.
Breaks the firm bond, and frees our souls.

3 Thou didst create the stars of night,
Yet Thou hast veiled in flesh Thy light;

Hast deigned a mortal form to wear,
A mortal's painful lot to bear.

4 When Thou didst hang upon the tree,
The quaking earth acknowledged Thee;
When Thou didst there yield up Thy breath,
The world grew dark as shades of death.

5 Now in the Father's glory high,
Great Conqueror, never more to die,
Us by Thy mighty power defend,
And reign through ages without end.

3 Some word of hope, for hearts
Burdened with fears,
Some balm of peace, for eyes
Blinded with tears,
Some dews of mercy shed,
Some wayward footsteps led,

Weakness made strong,
Toilsome and gloomy ways
Brightened with song;
Some deeds of kindness done,
Some souls by patience won,

SING of Jesus, sing for ever,
Of the love that changes never.
Who or what from Him can sever
Those He makes His own ?

3 Through the desert Jesus leads them,
With the bread of heaven He feeds them,
And through all the way He speeds them
To their home above.

2 With His blood the Lord has bought them;
When they knew Him not, He sought them,
And from all their wanderings brought them:
His the praise alone.

4 There they see the Lord who bought them,
Him who came from heaven, and sought them,
Him who by His Spirit taught them,
Him they serve and love.

Saints in glo-ry, we to- geth- er Know the song that ceas- es nev- er;
 Song of songs Thou art, O Sav- iour, All that end- less day.

502 D

SAINTS in glory, we together
 Know the song that ceases never;
 Song of songs Thou art, O Saviour,
 All that endless day.
 2 Come, ye angels, round us gather,
 While to Jesus we draw nearer;
 In His throne He'll seat forever
 Those for whom He died.

3 Underneath His throne a river,
 Clear as crystal, flows forever,
 Like His fulness, failing never:
 Hail, enthronéd Lamb!

4 O the unsearchable Redeemer!
 Shoreless ocean, sounded never!
 Yesterday, to-day, forever,
 Jesus Christ, the same.

Ye saints, your music bring, At tuned to sweetest sound; Strike ev'ry trembling string, Till earth and heav'n resound: The triumphs of the cross we sing; A- wake, ye saints, each joyful string.

503 D

YE saints, your music bring,
 Attuned to sweetest sound;
 Strike every trembling string,
 Till earth and heaven resound:
 The triumphs of the cross we sing;
 Awake, ye saints, each joyful string

2 The cross, the cross alone,
 Subdued the powers of hell;
 Like lightning from His throne,

The Prince of darkness fell:
 The triumphs of the cross we sing;
 Awake, ye saints, each joyful string.

3 The cross has power to save,
 From all the foes that rise;
 The cross has made the grave
 A passage to the skies:
 The triumphs of the cross we sing;
 Awake, ye saints, each joyful string.

Christ our triumphant King,
We come Thy name to sing;
Hither our children bring
Tributes of praise.

2 Thou art our holy Lord,
The all-subduing Word,
Healer of strife:
Thou didst Thyself abase,
That from sin's deep disgrace
Thou mightest save our race,
And give us life.

3 Ever be Thou our guide,
Our Shepherd and our pride,
Our staff and song:
Jesus, Thou Christ of God,
By Thy perennial word
Lead us where Thou hast trod,
Make our faith strong.

4 So now, and till we die,
Sound we Thy praises high,
And joyful sing.

Let all the holy throng
Who to Thy Church belong,
Unite and swell the song
To Christ our King!

JESUS, still lead on,
Till our rest be won;
And although the way be cheerless,
We will follow, calm and fearless:
Guide us by Thy hand

2 If the way be drear,
If the foe be near,
Let not faithless fears o'ertake us,
Let not faith and hope forsake us;
For through many a foe,
To our home we go.

3 When we seek relief
From a long-felt grief,
When temptations come alluring,
Make us patient and enduring;
Show us that bright shore
Where we weep no more.

Still support, console, protect us,
Till we safely stand

JESUS, who can be
Once compared with Thee!
Source of rest and consolation,
Life and light, and full salvation;
Son of God, with Thee
None compared can be!

2 Thou hast died for me,
From all misery
And distress me to deliver,
And from death to save forever;
I am by Thy blood
Reconciled to God.

3 Grant me steadiness,
Lord, to run my race,
Following Thee with love most tender,
So that Satan may not hinder
Me by craft or force;
Further Thou my course.

4 When I hence depart,
Strengthen Thou my heart;
Where Thou art, O Lord, convey me;
In Thy righteousness array me,
That at Thy right hand
Joyful I may stand.

When morning gilds the skies, My heart a-wak-ing cries, May Je-sus Christ be prais'd:

WHEN morning gilds the skies,
My heart awaking cries,
 May Jesus Christ be praised:
Alike at work and prayer,
To Jesus I repair;
 May Jesus Christ be praised.
2 To Thee, O God above,
I cry with glowing love,
 May Jesus Christ be praised:
This song of sacred joy,
It never seems to cloy:
 May Jesus Christ be praised.
3 Does sadness fill my mind?
A solace here I find,
 May Jesus Christ be praised:

Or fades my earthly bliss?
My comfort still is this,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.
4 When evil thoughts molest,
With this I shield my breast,
 May Jesus Christ be praised:
The powers of darkness fear,
When this sweet chant they hear:
 May Jesus Christ be praised.
5 Be this, while life is mine,
My canticle divine:
 May Jesus Christ be praised:
Be this the eternal song,
Through all the ages on:
 May Jesus Christ be praised.

O COULD I speak the matchless worth,
 O could I sound the glories forth,
 Which in my Saviour shine,
 I'd soar and touch the heavenly strings,
 And vie with Gabriel while he sings
 In notes almost divine.

2 I'd sing the precious blood He spilt,
 My ransom from the dreadful guilt
 Of sin, and wrath divine;
 I'd sing His glorious righteousness,
 In which all-perfect, heavenly dress
 My soul shall ever shine.

3 I'd sing the characters He bears,
 And all the forms of love He wears,
 Exalted on His throne;
 In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
 I would to everlasting days
 Make all His glories known.

4 Well, the delightful day will come
 When my dear Lord will bring me home,
 And I shall see His face;
 Then with my Saviour, Brother, Friend,
 A blest eternity I'll spend,

I WAS a wandering sheep,
 I did not love the fold;
 I did not love my Shepherd's voice,
 I would not be controlled.
 I was a wayward child,
 I did not love my home,
 I did not love my Father's voice,
 I loved afar to roam.

2 The Shepherd sought His sheep,
 The Father sought His child,
 They followed me o'er vale and hill,
 O'er deserts waste and wild:
 They found me nigh to death,
 Famished and faint, and lone;
 They bound me with the bands of love;
 They saved the wandering one.

3 Jesus my Shepherd is,
 'Twas He that loved my soul,
 'Twas He that washed me in His blood,
 'Twas He that made me whole;
 'Twas He that sought the lost,
 That found the wandering sheep,
 'Twas He that brought me to the fold,
 'Tis He that still doth keep.

4 I was a wandering sheep,
 I would not be controlled;
 But now I love the Shepherd's voice,
 I love, I love the fold;
 I was a wayward child;
 I once preferred to roam;
 But now I love my Father's voice,
 I love, I love His home.

And all the steps that grace display,
Which drew the wondrous plan.

3 Grace taught my wandering feet

It lays in heaven the topmost stone,
And well deserves the praise.

To Thee, O dear, dear Saviour!
 My spirit turns for rest,
 My peace is in Thy favor,
 My pillow on Thy breast;
 Though all the world deceive me,
 I know that I am Thine,
 And Thou wilt never leave me,
 O blessed Saviour mine.

2 In Thee my trust abideth,
 On Thee my hope relies,
 O Thou whose love provideth
 For all beneath the skies;
 O Thou whose mercy found me,
 From bondage set me free,
 And then for ever bound me
 With threefold cords to Thee.

3 Alas, that I should ever
 Have failed in love to Thee,
 The only one who never
 Forgot or slighted me!
 O for that choicest blessing
 Of living in Thy love,
 And thus on earth possessing
 The peace of heaven above.

O JESUS, ever present,
 O Shepherd, ever kind,
 Thy very name is music
 To ear, and heart, and mind.
 It woke my wondering childhood
 To muse on things above;
 It drew my harder manhood
 With cords of mighty love.

2 How oft to sure destruction
 My feet had gone astray,
 Wert Thou not, patient Shepherd,
 The guardian of my way!
 How oft in darkness fallen,
 And wounded sore by sin,
 Thy hand has gently raised me,
 And healing balm poured in.

3 O Shepherd good, I follow
 Wherever Thou wilt lead;
 No matter where the pastures,
 With Thee at hand, to feed.
 Thy voice, in life so mighty,
 In death shall make me bold:
 O bring my ransomed spirit
 To Thine eterna' fold.

For the beauty of the earth, For the beauty of the skies, For the love which from our birth

From Tucker's Church Hymnal, by permission.

For the beauty of the earth,
For the beauty of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies:
Christ our God, to Thee we raise
This, our sacrifice of praise.

2 For the beauty of each hour
Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flower,
Sun and moon and stars of light;
Christ, our God, to Thee we raise :
This, our sacrifice of praise.

3 For the joy of human love,
Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth, and friends above;
For all gentle thoughts and mild:
Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This, our sacrifice of praise.

4 For each perfect gift of Thine
To our race so freely given,
Graces, human and divine,
Flowers of earth, and buds of heaven:
Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This, our sacrifice of praise.

5 For Thy Church that evermore
Lifteth holy hands above,
Offering up on every shore
Its pure sacrifice of love:
Christ, our God, to Thee we raise
This, our sacrifice of praise.

BLESSED Saviour, Thee I love,
All my other joys above;
All my hopes in Thee abide,
Thou my hope, and naught beside;
Ever let my glory be,
Only, only, only Thee.

2 Once again beside the cross,
All my gain I count but loss;
Earthly pleasures fade away;
Clouds they are that hide my day:
Hence, vain shadows, let me see
Jesus, crucified for me.

3 Blessed Saviour, Thine am I,
Thine to live, and Thine to die;
Height or depth, or earthly power,
Ne'er shall hide my Saviour more:
Ever shall my glory be,
Only, only, only Thee.

JESUS, Name all names above,
 Jesus, best and dearest,
 Jesus, fount of perfect love,
 Holiest, tenderest, nearest;
 Jesus, source of grace completest,
 Jesus purest, Jesus sweetest,
 Jesus, well of power divine,
 Make me, keep me, seal me Thine.

2 Jesus, open me the gate
 Which the sinner entered,
 Who, in his last dying state,
 Wholly on Thee ventured;
 Thou, whose wounds are ever pleading,
 And Thy passion interceding,
 From my misery let me rise
 To a home in Paradise.

3 Jesus, crowned with thorns for me,
 Scourged for my transgression,
 Witnessing, through agony,
 That Thy good confession;
 Jesus, clad in purple raiment,
 For my evil making payment;
 Let not all Thy woe and pain,
 Let not Calvary, be in vain.

4 When I cross death's bitter sea,
 And its waves roll higher,
 Help the more forsaking me
 As the storm draws nigher;
 Jesus, leave me not to languish,
 Helpless, hopeless, full of anguish;
 Tell me, "Verily, I say,
 "Thou shalt be with Me to-day."

CHOSEN not for good in me,
 Wakened up from wrath to flee,
 Hidden in the Saviour's side,
 By the Spirit sanctified,
 Teach me, Lord, on earth to show,
 By my love, how much I owe.

2 Oft I walk beneath the cloud,
 Dark as midnight's gloomy shroud;
 But, when fear is at the height,

Jesus comes, and all is light:
 Blesséd Jesus, bid me show
 Doubting saints how much I owe.

3 Oft the nights of sorrow reign,
 Weeping, sickness, sighing, pain;
 But a night Thine anger burns,
 Morning comes, and joy returns:
 God of comforts, bid me show
 To Thy poor how much I owe.

Was there ever kindest shepherd
 Half so gentle, half so sweet
 As the Saviour, who would have us
 Come and gather round His feet?
 There's a wideness in God's mercy,
 Like the wideness of the sea;
 There's a kindness in His justice,
 Which is more than liberty.

2 There's no place where earthly sorrows
 Are more felt than up in Heaven,
 There's no place where earthly failings
 Have such kindly judgment given,

There is welcome for the sinner,
 And more graces for the good;
 There is mercy with the Saviour;
 There is healing in His blood.

3 For the love of God is broader
 Than the measure of man's mind;
 And the heart of the Eternal
 Is most wonderfully kind.
 If our love were but more simple,
 We should take Him at His word;
 And our lives would be all sunshine
 In the sweetness of our Lord.

FRIEND of sinners! Lord of glory!
 Lowly, Mighty!—Brother, King!—
 Musing o'er Thy wondrous story,
 Grateful we Thy praises sing:
 Friend to help us, cheer us, save us,
 In whom power and pity blend—
 Praise we must the grace which gave us
 Jesus Christ, the sinners' Friend.

2 Friend who never fails nor grieves us,
 Faithful, tender, constant, kind!—
 Friend who at all times receives us,
 Friend who came the lost to find!—
 Sorrow soothing, joys enhancing,
 Loving until life shall end—
 Then conferring bliss entrancing,
 Still, in heaven, the sinners' Friend!

3 O to love and serve Thee better!
 From all evil set us free;
 Break, Lord, every sinful fetter;
 Be each thought conformed to Thee:
 Looking for Thy bright appearing,
 May our spirits upward tend;
 Till no longer doubting, fearing,
 We behold the sinners' Friend!

 True and everlasting
 Are the glories there;

LET the saints new anthems raise:
Wake the morn with gladness:
God Himself, to joy and praise,
Turns the martyrs' sadness:
This the day that won their crown,
Opened heaven's bright portal,
As they laid the mortal down,
And put on the immortal.

2 Never flinched they from the flame,
From the torture, never;
Vain the foeman's sharpest aim,
Satan's best endeavor:

For by faith they saw the land
Decked in all its glory,
Where triumphant now they stand
With the victor's story.

3 Faith they had that knew not shame,
Love that could not languish,
And eternal hope o'ercame
That one moment's anguish.
Up and follow, Christian men!
Press through toil and sorrow!
Spurn the night of fear, and then
O the glorious morrow!

3 Then fear not, faint not, halt not now,
 In Jesus' name be strong!
 To Him shall every creature bow,
 And sing the triumph-song:

 The bars of iron yield;
 Behold the King of Glory pass!
 The cross hath won the field!

AWAKE, my soul, stretch every nerve,
 And press with vigor on:
 A heavenly race demands thy zeal,
 And an immortal crown.

2 A cloud of witnesses around
 Hold thee in full survey:
 Forget the steps already trod,
 And onward urge thy way.

3 'Tis God's all-animating voice
 That calls thee from on high;

'Tis His own hand presents the prize
 To thine aspiring eye:

4 That prize with peerless glories bright,
 Which shall new lustre boast,
 When victors' wreaths and monarchs' gems
 Shall blend in common dust.

5 Blest Saviour, introduced by Thee,
 Have I my race begun;
 And crowned with victory, at Thy feet
 I'll lay my honors down.

562 A

THE SON of God goes forth to war,
A kingly crown to gain;
His blood-red banner streams afar:
Who follows in His train?
2 Who best can drink His cup of woe,
Triumphant over pain,
Who patient bears His cross below,
He follows in His train.
3 The martyr first, whose eagle eye
Could pierce beyond the grave,
Who saw his Master in the sky,
And called on Him to save:
4 Like Him, with pardon on his tongue,
In midst of mortal pain,
He prayed for them that did the wrong:
Who follows in His train?
5 A glorious band, the chosen few
On whom the Spirit came,
Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew,
And mocked the cross and flame;
6 They climbed the steep ascent of heaven
Through peril, toil, and pain:
O God, to us may grace be given
To follow in their train.

563 Pst

AM I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own His cause,
Or blush to speak His name?
2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?
3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?
4 Sure I must fight, if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord;
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by Thy word.
5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer though they die;
They view the triumph from afar,
And seize it with their eye.
6 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all Thine armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be Thine.

GIVE to the winds thy fears;
 Hope, and be undismayed:
 God hears thy sighs and counts thy tears;
 God shall lift up thy head.

2 Through waves and clouds and storms,
 He gently clears thy way:
 Wait thou His time, so shall this night
 Soon end in joyous day.

3 What though thou rulest not,
 Yet heaven and earth and hell
 Proclaim, God sitteth on the throne,
 And ruleth all things well.

4 Far, far above thy thought
 His counsel shall appear,
 When fully He the work hath wrought
 That caused thy needless fear.

5 Thou seest our weakness, Lord,
 Our hearts are known to Thee;
 O lift Thou up the sinking hand,
 Confirm the feeble knee.

6 Let us, in life, in death,
 Thy steadfast truth declare,
 And publish with our latest breath
 Thy love and guardian care.

Soldiers of Christ, arise, And put your armor on, Strong in the strength which God supplies, Through His eternal Son.

From Tucker's Children's Hymnal, by permission.

565

SOLDIERS of Christ, arise,
 And put your armor on,
 Strong in the strength which God supplies,
 Through His eternal Son.

2 Strong in the Lord of hosts,
 And in His mighty power,
 Who in the strength of Jesus trusts,
 Is more than conqueror.

3 Stand, then, in His great might,
 With all His strength endued,
 And take, to arm you for the fight,
 The panoply of God;

4 That, having all things done,
 And all your conflicts past,
 Ye may o'ercome through Christ alone,
 And stand entire at last.

A CHARGE to keep I have,
 A God to glorify,
 A never-dying soul to save,
 And fit it for the sky;

2 To serve the present age,
 My calling to fulfil:
 O may it all my powers engage
 To do my Master's will.

3 Arm me with jealous care,
 As in Thy sight to live,
 And O Thy servant, Lord, prepare
 A strict account to give.

4 Help me to watch and pray,
 And on Thyself rely,
 Assured, if I my trust betray,
 I shall for ever die.

My soul, be on thy guard;
 Ten thousand foes arise;
 The hosts of sin are pressing hard
 To draw thee from the skies.

2 O watch, and fight, and pray;
 The battle ne'er give o'er;
 Renew it boldly every day,
 And help divine implore.

3 Ne'er think the victory won,
 Nor lay thine armor down;
 Thy arduous work will not be done,
 Till thou obtain thy crown.

4 Fight on, my soul, till death
 Shall bring thee to thy God;
 He'll take thee, at thy parting breath,
 To His divine abode.

569 B

My soul, weigh not thy life
 Against thy heavenly crown;
 Nor suffer Satan's deadliest strife
 To beat thy courage down.

2 With prayer and crying strong,
 Hold on the fearful fight,
 And let the breaking day prolong
 The wresting of the night.

3 The battle soon will yield,
 If thou thy part fulfil;
 For strong as is the hostile shield,
 Thy sword is stronger still.

 Thy feet with victory shod;
 And on thy head shall quickly shine
 The diadem of God.

Go forward, Christian soldier,
Beneath His banner true:
The Lord Himself, thy leader,
Shall all thy foes subdue.
His love foretells thy trials,
He knows thine hourly need;
He can, with bread of heaven,
Thy fainting spirit feed.

2 Go forward, Christian soldier,
Fear not the secret foe;
Far more are o'er thee watching
Than human eyes can know.
Trust only Christ, thy captain,
Cease not to watch and pray;
Heed not the treacherous voices
That lure thy soul astray.

3 Go forward, Christian soldier,
Nor dream of peaceful rest,
Till Satan's host is vanquished,
And heaven is all possessed;
Till Christ Himself shall call Thee
To lay thine armor by,
And wear, in endless glory,
The crown of victory.

4 Go forward, Christian soldier,
Fear not the gathering night;
The Lord has been thy shelter,
The Lord will be thy light;
When morn His face revealeth,
Thy dangers all are past;
O pray that faith and virtue
May keep thee to the last.

No, there's a cross for every one,
And there's a cross for me.

Who once went sorrowing here!
But now they taste unmingled love,
And joy without a tear.

Till death shall set me free;
And then go home my crown to wear,
For there's a crown for me.

STAND up, stand up for Jesus,
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high His royal banner,
It must not suffer loss:
From victory unto victory
His army shall He lead,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict,
In this His glorious day:
"Ye that are men, now serve Him"
Against unnumbered foes;
Let courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
Stand in His strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you,
Ye dare not trust your own:
Put on the gospel armor,
Each piece put on with prayer;
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.

4 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of battle,
The next the victor's song:
To him that overcometh,
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of Glory
Shall reign eternally.

Bearing precious seed in love,
Never tiring, never sleeping,
Findeth mercy from above:

Let no fears thy soul annoy;

See the rising grain appear;
Look again: the fields are whitening,
For the harvest time is near.

FORWARD! be our watchword,
 Step and voices joined,
 Seek the things before us,

Forward through the desert,
 Through the toil and fight,
 Jordan flows before us,

2 Forward when in childhood
 Buds the infant mind;
 All through youth and manhood,
 Not a thought behind:
 Speed through realms of nature,
 Climb the steps of grace;
 Faint not, till in glory
 Gleams our Father's face.
 Forward, all the life-time
 Climb from height to height:
 Till the head be hoary,
 Till the eve be light!

3 Forward, flock of Jesus,
 Salt of all the earth,
 Till each yearning purpose
 Spring to glorious birth;
 Sick, they ask for healing,
 Blind, they grope for day;
 Pour upon the nations
 Wisdom's loving ray.
 Forward, out of error,
 Leave behind the night;
 Forward through the darkness,
 Forward into light.

4 Glories upon glories,
 Hath our God prepared,
 By the souls that love Him
 One day to be shared;
 Eye hath not beheld them,
 Ear hath never heard;
 Nor of these hath uttered
 Thought or speech or word.
 Forward, marching eastward
 Where the heaven is bright,
 Till the veil be lifted,
 Till our faith be sight!

 Prayer and praise alone:
 Every thought upraising
 To our city bright,
 Where the tribes assemble
 Round the throne of light.

3 Naught that city needeth

 Dull the songs of night;
 Forward into triumph,

He whom Jesus nameth
Must be on His side.
By Thy love constraining,
By Thy grace divine,
We are on the Lord's side;

That even saints can know
To follow in Thy footsteps
Wherever Thou dost go.
Not wisdom, might, or glory,
I ask to win above;
I ask for Thee, Thee only,
O Thou eternal love!

Near - er, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee : E'en though it be a cross That rais-eth me ;

Still all my song shall be, Near-er, my God, to Thee, Near-er to Thee, Near - er to Thee.

589

NEARER, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee :
E'en though it be a cross
That raiseth me ;

Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

2 Though like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone ;

Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

3 There let the way appear
Steps unto heaven ;
All that Thou sendest me,
In mercy given ;

Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

4 Then with my waking thoughts
Bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise ;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

5 Or if on joyful wing
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upward I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

Thy love to me, O Christ, Thy love to me, Not mine to Thee, I plead, Not mine to Thee!

This is my com - fort strong, This is my on - ly song, Thy love to me.

590 D

Thy love to me, O Christ,
 Thy love to me,
 Not mine to Thee, I plead,
 Not mine to Thee!
 This is my comfort strong,
 This is my only song,
 Thy love to me.

2 Thy record I believe,
 Thy word to me.
 Thy love I now receive,
 Full, changeless, free.
 Love from the sinless Son,
 Love to the sinful one,
 Thy love to me.

3 Immortal love of Thine,
 Thy sacrifice,
 Infinite need of mine
 Only supplies.
 Streams of divinen power,
 Flow to me, hour by hour,
 Thy love to me.

4 Let me more clearly trace,
 Thy love to me,
 See in the Father's face,
 His love to Thee.
 Know as He loves the Son,
 So dost Thou love Thine own.
 Thy love to me.

MORE love to Thee, O Christ,
 More love to Thee!
 Hear Thou the prayer I make,
 On bended knee;
 This is my earnest plea,
 More love, O Christ, to Thee,
 More love to Thee.

2 Once earthly joy I craved,
 Sought peace and rest;
 Now Thee alone I seek,
 Give what is best:
 This all my prayer shall be,
 More love, O Christ, to Thee,
 More love to Thee!

3 Let sorrow do its work,
 Send grief and pain;
 Sweet are Thy messengers,
 Sweet their refrain,
 When they can sing with me,
 More love, O Christ, to Thee,
 More love to Thee!

4 Then shall my latest breath
 Whisper Thy praise;
 This be the parting cry
 My heart shall raise,
 This still its prayer shall be,
 More love, O Christ, to Thee,
 More love to Thee!

LIFT up your heads, ye mighty gates,
Behold the King of glory waits;
The King of kings is drawing near,
The Saviour of the world is here.

2 Fling wide the portals of your heart,
Make it a temple set apart
From earthly use for heaven's employ,
Adorned with prayer and love and joy.

3 Redeemer, come, I open wide
My heart to Thee; here, Lord, abide!
Let me Thy inner presence feel,

TEACH me, my God and King,
In all things Thee to see,
And what I do in anything,

In all be Thou the end.

3 All may of Thee partake;
Nothing so small can be
But draws, when acted for Thy sake,
Greatness and worth from Thee.

BLEST are the pure in heart,
For they shall see our God;
The secret of the Lord is theirs,
Their soul is Christ's abode.

ABIDE in me, O Lord, and I in Thee,
 From this good hour, oh leave me never-more; [healed,
 Then shall the discord cease, the wound be
 The life-long bleeding of the soul be o'er.
 2 Abide in me; o'ershadow by Thy love
 Each half-formed purpose and dark thought of sin;
 Quench ere it rise each selfish, low desire,
 And keep my soul as Thine, calm and divine.
 3 As some rare perfume in a vase of clay,
 Pervades it with a fragrance not its own,

So, when Thou dwellest in a mortal soul,
 All heaven's own sweetness seems around it thrown.
 4 Abide in me: there have been moments blest,
 When I have heard Thy voice and felt
 Thy power;
 Then evil lost its grasp; and passion, hushed,
 Owned the divine enchantment of the hour.
 5 These were but seasons beautiful and rare;
 Abide in me, and they shall ever be;
 Fulfil at once Thy precept and my prayer,
 Come, and abide in me, and I in Thee.

FATHER, I know that all my life
Is portioned out for me;
The changes that will surely come
I do not fear to see:
I ask Thee for a present mind,
Intent on pleasing Thee.

2 I ask Thee for a thoughtful love,
Through constant watching wise,
To meet the glad with joyful smiles,
And wipe the weeping eyes;
A heart at leisure from itself,
To soothe and sympathize.

3 I would not have the restless will
That hurries to and fro,
Seeking for some great thing to do,

Or secret thing to know:
I would be treated as a child,
And guided where I go.

4 I ask Thee for the daily strength,
To none that ask denied,
A mind to blend with outward life,
While keeping at Thy side;
Content to fill a little space,
If Thou be glorified.

5 And if some things I do not ask
Among my blessings be,
I'd have my spirit filled the more
With grateful love to Thee;
More careful, not to serve Thee much,
But please Thee perfectly.

lyrics above

I do not ask that life may be,
 O Lord, a pleasant road;
 Nor that Thou wouldest take from me,
 Aught of its weary load.

2 For one thing chiefly do I plead,
 Dear Lord, lead me aright: [bleed,
 Though strength should fail, and heart should
 Lead me through peace to light.

3 I do not ask to understand
 My cross, my way to see;

 May rule the quiet night:
 Lead me, till perfect day shall shine,

LORD, as to Thy dear cross we flee,
 And plead to be forgiven,

So let Thy life our pattern be,
 And form our souls for Heaven.

2 Help us, through good report and ill,
 Our daily cross to bear;
 Like Thee, to do our Father's will,
 Our brethren's griefs to share.

3 If joy shall at Thy bidding fly,
 And grief's dark day come on,
 We in our turn would meekly cry,
 Father, Thy will be done.

4 Should friends misjudge, or foes defame,
 Or brethren faithless prove,
 Then, like Thine own, be all our aim
 To conquer them by love.

5 Kept peaceful in the midst of strife,

O let him whose sorrow
No relief can find,
Trust in God and borrow
Ease for heart and mind:
Where the mourner weeping
Sheds the secret tear,
God His watch is keeping,
Though none else is near.

2 God will never leave us,

| 1 I BLESS the Christ of God;
I rest on love divine;
And with unfaltering lip and heart,
I call this Saviour mine. 2 His cross dispels each doubt;
I bury in His tomb
Each thought of unbelief and fear,
Each lingering shade of gloom. 3 I praise the God of grace;
I trust His truth and might;
He calls me His, I call Him mine,
My God, my Joy, my Light. | 4 In Him is only good,
In me is only ill;
My ill but draws His goodness forth,
And me He loveth still. 5 'Tis He who saveth me,
And freely pardon gives;
I love because He loveth me,
I live because He lives. 6 My life with Him is hid,
My death has passed away,
My clouds have melted into light,
My midnight into day. |

CAST thy burden on the Lord,
Only lean upon His word;
Thou shalt soon have cause to bless,
His eternal faithfulness.

2 Ever in the raging storm
Thou shalt see His cheering form,
Hear His pledge of coming aid;
"It is I, be not afraid."

3 Cast thy burden at His feet;
Linger at His mercy-seat:
He will lead thee by the hand
Gently to the better land.

4 He will gird thee by His power,
In thy weary, fainting hour;
Lean then, loving, on His word;
Cast thy burden on the Lord.

WARR, my soul, upon the Lord.
To His gracious promise flee,
Laying hold upon His word,
"As thy days, thy strength shall be."

2 If the sorrows of thy case
Seem peculiar, still to thee,
God has promised needful grace;
"As thy days, thy strength shall be."

3 Days of trial, days of grief,
In succession thou mayst see;
This is still thy sweet relief,
"As thy days, thy strength shall be."

4 Rock of ages! I'm secure,
With Thy promise, full and free,
Faithful, positive, and sure,
"As thy days, thy strength shall be."

WHEN our heads are bowed with woe,
When our bitter tears o'erflow,
When we mourn the lost, the dear,
Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

2 Thou our throbbing flesh hast worn,
Thou our mortal griefs hast borne,
Thou hast shed the human tear;
Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

3 When the solemn death-bell tolls
For our own departing souls,
When our final doom is near,
Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

4 Thou hast bowed the dying head,
Thou the blood of life hast shed,
Thou hast filled a mortal bier;
Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

5 When the heart is sad within
With the thought of all its sin,
When the spirit shrinks with fear,
Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

6 Thou, the shame, the grief hast known;
Though the sins were not Thine own,
Thou hast dignified their load to bear;
Jesus, Son of Mary, hear.

SHADOW of a mighty rock,
Stretching o'er a weary land,
Hide me from the tempest's shock,
Let me in Thy shelter stand.

2 When Thy presence, O my God,
Brighter is than eye can see,
Shadow on the heavenward road,
Let me find my shade in Thee.

3 When life's passions o'er me break,
Like a storm against the wall,

Let me find for mercy's sake,
Shelter where Thy shadows fall.

4 Out of Thee are shades of death,
Weary ways, and hours unblest;
Shadow of the rock, beneath
Thee alone are joy and rest.

'Come to Me,' saith One, 'and coming,

2 Hath He marks to lead me to Him,
If He be my guide?
'In His feet and hands are wound-prints,
And His side.'

3 Is there diadem, as monarch,
That His brow adorns?
'Yea, a crown, in very surety,
But of thorns.'

4 If I find Him, if I follow,
What His guerdon here?

'Many a sorrow, many a labor,
Many a tear.'

5 If I still hold closely to Him,
What hath He at last?
'Sorrow vanquished, labor ended,
Jordan passed.'

6 If I ask Him to receive me,
Will He say me nay?
'Not till earth, and not till heaven
Pass away.'

7 Finding, following, keeping, struggling,
Is He sure to bless?
Saints, apostles, prophets, martyrs,
Answer, 'Yes.'

How kind His precepts are!
"Come, cast your burdens on the Lord,
And trust His constant care."
2 While Providence supports,
Let saints securely dwell;
That hand, which bears all nature up,

2 Grief nor pain nor any sorrow
Rends thy heart, to Him unknown;

Grace sufficient gives His own.

Thus the risen Saviour whispers,
From His dwelling-place above.

2 With us when we toil in sadness,
Sowing much, and reaping none;
Telling us that in the future
Golden harvests shall be won.

3 Holy strivings nerve and strengthen;
Long endurance wins the crown:
When the evening shadows lengthen,

The gall, the curse, the wrath, were Thine,
To set Thy members free.

4 Ascended now, in glory bright,
Still one with us Thou art;
Nor life, nor death, nor depth, nor height,
Thy saints and Thee can part.

5 O teach us, Lord, to know and own
This wondrous mystery,
That Thou with us art truly one,
And we are one with Thee.

6 Soon, soon shall come that glorious day,
When, seated on Thy throne,
Thou shalt to wondering worlds display
That Thou with us art one.

Walk in the light! so shalt thou know That fellowship of love His Spirit only can bestow, Who reigns in light a-bove.

650

WALK in the light! so shalt thou know
That fellowship of love
His Spirit only can bestow,
Who reigns in light above.

2 Walk in the light! and thou shalt find
Thy heart made truly His
Who dwells in cloudless light enshrined,
In whom no darkness is.

3 Walk in the light! and thou shalt own
Thy darkness passed away,

Because that light hath on thee shone,
In which is perfect day.

4 Walk in the light! and e'en the tomb
No fearful shade shall wear;
Glory shall chase away its gloom,
For Christ hath conquered there.

5 Walk in the light! and thine shall be
A path, though thorny, bright;
For God, by grace, shall dwell in thee,
And God Himself is light.

How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord, Is laid for your faith in His excellent word! What more can He say than to

 The rivers of woe shall not thee overflow;
 For I will be with thee thy trouble to bless.
 And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.

 My grace, all-sufficient, shall be Thy supply;
 The flame shall not hurt thee: I only design
 Thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine.

 My sovereign, eternal, unchangeable love;
 And when hoary hairs shall their temples adorn,

 That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake,
 I'll never, no never, no never forsake."

2 O joy all joys beyond,
To see the Lamb who died,
And count each sacred wound
In hands, and feet, and side;

To give to Him the praise
Of every triumph won,
And sing through endless days
The great things He hath done.

In uncomplaining love,
His own most gracious smile

HEAVEN IS OUR HOME 6s, 4s.

We are but strangers here,
 Heaven is our home;
 Earth is a desert drear,
 Heaven is our home:
 Danger and sorrow stand
 Round us on every hand,
 Heaven is our Father-land,
 Heaven is our home.
 2 What though the tempests rage?
 Heaven is our home;
 Short is our pilgrimage,
 Heaven is our home:
 And Time's wild wintry blast
 Soon shall be overpast,
 We shall reach home at last;
 Heaven is our home.

3 There at our Saviour's side,
 Heaven is our home;
 May we be glorified;
 Heaven is our home:
 There are the good and blest,
 Those we love most and best,
 Grant us with them to rest;
 Heaven is our home.
 4 Grant us to murmur not,
 Heaven is our home;
 Whate'er our earthly lot,
 Heaven is our home.
 Grant us at last to stand
 There at Thine own right hand,
 Jesus, in Fatherland:
 Heaven is our home!

Is kept in perfect peace.
2 The soul, by faith reclined
On the Redeemer's breast,
'Midst raging storms, exults to find
An everlasting rest.
3 Sorrow and fear are gone,
Whene'er Thy face appears;
It stills the sighing orphan's moan,
And dries the widow's tears.
4 Jesus, to whom I fly,
Doth all my wishes fill;
In vain the creature streams are dry;
I have the Fountain still.
5 Stripped of my earthly friends,
I find them all in One,
And peace, and joy that never ends,
And heaven, in Christ alone.

My God, is an - y hour so sweet, From blush of morn to even - ing star, As that which calls me to Thy feet, The hour of prayer?

681

My God, is any hour so sweet,
From blush of morn to evening star,
As that which calls me to Thy feet,
The hour of prayer?

2 Blest is that tranquil hour of morn,
And blest that solemn hour of eve,
When, on the wings of prayer upborne,
The world I leave.

3 Then is my strength by Thee renewed;
Then are my sins by Thee forgiven;
Then dost Thou cheer my solitude
With hopes of heaven.

4 No words can tell what sweet relief
Here for my every want I find;
What strength for warfare, balm for grief,
What peace of mind.

5 Hushed is each doubt, gone every fear;
My spirit seems in heaven to stay;
And e'en the penitential tear
Is wiped away.

6 Lord, till I reach that blissful shore,
No privilege so dear shall be
As thus my inmost soul to pour
In prayer to Thee.

O KING of mercy, from Thy throne on high,
Look down in love, and hear our humble cry.

2 Thou tender Shepherd of the blood-bought sheep,
Thy feeble wandering flock in safety keep.

3 O gentle Saviour, by Thy death we live;
To contrite sinners life eternal give.

4 Thou art the bread of heaven, on Thee we feed;
Be near to help our souls in time of need.

5 Thou art the mourner's stay, the sinner's Friend,
Sweet fount of joy and blessings without end.

God of pity, God of grace,
 When we humbly seek Thy face,
 Bend from heaven, Thy dwelling place;
 Hear, forgive and save.

 Spread our wants before Thy feet,
 Pleading at the mercy-seat;
 Look from heaven and save.

690

PRAYER is the soul's sincere desire,
Unuttered or expressed;
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.

2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.

3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

4 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice
Returning from his ways,
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And cry, "Behold he prays!"

5 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air,
His watchword at the gates of death;
He enters heaven with prayer.

6 O Thou, by whom we come to God,
The Life, the Truth, the Way,
The path of prayer Thyself hast trod;
Lord, teach us how to pray.

Glorious things of thee are spoken, Zion, city of our God!

GLORIOUS things of thee are spoken,
 Zion, city of our God;
 He whose word cannot be broken,
 Formed thee for His own abode.
 On the Rock of Ages founded,
 What can shake thy sure repose?
 With salvation's walls surrounded,
 Thou mayest smile at all thy foes.
 2 See, the streams of living waters,
 Springing from eternal love,
 Well supply thy sons and daughters,
 And all fear of want remove:

Who can faint, while such a river
 Ever flows their thirst to assuage?
 Grace, which, like the Lord, the Giver,
 Never fails from age to age.
 3 Round each habitation hovering,
 See the cloud and fire appear,
 For a glory and a covering,
 Showing that the Lord is near:
 Thus deriving from their banner
 Light by night, and shade by day,
 Safe they feed upon the Manna
 Which He gives them when they pray.

 Her walls before Thee stand,
 Dear as the apple of Thine eye,
 And graven on Thy hand.

 I prize her heavenly ways,
 Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
 Her hymns of love and praise.

1 PRAISE the Rock of our salvation,
 Laud His name from zone to zone;
 On that Rock the Church is builded,
 Christ Himself the Corner-Stone;
 Vain against our rock-built Zion
 Winds, and waters, fire and hail;
 Christ is in her midst; against her
 Sin and hell shall not prevail.

2 Framed of living stones, cemented
 By the Spirit's unity,
 Based on prophets and apostles,
 Firm in faith, and stayed on Thee,
 May Thy Church, O Lord incarnate,
 Grow in grace, in peace, in love;
 Emblem of the heavenly Zion,
 The Jerusalem above.

3 Stands four-square that heavenly city;
 Paved with gold like crystal bright;
 Gates of pearl, and walls of jasper,
 Emerald and chrysolite;
 Broad and lofty tower its ramparts;
 At its gates twelve angels stand;
 On its walls twelve names are graven,
 Of the apostles' chosen band.

4 Where Thou reignest, King of glory,
 Throned in everlasting light,
 'Midst Thy saints, no more is needed
 Sun by day, nor moon by night:
 Soon may we those portals enter,
 When this earthly strife is o'er,
 There to dwell with saints and angels
 In Thy presence evermore.

TO-DAY beneath benignant skies,
'Mid scenes Thy favor beautifies,
Our hopes and prayers to Thee we raise,
And found a temple to Thy praise,
Our humble work propitious own,
As now we lay this corner-stone.

2 Except the Lord the house do build,
Except with grace the work be filled,
All labor's vain. O, Christ, impart
Thy loving spirit to each heart:
By Thee, to Thee, on Thee alone,
We build, Thou fairest Corner-stone!

3 Here may the truth and right grow strong,
Here love prevail Thy saints among,
Here sinners feel Thy quickening grace,
And seek with hasting joy Thy face;
And thousands gladly make Thee known
As their eternal Corner-stone.

4 Build Thou the walls! Make them so glow
With glory, we on earth below
The eternal splendors shall foresee;
Grandeur than Salem's may they be,
All luminous with grace Thine own,
From topmost peak to corner-stone!

O SPIRIT of the living God,
In all Thy plenitude of grace,
Where'er the foot of man hath trod,
Descend on our apostate race.

2 Give tongues of fire, and hearts of love,
To preach the reconciling word;
Give power and unction from above,
Whene'er the joyful sound is heard.

3 Be darkness, at Thy coming, light,
Confusion, order in Thy path;
Souls without strength inspire with might;
Bid mercy triumph over wrath.

4 O Spirit of the Lord, prepare
All the round earth her God to meet;
Breathe Thou abroad like morning air,
Till hearts of stone begin to beat.

5 Baptize the nations; far and nigh
The triumphs of the cross record;
The name of Jesus glorify,
Till every kindred call Him Lord.

LORD of the harvest, hear
Thy needy servants' cry;
Answer our faith's effectual prayer,
And all our wants supply.

2 On Thee we humbly wait,
Our wants are in Thy view;
The harvest Lord, is truly great,
The laborers are few.

709 D

WE bid thee welcome in the name
Of Jesus, our exalted Head:
Come as a Servant: so He came;
And we receive thee in His stead.

2 Come as a Shepherd: guard and keep
This fold from hell and earth and sin;
Nourish the lambs, and feed the sheep,
The wounded heal, the lost bring in.

3 Come as a Watchman: take thy stand
Upon thy tower amidst the sky;
And when the sword comes on the land,
Call us to fight, or warn to fly.

4 Come as a Teacher: sent from God,
Charged His whole counsel to declare:
Lift o'er our ranks the prophet's rod,
While we uphold thy hands with prayer.

5 Come as a Messenger of peace:
Filled with the Spirit, fired with love;
Live to behold our large increase,
And die to meet us all above.

3 Convert and send forth more
Into Thy Church abroad,
And let them speak Thy word of power,
As workers with their God.

4 O let them spread Thy name,
Their mission fully prove;
Thy universal grace proclaim,
Thine all-redeeming love.

How beautiful are their feet
Who stand on Zion's hill,
Who bring salvation on their tongues,
And words of peace reveal!

2 How charming is their voice,
How sweet the tidings are!
"Zion, behold Thy Saviour King;
He reigns and triumphs here."

3 How happy are our ears,
That hear this joyful sound,
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found!

4 How blessed are our eyes,
That see this heavenly light!
Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight.

5 The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.

6 The Lord makes bare His arm
Through all the earth abroad;
Let every nation now behold
Their Saviour and their God.

LORD, Thou hast taught our hearts to glow
With love's undying flame;
But more of Thee we long to know,
And more would love Thy name.

2 Thy life, Thy death, inspire our song,
Thy Spirit breathes through all;
And here our feet would linger long,
But we obey Thy call.

3 Thou bid'st us go, with Thee to stand
Against hell's marshalled powers;
And heart to heart, and hand to hand,
To make Thine honor ours.

4 With Thine own pity, Saviour, see
The thronged and darkening way:
We go to win the lost to Thee,
O help us, Lord, we pray.

5 Teach Thou our lips of Thee to speak,
Of Thy sweet love to tell;
Till they who wander far shall seek
And find and serve Thee well.

6 O'er all the world Thy Spirit send,
And make Thy goodness known,
Till earth and heaven together blend
Their praises at Thy throne.

To human need; their lips make eloquent
To assure the right, and every evil break.

Ah, if with them the world might pass, astray,
Into the dear Christ's life of sacrifice!

4 Anoint them Kings! Aye, kingly kings,

Anoint them with the Spirit of Thy Son:
Their's, not a jeweled crown, a blood-stained

Their's, by sweet love, for Christ a king-

YE Christian heralds, go, proclaim
Salvation through Immanuel's name;
To distant climes the tidings bear,
And plant the Rose of Sharon there.

2 He'll shield you with a wall of fire,
With flaming zeal your breast inspire,

Bid raging winds their fury cease,

Then we shall meet to part no more;
Meet, with the blood-bought throng to fall,
And crown our Jesus, Lord of all.

O, SWEETLY breathe the lyres above,
 When angels touch the quivering string,
 And wake, to chant Immanuel's love,
 Such strains as angel-lips can sing.
 2 And sweet on earth the choral swell,
 From mortal tongues, of gladsome lays,
 When pardoned souls their raptures tell,
 And, grateful, hymn Immanuel's praise.
 3 Jesus, Thy name our souls adore;
 We own the bond that makes us Thine.
 And carnal joys, that charmed before,

DEAR Saviour, if these lambs should stray
 From Thy secure enclosure's bound,
 And, lured by worldly joys away,
 Among the thoughtless crowd be found;
 2 Remember still that they are Thine,
 That Thy dear, sacred name they bear;
 Think that the seal of love divine,
 The sign of covenant grace, they wear.
 3 In all their erring, sinful years,
 O let them ne'er forgotten be;
 Remember all the prayers and tears
 Which made them consecrate to Thee.

Turn Thou their feet from folly's way,
 The wanderers to Thy fold restore.

How sweet and awful is the place,
With Christ within the doors,
While everlasting love displays
The choicest of her stores.

2 While all our hearts, and all our songs,
Join to admire the feast,
Each of us cries, with thankful tongues,
"Lord, why was I a guest?"

3 "Why was I made to hear Thy voice,
And enter while there's room,
When thousands make a wretched choice,
And rather starve than come?"

4 'T was the same love that spread the feast,
That sweetly forced us in;
Else we had still refused to taste,
And perished in our sin.

HERE at Thy table, Lord,
This sacred hour,
O let us feel Thee near
In loving power;
Calling our thoughts away
From self and sin,
As to Thy banquet hall,
We enter in.

2 Sit at the feast, dear Lord,
Break Thou the bread;
Fill Thou the cup that brings
Life to the dead:
That we may find in Thee,
Pardon and peace;
And from all bondage win
A full release.

3 So shall our life of faith
Be full, be sweet;
And we shall find our strength
For each day meet;
Fed by Thy living bread,
All hunger past,
We shall be satisfied
And saved at last.

4 Come, then, O Holy Christ,
Feed us, we pray;
Touch with Thy piercéd hand
Each common day,
Making this earthly life
Full of Thy grace,
Till in the home of heaven
We find our place.

Sion, to thy Saviour singing,
To thy Prince and Shepherd bringing Sweetest hymns of love and praise,
Thou wilt never reach the measure
Of His worth, by all the treasure
Of thy most eestatic lays.

2 Of all wonders that can thrill thee,
And with adoration fill thee,
What than this can greater be!
That Himself to thee He giveth;
He that eateth ever liveth,
For the bread of life is He.

3 Fill thy lips to overflowing
With sweet praise, His mercy showing,
Who this heavenly table spread.
On this day so glad and holy,
To each longing spirit lowly,
Giveth He the living bread.

4 Here the King hath spread His table,
Whereon eyes of faith are able
Christ our passover to trace.
Shadows of the law are going,
Light and life and truth inflowing,
Night to day is giving place.

5 Lo, this angels' food descending,
Heavenly love is hither sending,
Hungry lips on earth to feed.
So the Paschal Lamb was given,
So the manna came from heaven,
Isaac was His type indeed.

6 O good Shepherd, bread life-giving,

Feed and shelter evermore!
Thou on earth our weakness guiding,
We in heaven with Thee abiding,
With all saints will Thee adore!

What royal fare dost Thou provide;

Give Thine own welcome to each guest;
Nor let it be to love denied
To lean confiding on Thy breast.

Hear Thou Thy Spirit and Thy Bride,
And come, Lord Jesus, quickly come.

"Till He come," O let the words Linger on the trembling chords: Let the "little while" between
In their golden light be seen; Let us think how heaven and home Lie beyond that "Till He come."

"TILL He come," O let the words
Linger on the trembling chords:
Let the "little while" between
In their golden light be seen;
Let us think how heaven and home
Lie beyond that "Till He come."

2 When the weary ones we love
Enter on their rest above,
Seems the earth so poor and vast,

All our life-joy overcast?
Hush, be every murmur dumb;
It is only, "Till He come."

3 See, the feast of love is spread,
Drink the wine and break the bread:
Sweet memorials,—till the Lord
Call us round His heavenly board:
Some from earth, from glory some,
Severed only, "Till He come."

LAMB of God, whose bleeding love
 We now recall to mind,
 Send the answer from above,
 And let us mercy find;
 Think on us who think on Thee;
 Every struggling soul release:
 O remember Calvary,
 And bid us go in peace.
 2 By Thine agonizing pain
 And bloody sweat, we pray,
 By Thy dying love to man,
 Take all our sins away;

Burst our bonds and set us free,
 From iniquity release;
 O remember Calvary,
 And bid us go in peace.
 3 Let Thy blood, by faith applied,
 The sinner's pardon seal;
 Speak us freely justified,
 And all our sickness heal;
 By Thy passion on the tree,
 Let our griefs and trouble cease;
 O remember Calvary,
 And bid us go in peace.

O'er every hateful foe;
Thy love my heart sustaineth,
In all its care and woe.

3 Soon shall my eyes behold Thee
With rapture face to face;
One hath hath not been told me
Of all Thy power and grace;
Thy beauty, Lord, and glory,
The wonders of Thy love,
Shall be the endless story
Of all Thy saints above.

For heaven-born natures meet;

Avails from age to age.
3 Jesus, this feast receiving,

At the Lamb's high feast we sing
Praise to our victorious King,
Who hath washed us in the tide,
Flowing from His pierced side.
2 Praise we Him, whose love divine
Gives His sacred blood for wine,
Gives His body for the feast:
Christ the victim, Christ the priest.
3 Where the paschal blood is poured,
Death's dark angel sheathes his sword;
Israel's hosts triumphant go
Through the wave that drowns the foe.

4 Praise we Christ, whose blood was shed,
Paschal victim, paschal bread;
With sincerity and love,
Eat we manna from above.
5 Mighty victim from the sky,
Hell's fierce powers beneath Thee lie;
Thou hast conquered in the fight,
Thou has brought us life and light.
6 Hymns of glory and of praise,
Risen Lord, to Thee we raise;
Holy Father, praise to Thee,
With the Spirit, ever be!

 Thou Fount of Life, Thou Light of men,
 From the best bliss that earth imparts,

4 Our restless spirits yearn for Thee,
 Where'er our changeful lot is cast;
 Glad, when Thy gracious smile we see,
 Blest, when our faith can hold Thee fast

A weary, heavy-laden sinner comes
To plead Thy promise, and obey Thy call.

Nor sit the last and lowest at Thy board;
Too long a wanderer, and too oft beguiled,
I only ask one reconciling word.

3 I hear Thy voice; Thou bid'st me come and

I come; I kneel; I clasp Thy piercéed feet;
Thou bid'st me take my place, a welcome guest,

By Christ redeemed, in Christ restored,
We keep the memory adored,
And show the death of our dear Lord,

Until He come!

3 His fearful drops of agony,
His life-blood shed for us, we see;

With the last advent, we unite,

Let not our hearts be desolate,

WE come unto our fathers' God:
 Their rock is our salvation:
 Th' eternal arms, their dear abode,
 We make our habitation:
 We bring Thee, Lord, the praise they brought;
 We seek Thee as Thy saints have sought
 In every generation.

2 The cleaving sins that brought them low
 Are still our souls oppressing;
 The tears that from their eyes did flow
 Fall fast, our shame confessing;
 As with Thee, Lord, prevailed their cry
 So our strong prayer ascends on high,
 And bringeth down Thy blessing.

3 Their joy unto their Lord we bring;
 Their song to us descendeth:
 The Spirit who in them did sing
 To us His music lendeth.
 His song in them, in us, is one;
 We raise it high, we send it on—
 The song that never endeth!

4 Ye saints to come, take up the strain—
 The same sweet theme endeavor!
 Unbroken be the golden chain!
 Keep on the song for ever!
 Safe in the same dear dwelling-place,
 Rich with the same eternal Grace,
 Bless the same boundless Giver,

O ROCK of Ages, one Foundation,
 On which the living Church doth rest,—
 The Church, whose walls are strong salvation,
 Whose gates are praise,—Thy name be blest!

2 Son of the living God! O call us
 Once and again to follow Thee;
 And give us strength, what'er befall us,
 Thy true disciples still to be.

3 When fears appal, and faith is failing,
 Make Thy voice heard o'er wind and wave,

“Why doubt?”—and in Thy love prevailing
 Put forth Thine hand to help and save.

4 And if our coward hearts deny Thee,
 In inmost thought, in deed, or word,
 Let not our hardness still defy Thee,
 But with a look subdue us, Lord.

5 O strengthen Thou our weak endeavor
 Thee in Thy sheep to serve and tend,
 To give ourselves to Thee for ever,
 And find Thee with us to the end.

And the great Church victorious
Shall be the Church at rest.

4 Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won:
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with Thee.

PEOPLE of the living God,
I have sought the world around,
Paths of sin and sorrow trod,
Peace and comfort nowhere found.

2 Now to you my spirit turns,
Turns, a fugitive unblest;
Brethren, where your altar burns,
O receive me into rest.

3 Lonely I no longer roam,
Like the cloud, the wind, the wave;
Where you dwell shall be my home,
Where you die shall be my grave.

4 Mine the God whom you adore,
Your Redeemer shall be mine;
Earth can fill my heart no more,
Every idol I resign.

THROUGH the night of doubt and sorrow,
 Onward goes the pilgrim band,
 Singing songs of expectation,
 Marching to the Promised Land.
 And before us, through the darkness,
 Gleaming clear the guiding light;
 Brother clasps the hand of brother,
 And steps fearless through the night.
 2 One the strain which mouths of thousands
 Lift as from the heart of one;
 One the conflict, one the peril,
 One the march in God begun;

One the gladness of rejoicing
 On the resurrection shore,
 With one Father o'er us shining
 In His love for evermore.
 3 Go we onward, pilgrim brothers,
 Visit first the cross and grave,
 Where the cross its shadow flingeth,
 Where the boughs of cypress wave.
 Then, a shaking as of earthquakes,
 Then, a rending of the tomb,
 Then, a scattering of all shadows,
 And an end of toil and gloom.

HAIL! Thou God of grace and glory,
Who Thy name hast magnified,
By redemption's wondrous story,
By the Saviour crucified;
Thanks to Thee for every blessing,
Flowing from the fount of love;
Thanks for present good unceasing,
And for hopes of bliss above.

2 Hear us, as thus bending lowly,
Near Thy bright and burning throne,
We invoke Thee, God most holy,
Through Thy well-belovéd Son;

Send the baptism of Thy Spirit,
Shed the pentecostal fire;
Let us all Thy grace inherit,
Waken, crown each good desire.

3 Bind Thy people, Lord, in union,
With the sevenfold cord of love;
Breathe a spirit of communion
With the glorious hosts above;
Let Thy work be seen progressing;
Bow each heart, and bend each knee,
Till the world, Thy truth possessing,
Celebrates its jubilee.

WHO are these like stars appearing,
These, before God's throne who stand?
Each a golden crown is wearing,
Who are all this glorious band?
Hallelujah! hark, they sing,
Praising loud their heavenly King.

2 These are they who have contended
For their Saviour's honor long,
Wrestling on till life was ended,
Following not the sinful throng:
These, who well the fight sustained,
Triumph through the Lamb have gained.

3 These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified:
Now, their painful conflict o'er,
God has bid them weep no more.

4 Lo, the Lamb Himself now feeds them,
On Mount Zion's pastures fair;
From His central throne He leads them
By the living fountain there:
Lamb and Shepherd, Good Supreme,
Free He gives the cooling stream.

For all the saints, who from their labors rest, Who Thee by faith before the world confess'd,

781 A

For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blessed.

2 Thou wast their rock, their fortress and their might; [fight;
Thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.

3 O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win with them the victor's crown of gold.

4 O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.

5 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.

6 The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors comes Thy rest;
Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest.

7 But lo, there breaks a yet more glorious day;
The saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of glory passes on His way.

DAUGHTER of Zion, from the dust
Exalt thy fallen head;
Again in thy Redeemer trust:
He calls thee from the dead.

- 2 Awake, awake, put on thy strength,
Thy beautiful array;
The day of freedom dawns at length,
The Lord's appointed day.
- 3 Rebuild thy walls, thy bounds enlarge,
And send thy heralds forth;
Say to the South, "Give up thy charge,
And keep not back, O North."

Where'er they rest or roam,
Have heard thy voice in distant lands,
And hasten to their home.

GREAT God, the nations of the earth
Are by creation Thine;
And in Thy works, by all beheld,

- 2 But, Lord, Thy greater love has sent
Thy gospel to mankind,
Unveiling what rich stores of grace
Are treasured in Thy mind.
- 3 Lord, when shall these glad tidings spread
The spacious earth around,
Till every tribe, and every soul,
Shall hear the joyful sound?
- 4 Smile, Lord, on each divine attempt
To spread the gospel's rays,
And build on sin's demolished throne
The temples of Thy praise.

In selfish ease we lie,
But girded for our Father's work,
Go forth beneath His sky.

- 3 Where prophets' word, and martyrs' blood,
And prayers of saints were sown,
We, to their labors entering in,
Would reap where they have strown.

To do Thy will we come;
Thrust in our sickles at Thy word,
And bear our harvest home.

TRUMPHANT ZION, lift thy head
 From dust, and darkness, and the dead:
 Though humbled long, awake at length,
 And gird thee with thy Saviour's strength.
 2 Put all thy beauteous garments on,
 And let thy various charms be known:
 The world thy glories shall confess,
 Decked in the robes of righteousness.
 3 No more shall foes unclean invade,
 And fill thy hallow'd walls with dread;
 No more shall hell's insulting host
 Their victory and thy sorrows boast.

 His hand thy ruins shall repair;
 Nor will thy watchful Monarch cease
 To guard thee in eternal peace.

 Thy voice their idols shall confound,

FLING out the banner: let it float
 Skyward and seaward, high and wide;
 The sun, that lights its shining folds,
 The cross, on which the Saviour died.

 In anxious silence o'er the sign,
 And vainly seek to comprehend

JESUS shall reign where'er the sun
 Does his successive journeys run;
 His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
 Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

2 For Him shall endless prayer be made;
 And praises throng to crown His head;
 His name, like sweet perfume, shall rise
 With every morning sacrifice.

3 People and realms of every tongue
 Dwell on His love with sweetest song;
 And infant voices shall proclaim
 Their early blessings on His name.

4 Blessings abound where'er He reigns;
 The prisoner leaps to loose his chains;
 The weary find eternal rest,
 And all the sons of want are blest.

Flow joyfully along,
When hill and valley, ringing

And Him who once was slain,
Again to earth descended,

To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls condemned and dying,
Were precious in His sight.

Upon the fruitful earth,
And love and joy, like flowers,
Spring in His path to birth:
Before Him on the mountains
Shall peace, the herald, go;
And righteousness in fountains
From hill to valley flow.
- 4 For Him shall prayer unceasing

Triumphant reach their home:
Stay not till all the holy
Proclaim—"The Lord is come!"

1 O CHURCH of God, go forward!
The wilderness thy way;
Let not thy footsteps falter,
Nor in thy march delay.
Earth is no place for resting;
We sojourn but awhile,
Then follow Christ more closely,
Encouraged by His smile.
2 O Church of God, go forward;
The Land of Promise see,
Soon will we cross the Jordan,
And in fair Canaan be.

The heavenly home before us,
Why should we tarry here?
Although the way seems tedious,
Eternal joy is near.
3 'Tis God who says "Go forward"
Thy pathway through the sea,

Along the flowery lea.
Soon thou wilt stand on Nebo,
Thy weary wanderings o'er;
Then spring from earth to heaven,
With Christ forevermore.

From Greenland's icy mountains, From India's coral strand, Where Afric's sunny fountains Roll down their golden sand :

From many an ancient river, From many a palmy plain, They call us to de- liv - er Their land from error's chain.

808

FROM Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand:
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.

2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle,
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile:
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strown,
The heathen in his blindness
Bows down to wood and stone.

3 Can we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,
Can we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation, O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, His story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole;

Till, o'er our ransomed nature,
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

Reginald Heber 1819

809

OUR country's voice is pleading,
Ye men of God, arise!
His providence is leading,
The land before you lies;
Day-gleams are o'er it brightening,
And promise clothes the soil;
Wide fields, for harvest whitening,
Invite the reaper's toil.

2 Go where the waves are breaking
On California's shore,
Christ's precious gospel taking,
More rich than golden ore;
On Alleghany's mountains,
Through all the western vale,
Beside Missouri's fountains,
Rehearse the wondrous tale.

3 The love of Christ unfolding,
Speed on from east to west,
Till all, His cross beholding,
In Him are fully blessed.
Great Author of salvation,
Haste, haste the glorious day,
When we, a ransomed nation,
Thy scepter shall obey!

Send Thou, O Lord, to every place Swift messengers before Thy face,
The heralds of Thy wondrous grace, Where Thou, Thyself, wilt come.

810

SEND THOU, O Lord, to every place
Swift messengers before Thy face,
The heralds of Thy wondrous grace,
Where Thou, Thyself, wilt come.

2 Send men whose eyes have seen the King;
Men in whose ears His sweet words ring;
Send such Thy lost ones home to bring;
Send them where Thou wilt come.

3 To bring good news to souls in sin;
The bruised and broken hearts to win;
In every place to bring them in;
Where Thou, Thyself, wilt come.

4 Thou who hast died, Thy victory claim;
Assert, O Christ, Thy glory's name!
And far to lands of pagan shame,
Send men where Thou wilt come.

5 Gird each one with the Spirit's sword,
The sword of Thine own deathless word;
And make them conquerors, conquering Lord,
Where Thou, Thyself, wilt come.

6 Raise up, O Lord the Holy Ghost
From this broad land a mighty host,
Their war cry, "We will seek the lost,
Where Thou, O Christ, wilt come!"

FATHER of all, from land and sea
The nations sing, "Thine, Lord, are we,
Countless in number, but in Thee
May we be one."

2 O Son of God, whose love so free
For men did make Thee Man to be,
United to our God in Thee,
May we be one.

3 Thou, Lord, didst once for all atone;
Thee may both Jew and Gentile own

Of their two walls the Corner Stone,
Making them one.

4 Join high and low, join young and old,
In love that never waxes cold;
Under one Shepherd, in one fold,
Make us all one.

5 So, when the world shall pass away,
May we awake with joy and say,
"Now in the bliss of endless day
We are all one."

 Gird your ready armor on;
 Slumbering hosts around are waking,
 Rouse ye! in the Lord be strong!
 While ye sleep or idly linger,
 Thousands sink, with none to save;
 Hasten! Time's unerring finger
 Points to many an open grave.
 2 Hark! unnumbered voices crying,
 "Save us, or we droop and die!"
 Succor bear the faint and dying,
 On the wings of mercy fly:

Lead them to the crystal fountain
 Gushing with the streams of life;
 Guide them to the sheltering mountain,
 For the gale with death is rife.

 Bright the beams of Bethlehem's star:
 Eastern lands, behold the morning;

 Lo, the sacred herald stands,
 Welcome news to Zion bearing,
 Zion long in hostile lands:
 Mourning captive,
 God, Himself will loose thy bands.
 2 Has thy night been long and mournful?
 Have thy friends unfaithful proved?
 Have thy foes been proud and scornful,

By thy sighs and tears unmoved?
 Cease thy mourning;
 Zion still is well beloved.

3 God, thy God, will now restore thee;
 He Himself appears thy Friend;
 All thy foes shall flee before thee;
 Here their boasts and triumphs end:
 Great deliverance
 Zion's King vouchsafes to send.

HOSANNA to the living Lord!
 Hosanna to the Incarnate Word:
 To Christ, Creator, Saviour, King,
 Let earth, let heaven, Hosanna sing!
 2 Hosanna, Lord! Thine angels cry;
 Hosanna, Lord! Thy saints reply;
 Above, beneath us, and around,
 The dead and living swell the sound.
 3 O Saviour! with protecting care,
 Return to this Thy house of prayer:

Assembled in Thy sacred name,
 Here we Thy parting promise claim!
 4 But, chiefest, in our cleanséd breast,
 Eternal! bid Thy Spirit rest,
 And make our secret soul to be
 A temple pure, and worthy Thee!
 5 So, in the last and dreadful day,
 When earth and heaven shall melt away,
 Thy flock, redeemed from sinful stain,
 Shall swell the sound of praise again.

 Fairer than our words can say!
 Down we lay the heavy burden
 Of life's toil and care to-day;
 While this morn of joy and love

LORD God of morning and of night,
 We thank Thee for Thy gift of light;
 As in the dawn the shadows fly
 We seem to find Thee now more nigh.
 2 Fresh hopes have wakened in the heart,
 Fresh force to do our daily part;
 Thy thousand sleeps our strength restore,
 A thousand-fold to serve Thee more.

 High praise to the eternal King.
 3 All praise to Thee who safe hast kept,
 And hast refreshed me whilst I slept
 Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
 I may of endless life partake.
 4 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew;
 Disperse my sins as morning dew;
 Guard my first springs of thought and will,

 New every morning is the love
 Our wakening and uprising prove;
 Through sleep and darkness safely brought.
 Restored to life, and power, and thought.
 2 New mercies, each returning day,
 Hover around us while we pray;
 New perils past, new sins forgiven,
 New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven
 3 If, on our daily course our mind
 Be set to hallow all we find,
 New treasures still, of countless price,
 God will provide for sacrifice.
 4 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love
 Fit us for perfect rest above;

 To live more nearly as we pray.

EVERY morning mercies new
Fall as fresh as morning dew;
Every morning let us pay
Tribute with the early day;
For Thy mercies, Lord, are sure;

When the weary, seeking rest, To Thy goodness flee; When the heavy-laden cast All their load on Thee

When the troubled, seeking peace, On Thy name shall call; When the sinner, seeking life, At Thy feet shall fall.

REFRAIN.

Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry, In heaven Thy dwelling-place on high.

839

WHEN the weary, seeking rest,
 To Thy goodness flee;
 When the heavy-laden cast
 All their load on Thee;
 When the troubled, seeking peace,
 On Thy name shall call;
 When the sinner, seeking life,
 At Thy feet shall fall.—REF.

2 When the worldling, sick at heart,
 Lifts his soul above;
 When the prodigal looks back
 To his Father's love;
 When the proud man, in his pride,
 Stoops to seek Thy face;
 When the burdened brings his guilt
 To Thy throne of grace:—REF.

3 When the stranger asks a home,
 All his toils to end;
 When the hungry craveth food,
 And the poor a friend;
 When the sailor on the wave
 Bows the fervent knee;
 When the soldier on the field
 Lifts his heart to Thee:—REF.

4 When the man of toil and care
 In the city crowd;
 When the shepherd on the moor
 Names the name of God;
 When the learned and the high,
 Tired of earthly fame,
 Upon higher joys intent,
 Name the blessed name:—REF.

5 When the child, with grave fresh lip,
 Youth or maiden fair;
 When the aged, weak and grey,
 Seek Thy face in prayer;
 When the widow weeps to Thee,
 Sad and lone and low;
 When the orphan brings to Thee
 All his orphan woe:—REF.

6 When creation, in her pangs,
 Heaves her heavy groan;
 When Thy Salem's exiled sons
 Breathe their bitter moan;
 When Thy widowed, weeping Church,
 Looking for a home,
 Sendeth up her silent sigh—
 "Come, Lord Jesus, come:—REF.

At evening time let there be light; Life's little day draws near its close; Around me fall the shades of night,

At evening time let there be light;
 Life's little day draws near its close;
 Around me fall the shades of night,
 The night of death, the grave's repose;
 To crown my joys, to end my woes,
 At evening time let there be light.

2 At evening time let there be light;
 Stormy and dark hath been my day;
 Yet rose the morn benignly bright,

Dews, birds, and flowers cheered all the way;
 O for one sweet, one parting ray!
 At evening time let there be light.

3 At evening time there shall be light;
 For God hath said,—“So let it be!”
 Fear, doubt, and anguish, take their flight,
 His glory now is risen on me;
 Mine eyes shall His salvation see;
 'Tis evening time, and there is light.

Father, by Thy love and power Comes a-gain the evening hour; Light has vanished, labors cease,

FATHER, by Thy love and power
Comes again the evening hour;
Light has vanished, labors cease,
Weary creatures rest in peace.
Thou, whose genial dews distil
On the lowliest weed that grows,
Father, guard our bed from ill,
Lull Thy children to repose.
We to Thee ourselves resign,
Let our latest thoughts be Thine.

2 Saviour, to Thy Father bear
This our feeble evening prayer;
Thou hast seen how oft to-day
We like sheep have gone astray;
Worldly thoughts, and schemes of pride,
Wishes to Thy cross untrue,
Secret faults, and undescried
Meet Thy spirit-searching view.
Blesséd Saviour, yet through Thee,
Grant that these may pardoned be.

3 Holy Spirit, let Thy balm,
Fall on us in evening's calm;
Yet awhile, before we sleep,
We with Thee will vigils keep.
Lead us on our sins to muse,
Give us truest penitence;
Then the love of God infuse,
Breathing humble confidence;
Melt our spirits, mould our will,
Soften, strengthen, comfort still.

4 In our solitude be near,
Through the hours of darkness drear;
Then when shrinks the lonely heart,
Thou, O God, most present art.
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Watch o'er our defenceless head;
Let Thy angels' guardian host
Keep all evil from our bed;
Till the flood of morning rays
Wakes us to a song of praise.

THE hours of day are over,
 The evening calls us home;
 Once more to Thee, O Father,
 With thankful hearts we come;
 For all Thy countless blessings
 We praise Thy holy name,
 And own Thy love unchanging,
 Through days and years the same.

2 For this O Lord, we bless Thee,
 For this, we thank Thee most,
 The cleansing of the sinful,
 The saving of the lost;

THE sun is sinking fast,
 The daylight dies,
 Let love awake, and pay
 Her evening sacrifice.

2 As Christ upon the cross
 His head inclined,
 And to His Father's hands,
 His parting soul resigned;

3 So now herself my soul
 Would wholly give
 Into His sacred charge,
 In whom all spirits live;

4 So now beneath His eye
 Would calmly rest,
 Without a wish or thought
 Abiding in the breast;

5 Save that His will be done,
 Whate'er betide;
 Dead to herself, and dead
 In Him to all beside.

6 Thus would I live: yet now
 Not I, but He,
 In all His power and love,
 Henceforth alive in me.

ABIDE with me! Fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide:
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou who changest not, abide with me.

3 I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?

Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

4 I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless:
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is Death's sting? Where, Grave, thy victory?

I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

5 Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes,
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies; [shadows flee;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

I LOVE to steal awhile away
 From every cumbering care,
 And spend the hours of setting day
 In humble, grateful prayer.

2 I love, in solitude, to shed
 The penitential tear;
 And all His promises to plead
 Where none but God can hear.

3 I love to think on mercies past,
 And future good implore;

And all my cares and sorrows cast
 On Him whom I adore.

4 I love, by faith, to take a view
 Of brighter scenes in heaven;
 The prospect doth my strength renew,
 While here by tempests driven.

 Evening hours have set me free,
 In the work of praise and prayer,

 Wither all my earthly joys;
 Naught can charm me here below,

But my Saviour's melting voice;
 Lord, forgive, Thy grace restore,
 Make me Thine for evermore.

 With humble gratitude I raise;
 O let Thy mercy tune my tongue,

 And witness to Thy love and power.

3 Seal my forgiveness in the blood

 With sleep refresh my feeble frame;
 Safe in Thy care may I repose,

855

- O Lord, who by Thy presence hast made light
The heat and burden of the toilsome day,
Be with me also in the silent night,
Be with me when the daylight fades away.
- 2 As Thou hast given me strength upon the way,
So deign at evening to become my guest;
As Thou hast shared the labors of the day,
So also deign to share and bless my rest.
- 3 Fraught with rich blessing, breathing sweet repose,
The calm of evening settles on my breast;
- If Thou be with me when my labors close,
No more is needed to complete my rest.
- 4 Come, then, O Lord, and deign to be my guest
After the day's confusion, toil, and din;
O come to bring me peace, and joy, and rest,
To give salvation, and to pardon sin!
- 5 Bind up the wounds, assuage the aching smart
Left in my bosom from the day just past,
And let me, on a Father's loving heart,
Forget my griefs, and find sweet rest at last.

THE day is gently sinking to a close,
Fainter, and yet more faint, the sunlight glows:
O Brightness of thy Father's glory, Thou,
Eternal Light of light, be with us now;
Where Thou art present, darkness cannot be;
Midnight is glorious noon, O Lord, with Thee.

3 Thou, who in darkness walking, didst appear
Upon the waves, and Thy disciples cheer,
Come, Lord, in lonesome days, when storms
assail,
And earthly hopes, and human succors fail:
When all is dark, may we behold Thee nigh,
And hear Thy voice, "Fear not, for it is I."

2 Our changeful lives are ebbing to an end;
Onward to darkness and to death we tend:
O Conqueror of the grave, be Thou our guide,
Be Thou our light in death's dark eventide;
Then in our mortal hour will be no gloom,
No sting in death, no terror in the tomb.

4 The weary world is mouldering to decay,
Its glories wane, its pageants fade away;
In that last sunset, when the stars shall fall,
May we arise, awakened by Thy call,
With Thee, O Lord, for ever to abide
In that blest day which has no eventide.

The sick, O Lord, around Thee lay;

O with what joy they went away.

2 Once more 'tis eventide, and we,
Oppressed with various ills, draw near;
What if Thy form we cannot see?
We know and feel that Thou art here.

3 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel;
For some are sick, and some are sad,
And some have never loved Thee well,
And some have lost the love they had.

4 And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
For none are wholly free from sin;
And they who fain would serve Thee best,

THE swift declining day,
How fast its moments fly!
While evening's broad and gloomy shade
Gains on the western sky.
2 Ye mortals, mark its pace,
And use the hours of light;
And know, its Maker can command
At once eternal night.
3 Give glory to the Lord,
Who rules the whirling sphere:
Submissive at His footstool bow,
And seek salvation there.
4 Then shall new lustre break
Through death's impending gloom,
And lead you to unchanging light

Lest life's young golden beams should die
In sudden, endless night.

Teach me to die, that so I may
Rise glorious at the awful day
4 O may my soul on Thee repose;
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close.
Sleep, that may me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.

Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

THE radiant morn hath passed away,
And spent too soon her golden store;
The shadows of departing day
Creep on once more.

2 Our life is but an autumn day, fading dawn
Its glorious noon how quickly past;

Lead us, O Christ, Thou living Way, when all is gone
Safe home at last.

3 O by Thy soul-inspiring grace
Uplift our hearts to realms on high;

Help us to look to that bright place
Beyond the sky,

4 Where light, and life, and joy, and peace,
In undivided empire reign,
And thronging angels never cease
Their deathless strain;

5 Where saints are clothed in spotless white,
And evening shadows never fall,
Where Thou, eternal Light of light,
Art Lord of all.

THE day, O Lord, is spent,
Abide with us, and rest;
Our hearts' desires are fully bent
On making Thee our guest.
2 We have not reached that land,
That happy land, as yet,
Where holy angels round Thee stand,
Whose sun can never set.

3 Our sun is sinking now,
Our day is almost o'er;
O Sun of righteousness, do Thou
Shine on us evermore.

O may I ever keep in mind,
The night of death draws near

2 Lord, keep me safe this night,
Secure from all my fears;
May angels guard me while I sleep,
Till morning light appears.

3 And when I early rise,
To view the unwearied sun,
May I set out to win the prize,
And after glory run.

4 And when my days are past,
And I from time remove,
O may I in Thy bosom rest,
The bosom of Thy love.

HEAR Thy children, gentle Jesus,
 While we breathe our evening prayer;
 Save us from all harm and danger,
 Take us 'neath Thy sheltering care.

2 Shield us from the wiles of Satan,
 From the perils of this night;
 Safely may Thy guardian angels
 Keep us in their watchful sight.

3 Gentle Jesus! look in pity
 From Thy glorious throne above;
 Though we sleep, Thy heart is wakeful,
 Still for us it beats with love.

4 Shades of evening fast are falling,
 Day is fading into gloom;
 When our earthly life is ended,
 Lead Thy ransomed children home.

TARRY with me, O my Saviour!
 For the day is passing by;
 See! the shades of evening gather,
 And the night is drawing nigh.

2 Deeper, deeper grow the shadows,
 Paler now the glowing west,
 Swift the night of death advances;
 Shall it be the night of rest?

3 Feeble, trembling, fainting, dying,
 Lord, I cast myself on Thee;
 Tarry with me through the darkness;
 While I sleep, still watch by me.

4 Tarry with me, O my Saviour!
 Lay my head upon Thy breast,
 Till the morning; then awake me,
 Morning of eternal rest!

VAINLY through night's weary hours,
 Keep we watch, lest foes alarm;
 Vain our bulwarks, and our towers,
 But for God's protecting arm.

2 Vain were all our toil and labor,
 Did not God that labor bless;
 Vain, without His grace and favor,
 Every talent we possess.

3 Vainer still the hope of heaven,
 That on human strength relies;
 But to him shall help be given,
 Who in humble faith applies.

 Who through Christ his prayer addressed.

Sux of my soul, Thou Saviour dear,
 It is not night if Thou be near:
 O may no earth-born cloud arise
 To hide Thee from Thy servant's eyes.
 2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep,
 My wearied eyelids gently steep,
 Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
 Forever on my Saviour's breast.
 3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
 For without Thee I cannot live;
 Abide with me when night is nigh,
 For without Thee I dare not die.
 4 If some poor wandering child of Thine
 Have spurned, to-day, the voice divine,
 Now, Lord, the gracious work begin;
 Let him no more lie down in sin.
 5 Watch by the sick; enrich the poor
 With blessings from Thy boundless store;
 Be every mourner's sleep to-night,
 Like infant's slumbers, pure and light.
 6 Come near and bless us when we wake,
 Ere through the world our way we take;

Till, in the ocean of Thy love,
 We lose ourselves in heaven above.

 Thus far His power prolongs my days;
 And every evening shall make known
 Some fresh memorial of His grace.

2 Much of my time has run to waste,
 And I, perhaps, am near my home;
 But He forgives my follies past,
 And gives me strength for days to come.

3 I lay my body down to sleep;
 Peace is the pillow for my head,
 While well-appointed angels keep
 Their watchful stations round my bed.

 The love and kindness of Thy heart.

WHILE with ceaseless course the sun,
 Hasted through the former year,
 Many souls their race have run,
 Never more to meet us here:
 Fixed in an eternal state,
 They have done with all below;
 We a little longer wait,
 But how little none can know.

2 As the wingéd arrow flies
 Speedily the mark to find;
 As the lightning from the skies
 Darts, and leaves no trace behind;

Swiftly thus our fleeting days
 Bear us down life's rapid stream:
 Upward, Lord, our spirits raise,
 All below is but a dream.

3 Thanks for mercies past receive;
 Pardon of our sins renew;
 Teach us henceforth how to live
 With eternity in view:
 Bless Thy word to young and old;
 Fill us with a Saviour's love;
 And when life's short tale is told,
 May we dwell with Thee above.

Wholesome grain and pure may be:

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take His harvest home;
From His field shall in that day
All offences purge away;
Give His angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast;
But the fruitful ears to store
In His garner evermore.

Gather Thou Thy people in
Free from sorrow, free from sin:
There, forever purified,
In Thy presence to abide:
Come, with all Thine angels, come:
Raise the glorious Harvest-home!

 To garner bright elected.

HERE we, to-day, amidst our flowers
 And fruits, have come to own again
 The blessings of the summer hours,
 The early and the latter rain.

 Reverse for us the plenteous horn
 Of Autumn, filled and running o'er

 O'er richer stores than gems or gold,
 Once more, with harvest song and shout,

4 O favors every year made new!
 O gifts with rain and sunshine sent!
 The bounty overruns our due,
 The fulness shames our discontent

5 We shut our eyes, the flowers bloom on;
 We murmur, but the corn ears fill;
 We choose the shadow, but the sun

 And piled with fruits, awake again
 Thanksgiving for the golden hours,

897

My country 'tis of Thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

2 My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song:
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

4 Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

DREAD Jehovah, God of nations,
From Thy temple in the skies,
Hear Thy people's supplications,
Now for their deliverance rise.

2 Lo, with deep contrition turning,
Humbly at Thy feet we bend;
Hear us, fasting, praying, mourning;
Hear us, spare us, and defend.

3 Though our sins, our hearts confounding,
Long and loud for vengeance call,
Thou hast mercy more abounding,
Jesus' blood can cleanse from all.

4 Let that love veil our transgression,
Let that blood our guilt efface:
Save Thy people from oppression,
Save from spoil Thy holy place.

GREAT King of nations, hear our prayer,
While at Thy feet we fall,
And humbly with united cry
To Thee for mercy call.

2 Our fathers' sins were manifold,
And ours no less we own;
Yet wondrously from age to age
Thy goodness hath been shown.
3 When dangers, like a stormy sea,
Beset our country round,

To Thee we looked, to Thee we cried,
And help in Thee was found.

4 With one consent we meekly bow
Beneath Thy chastening hand,
And pouring forth confession meet,
Mourn with our mourning land.

5 With pitying eye behold our need,
As thus we lift our prayer;
Correct us with Thy judgments, Lord,
Then let Thy mercy spare.

ETERNAL Father, strong to save,
Whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
Who bid'st the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep;

O hear us when we cry to Thee

O LORD, be with us when we sail
Upon the lonely deep,
Our guard when on the silent deck
The nightly watch we keep.

2 We need not fear, though all around,
'Mid rising winds, we hear
The multitude of waters surge;
For Thou, O God, art near.

3 The calm, the breeze, the gale, the storm,
The ocean and the land,
All, all are Thine, and held within
The hollow of Thy hand.

4 As when on blue Gennesaret
Rose high the angry wave,
And Thy disciples quailed in dread,
One word of Thine could save;

5 So when the fiercer storms arise
From man's unbridled will,
Be Thou, Lord, present in our hearts
To whisper, "Peace, be still."

Thyself our pilot be,
Until we reach that better land,
The land that knows no sea.

Tossed upon life's raging billow,
 Sweet it is, O Lord, to know
 Thou hast pressed a sailor's pillow,
 And canst feel a sailor's woe:
 Never slumbering, never sleeping,
 Though the night be dark and drear,
 Thou the faithful watch art keeping,
 "All is well!" Thy constant cheer.

2 And though loud the wind is howling,
 Fierce though flash the lightnings red,
 Though the storm-clouds dark are scowling
 O'er the sailor's anxious head:

Thou canst calm the raging ocean,
 All its noise and tumult still,
 Hush the billow's wild commotion,
 At the bidding of Thy will.

3 Thus our hearts the hope will cherish,
 While to heaven we lift our eyes,
 Thou wilt save us ere we perish,
 Thou wilt hear our faintest cries:
 And, though mast and sail be riven,
 Life's short voyage soon is o'er:
 Safely moored in heaven's wide haven,
 Storms and tempests vex no more.

SAFE upon the billowy deep,
 Loving Lord, Thy servants keep;
 Helpless, trusting pilgrims they,
 Guard them on their watery way.

 'Mid the dark, send favoring gales;
 If their sky be overcast,
 Calm the waves, and still the blast.

 Send at eve the starry ray;

Through the watches of the night,
 Be Thou, Lord, their shining light.

4 Thus as hour by hour rolls by
 Watch with Thine unslumbering eye:
 Guide with Thine almighty hand

 Safe in port, to dwell with Thee
 Where there shall be "no more sea."

How welcome was the call,
And sweet the festal lay,
When Jesus deigned in Cana's hall
To bless the marriage day.

2 And happy was the bride,
And glad the bridegroom's heart,
For He who tarried at their side
Bade grief and ill depart.

The water-vessels knew;
And plenteous was the mystic wine

As Thou dost knit them, Lord in one,
So bless them evermore.

 Thy Father's right hand, here we cry;
 True Bridegroom of Thy spotless bride,
 With all Thy human love, draw nigh.
 Our human nature, Thy divine
 Has wedded, and in Thee, dear Lord,
 As Cana's water turned to wine,
 Its lost godlikeness is restored.

3 O Holy Ghost the Paraclete,
 Thee too we worship, God and Lord,
 And honor Thee, with praises meet,
 One with the Father and the Word.
 Lord and Life-giver, hear our prayer,
 Come, sanctify and bless, and guide,
 Strengthen, and shelter 'neath Thy care,
 The life of bridegroom and of bride.

4 O God Triune, whom heaven's host
 Adores, with sweet and ceaseless song;
 O Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
 To whom all worship doth belong;
 Hear, in these echoes faint and dim,
 Of chant and prayer and holy psalm,
 Their songs, the heavenly feast who hymn,
 The marriage supper of the Lamb.

2 If the flowers that fade so quickly,
 If a day that ends in night,
 If the skies that clouds so thickly
 Often cover from our sight,

If they all have so much beauty,
 What must be God's land of rest,
 Where His sons that do their duty,
 After many toils are blest?

3 There are leaves that never wither;
 There are flowers that ne'er decay:
 Nothing evil goeth thither;
 Nothing good is kept away.
 They that came from tribulation,
 Washed their robes and made them white,
 Out of every tongue and nation,
 Now have rest, and peace, and light.

ONCE in royal David's city
Stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a mother laid her Baby,
In a manger for His bed:
Mary was that mother mild,
Jesus Christ her little Child.

2 He came down to earth from heaven
Who is God and Lord of all,
And His shelter was a stable,
And His cradle was a stall;
With the poor, and mean, and lowly,
Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

3 And, through all His wondrous childhood,
He would honor and obey,
Love, and watch the lowly maiden
In whose gentle arms He lay;
Christian children all must be
Mild, obedient, good as He.

4 For He is our childhood's pattern;
Day by day like us He grew;
He was little, weak and helpless,
Tears and smiles like us He knew;
And He feeleth for our sadness,
And He shareth in our gladness.

5 And our eyes at last shall see Him,
Through His own redeeming love;
For that Child so dear and gentle
Is our Lord in heaven above;
And He leads His children on
To the place where He is gone.

6 Not in that poor lowly stable,
With the oxen standing by,
We shall see Him; but in Heaven,
Set at God's right hand on high;
When like stars His children crowned,
All in white shall wait around.

 Now let our songs His triumph tell,

AROUND the throne of God a band
Of glorious angels ever stand:
Bright things they see, sweet harps they hold,
And on their heads are crowns of gold.

To sing His praise and do His will;
And some, when He commands them, go

EVERY morning the red sun
Rises warm and bright;
But the evening cometh on,
And the dark, cold night;
There's a bright land far away,
Where 'tis never-ending day.

2 Every spring the sweet young flowers
Open fresh and gay,
Till the chilly autumn hours
Wither them away!
There's a land we have not seen,
Where the trees are always green.

3 Little birds sing songs of praise
All the summer long,
But in colder shorter days

They forget their song:
There's a place where angels sing
Ceaseless praises to their King.

4 Christ our Lord is ever near
Those who follow Him!
But we cannot see Him here,
For our eyes are dim:
There is a most happy place,
Where men always see His face.

5 Who shall go to that fair land?
All who love the right:
Holy children there shall stand,
In their robes of white;
For that heaven, so bright and blest,
Is our everlasting rest.

Jesus is our Shepherd, Wiping every tear; Folded in His bosom, What have we to fear?
 On-ly let us fol-low Whither He doth lead, To the thirsty des-ert, Or the dewy mead.

926 B

JESUS is our Shepherd,
 Wiping every tear;
 Folded in His bosom,
 What have we to fear?
 Only let us follow
 Whither He doth lead,
 To the thirsty desert,
 Or the dewy mead.

2 Jesus is our Shepherd:
 Well we know His voice
 How its gentlest whisper
 Makes our heart rejoice;
 Even when He chideth,
 Tender is His tone:
 None but He shall guide us;
 We are His alone.

3 Jesus is our Shepherd,
 For the sheep He bled;
 Every lamb is sprinkled
 With the blood He shed;
 Then on each He setteth
 His own secret sign,—
 "They that have My Spirit,"
 These, "saith He," are Mine."

4 Jesus is our Shepherd;
 Guarded by His arm,
 Though the wolves may raven,
 None can do us harm;
 When we tread death's valley,
 Dark with fearful gloom,
 We will fear no evil,
 Victors o'er the tomb.

SWEET the lesson Jesus taught,
 When to Him fond parents brought
 Babes for whom they blessing sought,
 Little ones like me.

2 Jesus did not answer nay,
 Bid them come another day;
 Jesus did not turn away
 Little ones like me.

3 No, my Saviour's hand was laid,
 Softly on each infant head;
 Jesus, when He blessed them, said,
 "Let them come to Me."

4 Babes may still His blessing share;
 Lambs are His peculiar care;
 He will in His bosom bear
 Little ones like me.

LIKE a cradle rocking, rocking,
 Silent, peaceful, to and fro,
 Like a mother's sweet looks dropping
 On the little face below,
 Hangs the green earth, swinging, turning,
 Jarless, noiseless, safe and slow;
 Falls the light of God's face bending
 Down and watching us below.

2 And as feeble babes that suffer,
 Toss and cry and will not rest,
 Are the ones the tender mother
 Holds the closest, loves the best,
 So when we are weak and wretched,
 By our sins weighed down, distressed,
 Then it is that God's great patience
 Holds us closest, loves us best.

3 O great Heart of God! whose loving
 Cannot hindered be nor crossed;
 Will not weary, will not even
 In our death itself be lost—
 Love divine! of such great loving,
 Only mothers know the cost—
 Cost of love, which all love passing,
 Gave a Son to save the lost.

SWEETLY sing the love of Jesus!
 Love for you, and love for me;
 Heaven's light is not more cheering,
 Heaven's dews are not more free.
 As a child in pain or terror,
 Hides him in his mother's breast,
 As a sailor seeks the haven,
 We would come to Him for rest.

2 Gladly sing the love of Jesus!
 Let us lean upon His arm.
 If He love us what can grieve us?
 If He keep us, what can harm?
 Still He lays His hands in blessing
 On each timid little face,
 And in heaven the children's angels
 Near the throne have always place.

3 Ever sing the love of Jesus!
 Let the day be dark or clear,
 Every pain and every sorrow
 Bring His own to Him more near.
 Death's cold wave need not affright us
 When we know that He has died,
 When we see the face of Jesus
 Smiling on the Other Side!

Far, far away, there's a haven deep and quiet,
Where the noiseless waves lie sleeping on the mountain-sheltered shore,
Where the surges never enter, where no stormy tempests riot,
Where the sails are furled for ever and the ship goes out no more,
From the Haven far away!

So thitherward I travel, in gladness or in sorrow,
Across these trackless waters, with His love to cheer me through.

Comes to me o'er and o'er,—
Nearer my home, to-day, am I
Than e'er I've been before.

2 Nearer my Father's house,
Where many mansions be;
Nearer my Saviour's glorious throne;
Nearer the crystal sea;

3 Nearer the bound of life,
Where burdens are laid down;
Nearer to leave the heavy cross;
Nearer to gain the crown.

4 But, lying dark between,
Winding down through the night,
There rolls the deep and unknown stream
That leads at last to light.

5 E'en now, perchance, my feet
Are slipping on the brink,
And I, to-day, am nearer home,—
Nearer than now I think.

Strengthen my power of faith!
Nor let me stand, at last, alone
Upon the shore of death.

No, no, it is not dying
 To go unto our God,
 This gloomy earth forsaking,
 Our journey homeward taking
 Along the starry road.
 2 No, no, it is not dying

It is not death to die,
 To leave this weary road,
 And, 'midst the brotherhood on high,
 To be at home with God.

2 It is not death to close
 The eye long dimmed by tears,
 And wake in glorious repose

From dungeon chain, to breathe the air

SERVANT of God, well done,
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy.

Then, strong in faith and prayer,

His spirit with a bound
Left its encumbering clay;
His tent, at sunrise, on the ground,
A darkened ruin lay.

How blest the righteous when he dies,
When sinks a weary soul to rest;
How mildly beam the closing eyes,
How gently heaves th'expiring breast.

2 So fades a summer cloud away;
So sinks the gale, when storms are o'er;
So gently shuts the eye of day;
So dies a wave along the shore.

3 A holy quiet reigns around,
A calm which life nor death destroys;
And naught disturbs that peace profound,

Speed us onward to the dead:

After last verse.

Life passeth soon; Death draweth near: Keep us, good Lord, Till Thou appear; With Thee to live,

With Thee to die, With Thee to reign Through e - ter - - - ni - ty!

954 A P. M.

Now the laborer's task is o'er:
Now the battle-day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

2 There the tears of earth are dried;
There its hidden things are clear;
There the work of life is tried
By a juster Judge than here.
Father, in thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

3 There the sinful souls that turn
To the cross their dying eyes,
All the love of Christ shall learn
At His feet in Paradise.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

4 "Earth to earth, and dust to dust;"
Calmly now the words we say;
Leaving him to sleep in trust,
Till the Resurrection-day,
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

Sleep thy last sleep, Free from care and sorrow; Rest, where none weep, Till th' eternal morrow;
Though dark waves roll O'er the si-lent riv-er, Thy fainting soul Je-sus can de-liv-er.

956

SLEEP thy last sleep,
Free from care and sorrow;
Rest, where none weep,
Till the eternal morrow;
Though dark waves roll
O'er the silent river,
Thy fainting soul
Jesus can deliver.
2 Life's dream is past,
All its sin, its sadness;
Brightly at last,
Dawns a day of gladness.

Under thy sod,
Earth receive our treasure,
To rest in God,
Waiting all His pleasure.
3 Though we may mourn
Those in life the dearest,
They shall return,
Christ! when Thou appearest.
Soon shall Thy voice
Comfort those now weeping
Bidding rejoice
All in Jesus sleeping.

GREAT God, what do I see and hear!
 The end of things created!
 The Judge of mankind doth appear
 On clouds of glory seated!
 The trumpet sounds; the graves restore
 The dead which they contained before;
 Prepare, my soul, to meet Him!

3 But sinners, filled with guilty fears,
 Behold His wrath prevailing;
 For they shall rise, and find their tears
 And sighs are unavailing:
 The day of grace is past and gone;
 Trembling, they stand before the throne,
 All unprepared to meet Him.

2 The dead in Christ shall first arise
 At the last trumpet's sounding,
 Caught up to meet Him in the skies,
 With joy their Lord surrounding:
 No gloomy fears their souls dismay,
 His presence sheds eternal day
 On those prepared to meet Him.

4 Great God, to Thee my spirit clings,
 Thy boundless love declaring,
 One wondrous sight my comfort brings,
 The Judge my nature wearing.
 Beneath His cross I view the day
 When Heaven and earth shall pass away,
 And thus prepare to meet Him.

Lo, He comes! with clouds descending,
 Once for favored sinners slain;
 Thousand thousand saints attending
 Swell the triumph of His train:
 Hallelujah!
 God appears on earth to reign.

3 Now redemption, long expected,
 See in solemn pomp appear:
 All His saints, by men rejected,
 Now shall meet Him in the air:
 Hallelujah!
 See the day of God appear.

2 Every eye shall now behold Him,
 Robed in dreadful majesty;
 Those who set at naught, and sold Him,
 Pierced and nailed Him to the tree,
 Deeply wailing,
 Shall the true Messiah see

4 Yea, Amen! let all adore Thee,
 High on Thine eternal throne:
 Saviour, take the power and glory;
 Claim the kingdom for Thine own:
 O come quickly,
 Hallelujah! Come, Lord, come!

DAY of wrath! O day of mourning!
See once more the cross returning,
Heaven and earth to ashes burning!
O what fear man's bosom rendeth,
When from heaven the Judge descendeth,
On whose sentence all dependeth!
2 Wondrous sound the trumpet flingeth;
Through earth's sepulchers it ringeth;
All before the throne it bringeth.
Death is struck, and nature quaking,
All creation is awaking,
To its Judge an answer making.
3 What shall I, frail man, be pleading?
Who for me be interceding,
When the just are mercy needing?

King of majesty tremendous,
Who dost free salvation send us,
Fount of pity! then befriend us!
4 Think, good Jesus, my salvation
Cost Thy wondrous incarnation;
Leave me not to reprobation!
Faint and weary Thou hast sought me,
On the cross of suffering bought me.
Shall such grace be vainly brought me?
5 Day of sorrows, day of weeping,
When, in dust no longer sleeping,
Man awakes in Thy dread keeping!
To the rest Thou didst prepare him;
By Thy cross, O Christ, upbear him;
Spare, O God, in mercy spare him.

To take Thy ransomed people home,
Shall I among them stand?
Shall such a worthless worm as I,
Who sometimes am afraid to die,
Be found at Thy right hand?
2 I love to meet among them now,
Before Thy gracious feet to bow,
Though vilest of them all;
But can I bear the piercing thought,
What if my name should be left out,
When Thou for them shalt call?

3 O Lord prevent it by Thy grace;
Be Thou my only hiding-place,
In this the accepted day;
Thy pardoning voice, O let me hear,
To still my unbelieving fear,
Nor let me fall, I pray.
4 Among Thy saints let me be found,
Whene'er the archangel's trump shall sound,
To see Thy smiling face;
Then loudest of the throng I'll sing,
While heaven's resounding mansions ring
With shouts of sovereign grace.

THE goodly land I see,
With peace and plenty blest;
A land of sacred liberty,
And endless rest:

There milk and honey flow,
And oil and wine abound,
And trees of life forever grow
With mercy crowned.

2 There dwells the Lord, our King,
The Lord, our righteousness:
Triumphant o'er the world and sin,
The Prince of peace,
On Zion's sacred height,
His kingdom still maintains,
And glorious, with His saints in light,
For ever reigns.

3 He keeps His own secure;
He guards them by His side;
Arrays in garments white and pure
His spotless bride;
With streams of sacred bliss,
With groves of living joys,
With all the fruits of paradise,
He still supplies.

4 Before the great Three-One
They all exulting stand,
And tell the wonders He hath done
Through all their land:
The listening spheres attend,
And swell the growing fame;
And sing, in songs which never end,
The wondrous name.

COME, we that love the Lord,
 And let our joys be known;
 Join in a song of sweet accord,
 And thus surround the throne.

2 Let those refuse to sing
 That never knew our God;
 But children of the heavenly King
 May speak their joys abroad.

3 The men of grace have found
 Glory begun below;
 Celestial fruits on earthly ground
 From faith and hope may grow.

4 The hill of Zion yields
 A thousand sacred sweets
 Before we reach the heavenly fields,

Where not a care shall stir the breast,
 Nor sorrow entrance find?

2 Is there a blissful home,
 Where kindred minds shall meet,
 And live, and love, nor ever roam
 From that serene retreat?

3 Are there bright, happy fields,
 Where naught that blooms shall die;
 Where each new scene fresh pleasure yields,
 And healthful breezes sigh?

4 Are there celestial streams,
 Where living waters glide,
 With murmurs sweet as angel-dreams,
 And flowery banks beside?

5 For ever blessed they,
 Whose joyful feet shall stand,
 While endless ages waste away,
 Amid that glorious land!

6 My soul would thither tend,
 While toilsome years are given;
 Then let me, gracious God, ascend
 To sweet repose in heaven.

To mourning wanderers given
There is a joy for souls distressed,
A balm for every wounded breast,

By sin and sorrow driven;
When tossed on life's tempestuous shoals,
Where storms arise, and ocean rolls,

So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between

But timorous mortals start and shrink

Whom God's own love and light
Promote, increase, make holy,
Identify, unite.—CHO.

3 And there the band of Prophets
United praise ascribes,
And there the twelve-fold chorus
Of Israel's ransomed tribes:
And there the Sole-Begotten
Is Lord in regal state;
He, Judah's mystic Lion,
He, Lamb Immaculate.—CHO.

TEN thousand times ten thousand,
In sparkling raiment bright,
The armies of the ransomed saints
Throng up the steeps of light:
'Tis finished, all is finished,
Their fight with death and sin:
Fling open wide the golden gates,
And let the victors in.

2 What rush of hallelujahs
Fills all the earth and sky;
What ringing of a thousand harps
Bespeaks the triumph nigh.
O day, for which Creation
And all its tribes were made;
O joy, for all its former woes
A thousand fold repaid.

3 O then what raptured greetings
On Canaan's happy shore;
What knitting severed friendships up
Where partings are no more.
Then eyes with joy shall sparkle,
That brimmed with tears of late:
Orphans no longer fatherless,
Nor widows desolate.

4 Bring near Thy great salvation,
Thou Lamb for sinners slain;
Fill up the roll of Thine elect,
Then take Thy power and reign!
Appear, Desire of nations!
Thine exiles long for home:
Show in the heavens Thy promised sign!
Thou Prince and Saviour, come!

UPWARD where the stars are burning,
Silent, silent in their turning,

Round the never-changing pole;
Upward where the sky is brightest,
Upward where the blue is lightest,
Lift I now my longing soul.

2 Far beyond that arch of gladness,
Far beyond these clouds of sadness,
Are the many mansions fair.
Far from pain and sin and folly,
In that palace of the holy,
I would find my mansion there!

3 Where the Lamb on high is seated,
By ten thousand voices greeted,
Lord of lords, and King of kings.
Son of Man, they crown, they crown Him,
Son of God, they own, they own Him,
With His name the palace rings.

4 Blessing, honor, without measure,
Heavenly riches, earthly treasure,
Lay we at His blessed feet.
Poor the praise that now we render:
Loud shall be our voices yonder,
When before His throne we meet.

Gathered from every land;
For here thy soul shall find its rest
Amid the shining band.

3 In this divine abode
Change leaves no saddening trace;
Come, trusting spirit, to thy God,
Thy holy resting-place.

"Forsake the world, no longer roam,
O wanderer, come away!"

THERE is no night in heaven;
In that blest world above

Work never can bring weariness,
For work itself is love.

2 There is no grief in heaven;
For life is one glad day;
And tears are of those former things
Which all have passed away.

3 There is no sin in heaven;
Behold that blessed throng
All holy is their spotless robe!
All holy is their song!

4 There is no death in heaven;
For they who gain that shore
Have won their immortality,
And they can die no more.

5 Lord Jesus, be our guide;
O lead us safely on,
Till night and grief and sin and death
Are past, and heaven is won!

HARK! the sound of holy voices,
 Chanting o'er the crystal sea,
 "Hallelujah, Hallelujah,
 Hallelujah, Lord, to Thee:"
 Multitudes which none can number,
 Like the stars in glory stand,
 Clothed in white apparel, holding
 Conquering palms in every hand.

2 Marching with Thy cross, their banner,
 They have triumphed, following
 Thee, the Captain of salvation,
 Thee, their Saviour and their King.
 Gladly, Lord, with Thee they suffered;
 Gladly, Lord, with Thee they died;
 And by death, to life immortal
 They were born and glorified.

3 Now they reign in heavenly glory,
 Now they walk in golden light,
 Now they drink, as from a river,
 Holy bliss and infinite:
 Love and peace they taste for ever,

HEAR what God, the Lord, hath spoken;
 "O my people, faint and few,
 Comfortless, afflicted, broken!
 Fair abodes I build for you;
 Scenes of heartfelt tribulation
 Shall no more perplex your ways;
 You shall name your walls Salvation,
 And your gates shall all be Praise.

2 There, like streams that feed the garden,
 Pleasures without end shall flow;
 For the Lord, your faith rewarding,
 All His bounty shall bestow:
 Still in undisturbed possession,
 Peace and righteousness shall reign;
 Never shall you feel oppression,
 Hear the voice of war again.

3 Ye, no more your suns descending,
 Waning moons no more shall see,
 But, your griefs forever ending,
 Find eternal noon in Me:

THE Homeland! O the Homeland!
 The land of souls freeborn!
 No gloomy night is known there,
 But aye the fadeless morn:
 I'm sighing for that Country,
 My heart is aching here;
 There is no pain in the Homeland
 To which I'm drawing near.

2 My Lord is in the Homeland,
 With angels bright and fair;
 No sinful thing nor evil,
 Can ever enter there;

The music of the ransomed
 Is ringing in my ears,
 And when I think of the Homeland,
 My eyes are wet with tears.

3 For loved ones in the Homeland
 Are waiting me to come
 Where neither death nor sorrow
 Invade their holy home:
 O dear, dear native Country!
 O rest and peace above!
 Christ bring us all to the Homeland
 Of His eternal love.

Hugh Reginald Haweis

ON the fount of life eternal
 Gazing wistful and athirst,
 Yearning, straining, from the prison
 Of confining flesh to burst,
 Here the soul an exile sighs
 For her native Paradise.

2 Who can paint that lovely city,
 City of true peace divine,
 Whose pure gates, forever open,
 Each in pearly splendor shine;
 Whose abodes of glory clear,
 Naught defiling cometh near?

3 There no stormy winter rages;
 There no scorching summer glows;
 But through one perennial spring-tide,
 Blooms the lily with the rose;
 And the Lamb, with purest ray,
 Scatters round eternal day.

4 There the saints of God, resplendent
 As the sun in all its might,
 Evermore rejoice together,
 Crowned with diadems of light;
 And from peril safe at last,
 Reckon up their triumphs past.

5 Happy they, who with them seated
 Shall in all their glory share!
 O that we, our days completed,
 Might be but admitted there!
 There with them the praise to sing
 Of our glorious God and King.

6 Look, O Jesus, on Thy soldiers,
 Worn and wounded in the fight;
 Grant, O grant us, rest forever,
 In Thy beatific sight;
 And Thyself our guerdon be
 Through a long eternity.

Wake, a-wake! for night is fly - ing; The watchmen on the heights are cry - ing,
A - wake, Je - ru - sa - lem, at last! Mid-night hears the wel-come voi - ces,
And at the thrilling cry re - joic - es: Come forth, ye vir - gins, night is past!
The Bridegroom comes; a - wake! Your lamps with glad-ness take; Hal - le - lu - jah!
And for His mar-riage feast pre - pare, For ye must go to meet Him there.

994 * B

WAKE, awake! for night is flying;
The watchmen on the heights are crying,
Awake, Jerusalem, at last!

Midnight hears the welcome voices,
And at the thrilling cry rejoices:
Come forth, ye virgins, night is past!
The Bridegroom comes; awake!
Your lamps with gladness take;
Hallelujah!

And for His marriage feast prepare,
For ye must go to meet Him there.

2 Zion hears the watchmen singing,
And all her heart with joy is springing,
She wakes, she rises from her gloom;
For her Lord comes down all glorious,
The strong in grace, in truth victorious,
Her star is risen, her light is come!

Ah come, Thou blessed Lord,
O Jesus, Son of God,
Hallelujah!

We follow till the halls we see
Where Thou hast bid us sup with Thee.

3 Now let all the heavens adore Thee,
And men and angels sing before Thee,
With harp and cymbal's clearest tone;
Of one pearl each shining portal,
Where we are with the choir immortal,
Of angels round Thy dazzling throne;
Nor eye hath seen, nor ear
Hath yet attained to hear
What there is ours,
But we rejoice, and sing to Thee
Our hymns of joy eternally.

6. O come, let us worship,	and fall	down;	And kneel be-	fore the	Lord our	Maker:
8. { O worship the Lord in the }	beauty of	holiness;	Let the whole earth	stand in	awe of	Him:
9. { For He cometh, for He cometh, to }	judge the	earth;	{ And with right- eousness to judge the world, and the }	people	with His	truth.
{ As it was in the beginning, is now, and }	ever	shall be,	World	without	end. A-	men.

BONUM EST

1. { It is a good thing to give thanks un- }	to the	Lord;	{ And to sing prais- es unto Thy }	name, O	Most—	Highest.
2. { To tell of Thy lov- ing-kindness early }	in the	morning;	And of Thy	{ truth· in the }	night—	season.
3. { Upon an instrument of ten strings, and up- }	on the	lute;	{ Upon a loud in- strument, }	and up-	on the	harp.
4. { For Thou, Lord, hast made me glad }	thro' Thy	works;	{ I will rejoice in giving praise for the oper- }	a - tions	of Thy	hands.
Glory be to the Father, &c.

2. That Thy way may be	known upon	earth;	Thy saving	health a-	mong all	nations.
4. { O let the nations be glad and }	sing for	joy;	{ For Thou shall judge the people righteously, and govern the }	na-tions	up - on	earth.
6. Then shall the earth	yield her	increase;	And God, even our own	God shall	bles—	us.
7. God shall	bles—	us;	And all the ends of the	earth shall	fear—	Him.

OPENING SENTENCE

G. F. Root

The Lord is in His ho-ly tem - ple, the Lord is in His ho-ly tem - ple; Let all the earth keep silence, Let all the earth keep si-lence be - fore Him, Keep silence, keep silence be - fore Him.

Used by permission of the John Church Co.

INDEX OF FIRST LINES

	HYMN		HYMN
A charge to keep I have	566	At Thy command, our dearest Lord	732
A few more years shall roll	937	Awake, and sing the song	531
A glory gilds the sacred page	82	Awake, awake O Zion	342
A mighty fortress is our God	698	Awake, glad soul awake, awake	283
A parting hymn we sing	759	Awake, my soul and with the sun	827
A pilgrim through this lonely world	218	Awake, my soul, in joyful lays	496
A sinful man am I	419	Awake, my soul, stretch every nerve	561
Abide in me, O Lord, and I in Thee	595	Awake, our souls, away our fears	558
Abide with me: fast falls the eventide	845	Awake, ye saints, awake	12
Above the clear blue sky	924
According to Thy gracious word	734	Before Jehovah's awful throne	141
Again our earthly cares we leave	29	Behold, a Stranger at the door	382
Again returns the day of holy rest	94	Behold the Bridegroom cometh, etc.	959
Alas! and did my Saviour bleed	258	Behold the glories of the Lamb	324
All glory, laud, and honor	238	Behold, the morning sun	89
All hail the power of Jesus' name	320	Behold the Prince of Peace	234
All is bright and cheerful round us	912	Behold, the shade of night is now receding	836
All is o'er, the pain, the sorrow	267	Behold the throne of grace	677
All my heart this night rejoices	194	Behold, we come, dear Lord, to Thee	27
All people that on earth do dwell	32	Behold what wondrous grace	655
All praise to Him of Nazareth	739	Behold, where in a mortal form	221
All praise to Thee, eternal Lord	213	Bending before Thee, let our hymn, etc	59
All unseen the Master walketh	638	Beneath the cross of Jesus	411
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!	288	Beneath the shadow of the cross	782
Alleluia! Fairest morning	822	Bethlehem, of noblest cities	198
Alleluia! song of sweetness	976	Beyond, beyond that boundless sea	121
Almighty Father, heaven and earth	48	Blessed are the pure in heart	641
Always with us, always with us	639	Blessed city, heavenly Salem	989
Am I a soldier of the cross	563	Blessed night: when Bethlehem's plain	193
Amazing grace, how sweet the sound	522	Blessed Saviour, Thee I love	538
And is there, Lord, a rest	966	Blessing and honor and glory and power	170
And wilt Thou pardon, Lord	420	Blest are the pure in heart	594
Angel voices, ever singing	111	Blest are they in Christ departed	948
Angels from the realms of glory	189	Blest be the tie that binds	770
Angels, roll the rock away	293	Blest be Thou, O God of Israel	164
Another six days' work is done	34	Blest be Thy love, dear Lord	452
Approach, my soul, the mercy-seat	673	Blest Comforter Divine	366
Arise, my soul, arise	317	Blest day of God, most calm, most bright	19
Arise O King of grace, arise	20	Blest feast of love divine	737
Arm of the Lord, awake, awake	787	Blow ye the trumpet, blow	377
Arm these, Thy soldiers, mighty Lord	726	Bread of heaven, on Thee I feed	746
Around the throne of God a band	922	Bread of the world, in mercy broken	729
Art thou weary, art thou languid	624	Break, new-born year, on glad eyes break	883
As oft with worn and weary feet	228	Break Thou the bread of life	46
As pants the hart for cooling streams	599	Breast the wave, Christian, when it is strongest	576
As with gladness men of old	183	Brief life is here our portion	979
Ask ye what great thing I know	489	Bright and joyful is the morn	186
Asleep in Jesus; blessed sleep	943	Brightest and best of the sons of the morning	190
At even, ere the sun was set	860	Brightly gleams our banner	580
At evening time let there be light	840	By Christ redeemed, in Christ restored	756
At the door of mercy sighing	443	By cool Siloam's shady rill	723
At the Lamb's high feast we sing	750	By Jesus' grave on either hand	273

	HYMN		HYMN
	71	Cross of Jesus, cross of sorrow	268
A	632	Crown Him, with many crowns	335
	205	Crown His head with endless blessing	520
	620
B	824	Darling child, in slumber seeming	949
	492	Daughter of Zion, awake from thy sadness	816

B Hosanna, raise the pealing hymn	321	Jerusalem the glorious	980
Hosanna to the living Lord	821	Jerusalem, the golden	974
How beauteous are their feet	711	Jesus, and shall it ever be	559
How beauteous, on the mountains	801	Jesus, at whose supreme command	733
How beauteous were the marks divine	233	Jesus calls us; o'er the tumult	391
How blest the righteous, when he dies	944	Jesus came, the heavens adoring	345
How calm and beautiful the morn	281	Jesus Christ is risen to-day	294
How charming is the place	13	Jesus comes, his conflict over	307
How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord	651	Jesus! exalted far on high	223
How gentle God's commands	626	Jesus, I live to Thee	488
How kind our Father's voice	384	Jesus, I love Thy charming name	519
How pleasant, how divinely fair	33	Jesus, I my cross have taken	475
How pleased and blest was I	41	Jesus, in Thy dying woes	264
How precious is the book divine	85	Jesus is our Shepherd	926
How shall the young secure their hearts	87	Jesus, Jesus visit me	441
How sweet and awful is the place	731	Jesus, King of glory	930
How sweet, how heavenly is the sight	765	Jesus lives! no longer now	282
How sweet the name of Jesus sounds	517	Jesus, Lord, forever living	1
How sweetly flowed the gospel's sound	231	Jesus, Lord of life and glory	430
How tender is Thy hand	608	Jesus, Lord of life eternal	310
How welcome was the call	910	Jesus, lover of my soul	468
		Jesus, Master, whose I am	472
I adore Thee! I adore Thee	501	Jesus, meek and gentle	933
I am trusting Thee, Lord Jesus	486	Jesus, my Saviour, look on me	485
I bless the Christ of God	619	Jesus, my strength, my hope	487
I could not do without Thee	462	Jesus, Name all names above	539
B I do not ask that life may be	606	Jesus, our best beloved friend	448
I heard the voice of Jesus say	383	Jesus, our Lord, how rich Thy grace	54
B I hunger and I thirst	666	Jesus shall reign where'er the sun	795
I know no life divided	463	Jesus, Shepherd of the sheep	450
I know that my Redeemer lives	325	Jesus, Son of God most high	217
I lay my sins on Jesus	416	Jesus spreads His banner o'er us	753
I lift my heart to Thee	483	Jesus, still lead on	509
I'll praise my Maker with my breath	110	Jesus, the sinner's friend! to Thee	427
I love the volume of Thy word	77	Jesus, the very thought of Thee	526
I love Thy kingdom, Lord	693	Jesus, these eyes have never seen	524
I love to steal awhile away	850	Jesus, Thou art the sinner's friend	730
I'm not ashamed to own my Lord	553	Jesus, Thou hast bought us	579
C I need Thee, precious Jesus	408	Jesus Thou Joy of loving hearts	754
I saw One hanging on a tree	256	Jesus! Thy name I love	504
I sing the almighty power of God	135	Jesus, to Thy table led	728
I've found the pearl of greatest price	523	Jesus wept! those tears are over	604
I was a wandering sheep	513	Jesus, where'er Thy people meet	669
C I worship Thee, sweet Will of God	527	Jesus, who can be	510
I would not live alway: I ask not to stay	952	Jesus, whom angel-hearts adore	246
If human kindness meets return	741	Join all the glorious names	316
C If through unruffled seas	617	Joy to the world, the Lord is come	206
A Immortal Love, forever full	225	Just as I am, without one plea	425
In all my vast concerns with Thee	130	Keep us, Lord, O keep us ever	74
In duties and in sufferings too	227	Kingdoms and thrones to God belong	147
In heavenly love abiding	464	918	Lamb of God, I look to Thee	917
In His own raiment clad	490	Lamb of God, whose bleeding love !	745
In the cross of Christ I glory	613	Lamp of our feet, whereby we trace	84
In the dark and cloudy day	614	Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling, etc.	687
A In the hour of trial	751	Lead us, O Father! in the paths of peace	618
In the name of God the Father	45	Leaning on Thee, my guide, my friend	484
In Thy name, O Lord, assembling	337	Let folly praise that fancy loves	203
In us the hope of glory	858	Let my life be hid with Thee	643
Inspirer and Hearer of prayer	202	Let no hopeless tears be shed	950
A It came upon the midnight clear	940	Let saints below in concert sing	767
It is not death to die	163	Let the saints new anthems raise	548
	977	Let us with a gladsome mind	157
B Jehovah, God, Thy gracious power	985	Lift up to God the voice of praise	132
Jerusalem, my happy home		Lift up your heads, ye gates of brass	560
C Jerusalem on high

HYMN

A	Lift your glad voices in triumph on high	292	My God how endless is Thy love	862
A	Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates	592	My God, how wonderful Thou art	127
	Light after darkness, Gain after loss	648	My God, I love Thee: not because	518
	Light of light, enlighten me	832	My God, I thank Thee, Who hast made	124
	Light of the lonely pilgrim's heart	339	My God, is any hour so sweet	681
	Light of the world, forever, ever shining	506	My God, my Father, while I stray	605
	Light of those whose dreary dwelling	348	My God, the spring of all my joys	530
	Like a cradle rocking, rocking	928	My gracious Lord, I own Thy right	446
	Lo, God is here: let us adore	148	My Jesus as Thou wilt	644
	Lo, He comes, with clouds descending	958	My Lord, my Love, was crucified	28
	Lo, the day of rest declineth	70	My sins, my sins, my Saviour	260
A	Look from Thy sphere of endless day	791	My soul be on thy guard	568
B	Look, ye saints, the sight is glorious	314	My soul, repeat His praise	122
	Lord, as to Thy dear cross we flee	607	My soul, weigh not thy life	569
	Lord, at this closing hour	648	My spirit longs for Thee	646
	Lord, dismiss us with Thy blessing, Bid,	69	My spirit on Thy care	454
	Lord, dismiss us with Thy blessing, Fill	73
	Lord God of hosts, by all adored	137	Near the cross was Mary weeping	265
A	Lord God of morning and of night	826	Nearer, my God, to Thee	589
	Lord God the Holy Ghost	367	New every morning is the love	828
	Lord, I am Thine, entirely Thine	447	No, no, it is not dying	938
A	Lord, I believe; Thy power I own	459	No track is on the sunny sky	364
	Lord, I hear of showers of blessing	603	Not all the blood of beasts	453
	Lord, I know Thy grace is nigh me	476	Not what these hands have done	387
	Lord, I was blind! I could not see	429	Not worthy, Lord, to gather up the crumbs	755
	Lord, in the morning Thou shalt hear	24	Now be the Gospel banner	803
	Lord, in this Thy mercy's day	665	Now begin the heavenly theme	491
	Lord, it belongs not to my care	480	Now from labor and from care	851
	Lord, it is not life to live	942	Now God be with us, for the night is closing	837
	Lord Jesus are we one with Thee	649	Now may He who from the dead	61
C	Lord Jesus, by Thy passion	588	Now thank we all our God	112
	Lord Jesus, think on me	679	Now the day is over	848
A	Lord Jesus, when we stand afar	252	Now the laborer's task is o'er	954
A	Lord, lead the way the Saviour went	55	Now when the dusky shades of night, etc.	833
	Lord of all being, throned afar	143
	Lord of glory who hast bought us	51	O bless the Lord, my soul	118
B	Lord of mercy and of might	686	O Bread to pilgrims given	749
A	Lord of our life, and God of our salvation	700	O cease, my wandering soul	421
B	Lord of the harvest, hear	710	O Christ, our hope, our hearts' desire	326
B	Lord of the living harvest	715	O Christ, our King, Creator, Lord	498
	Lord of the worlds above	11	O Christ; the Lord of heaven	329
	Lord, Thou art my Rock of strength	470	O Church of God, go forward	806
	Lord, Thou hast searched and seen me, etc.	150	O come, all ye faithful, joyfully triumphant	180
	Lord, Thou hast taught our hearts to glow	712	O come all ye faithful, triumphantly sing	179
A	Lord, Thy word abideth	78	O come, and mourn with me awhile	248
	Lord, we bring no costly offering	913	O come, loud anthems let us sing	139
	Lord, we come before Thee now	36	O could I speak the matchless worth	512
	Lord, when we bend before Thy throne	675	O day of rest and gladness	2
	Lord, with glowing heart I'd praise Thee	152	O eyes that are weary, and hearts that, etc.	656
	Love divine, all love excelling	584	O for a closer walk with God	597
			O for a faith that will not shrink	460
	Majestic sweetness sits enthroned	515	O for a heart to praise my God	598
	March, march onward, soldiers true	931	O for a thousand tongues to sing	529
	Master, no offering	499	O for the peace which floweth as a river	662
A	May the grace of Christ, our Saviour	68	O gift of gifts! O grace of faith!	457
	Messiah, at Thy glad approach	204	O God, beneath Thy guiding hand	902
	'Mid evening shadows let us all be watching	838	O God, by whom the seed is given	66
	Mighty God! while angels bless Thee	894	O God of Bethel, by whose hand	670
	More love to Thee, O Christ	591	O God of mercy, God of might	57
C	Morn's roseate hues have decked the sky	291	O God, our help in ages past	126
	Must Jesus bear the cross alone	571	O God, the Rock of Ages	159
A	My country 'tis of thee	897	O God, we praise Thee, and confess	136
	My dear Redeemer and my Lord	232	O happy band of pilgrims	547
	My faith looks up to Thee	449	O Holy Father, who hast led Thy children	94
	My God! accept my heart this day	479	O Holy Saviour, Friend unseen	481

	HYMN	HYMN
A O how shall I receive Thee	239	O'er the gloomy hills of darkness 820
A O Jesus, ever present	536	A Of the Father's love begotten 214
A O Jesus, I have promised	466	Oft in danger, oft in woe 551
O Jesus, King most wonderful	528	On Jordan's rugged banks I stand 968
O Jesus, our chief Corner-Stone	707	A On our way rejoicing 658
B O Jesus, our Salvation	414	On the fount of life eternal 991
O Jesus, Saviour of the lost	434	On the mountain's top appearing 814
A O Jesus, Thou art standing	412	On this day, the first of days 38
O Jesus, Thou the beauty art	525	On this night all nights excelling 197
O Jesus, we adore Thee	261	Once in royal David's city 916
O Jesus, when I think of Thee	220	One sole baptismal sign 769
B O King of mercy, from Thy throne on high	682	One sweetly solemn thought 935
O Lamb of God, still keep me	747	One there is above all others 495
O let him whose sorrow	615	Onward and up, as pilgrims marching ever
A O little town of Bethlehem	195	Onward, Christian soldiers 575
O Lord be with us when we sail	906	A Open now thy gates of beauty 4
A O Lord, how good, how great art Thou	128	Oppressed with noon day's scorching heat
O Lord, how happy should we be	467	Other knowledge I disdain 743
A O Lord of heaven and earth and sea	56	Our blest Redeemer, ere He breathed 354
O Lord of hosts, whose glory fills	706	Our country's voice is pleading 809
A O Lord, turn not Thy face away	435	Our day of praise is done 65
O Lord, when we the path retrace	219	Our Lord is risen from the dead 301
O Lord, who by Thy presence hast, etc.	855	Our sins, our sorrows, Lord, were laid, etc. 275
O Lord who hast this table spread	740
B O Love divine and golden	909	A Peace, perfect peace in this dark world, etc. 634
O Love divine, that stooped to share	637	People of the living God 777
B O Love! how deep, how broad, how high	235	Pilgrim, burdened with thy sin 400
O Love that casts out fear	586	Pleasant are Thy courts above 44
A O mean may seem this house of clay	242	Praise, Lord, for Thee in Zion waits 140
O Mother dear, Jerusalem	975	Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven 116
A O One with God the Father	587	Praise, O praise our God and King 893
O Paradise, O Paradise	993	Praise, O praise the Lord of harvest 889
A O perfect life of love	263	Praise the Lord, ye heavens adore Him 165
O praise our God to-day	49	A Praise the Rock of our salvation 694
B O render thanks to God above	145	Praise to God, immortal praise 896
A O Rock of ages, one Foundation	763	A Praise to Thee, Thou great Creator 166
O Sacred Head, now wounded	259	Praise ye Jehovah, praise the Lord, etc. 173
O Saviour, I have naught to plead	424	Prayer is the soul's sincere desire 690
A O Saviour, precious Saviour	534	Prepare us, Lord, to view Thy cross 742
O Saviour! who didst come	735	Prince of peace, control my will 439
O Saviour, who for man hast trod	302	Purer yet and purer, 585
O Spirit of the living God	708
O still in accents sweet and strong	785	Quiet, Lord, my froward heart 405
B O Strength and Stay upholding all creation	834	Rejoice, all ye believers 343
O, sweetly breathe the lyres above	717	A Rejoice, the Lord is King 319
O that the Lord's salvation	802	Rejoice, ye pure in heart 567
O the bitter shame and sorrow	444	Rejoice, ye righteous! in the Lord 133
O the sweet wonders of that cross	253	Rest for the toiling hand 936
O Thou best gift of heaven	583	Rest of the weary, Joy of the sad 647
O Thou from whom all goodness flows	433	Resting from His work to-day 271
O Thou, great Teacher from the skies	53	Return, O wanderer, return 378
O Thou, the contrite sinner's friend	422	A Ride on, ride on in majesty 244
O Thou, who by a star didst guide	210	Rise, crowned with light, imperial Salem, etc 796
O Thou, who hast Thy servants taught	671	A Rise, glorious Conqueror, rise 300
O Thou, whose filmed and failing eye	611	Rise my soul, and stretch thy wings 602
O Thou, whose own vast temple stands	703	Rock of Ages, cleft for me 406
O Thou, whose tender mercy hears	432	A Round the Lord in glory seated 167
A O very God of very God	22
O what, if we are Christ's	653	Safe upon the billowy deep 908
O, where are kings and empires now	695	Safely through another week 5
A O, where is He that trod the sea	226	Saints in glory, we together 502
O where shall rest be found	383	Salvation! O the joyful sound 392
A O Word of God Incarnate	88	Saviour, again to Thy dear Name we raise 60
O worship the King, all glorious above	172	Saviour, blessed Saviour 544
B O'er the distant mountains breaking	346	Saviour, breathe an evening blessing 876

Shepherd of tender youth	508	The God of Harvest praise	891
Shepherds! hail the wondrous stranger	200	The God of love my Shepherd is	920
Shout the glad tidings, exultingly sing	181	The goodly land I see	962
A Sing, my tongue, the Saviour's glory, Of	752	The harvest dawn is near	790
C Sing, my tongue! the Saviour's glory, Tell	269	The head that once was crowned with thorns	315
Sing of Jesus, sing forever	500	The heavens declare thy glory	90
A Sing to the Lord a joyful song	95	The heavens declare Thy glory, Lord	80
Sing to the Lord our Might	17	The Homeland! O the Homeland	990
B Sing with all the sons of glory	289	The hours of day are over	843
Sinners, turn, why will ye die	403	The King of love my Shepherd is	115
A Sion to thy Saviour singing	738	The Lord be with us as we bend	63
Sleep, my Saviour, sleep	215	The Lord is King: lift up thy voice	146
A Sleep thy last sleep	956	The Lord is my Shepherd, no want shall, etc.	653
B So rest, our Rest	274	The Lord is rich and merciful	389
Soft the dews of evening fall	849	The Lord is risen indeed	278
Softly now the light of day	856	The Lord Jehovah lives	109
Soldiers of Christ, arise	565	The Lord Jehovah reigns	108
Sometimes a light surprises	465	The Lord my pasture shall prepare	175
B Son of God, to Thee I cry	689	The Lord my Shepherd is	628
B Sons of Zion, raise your songs	305	The Lord of might, from Sinai's brow	338
Songs of praise the angels sang	154	The Lord's my Shepherd, and I know	640
Soon may the last glad song arise	794	The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want	630
B Sovereign of Heaven, who didst prevail	376	The Lord will come and not be slow	340
A Spirit Divine, attend our prayers	362	The morning light is breaking	805
Spirit of God! descend upon my heart	355	The morning purples all the sky	284
B Spread, O spread, Thou mighty word	91	The pity of the Lord	455
A Stand, soldier of the cross	727	The race that long in darkness pined	209
Stand up, and bless the Lord	120	The radiant morn hath passed away	868
Stand up, my soul, shake off thy fears	556	The roseate hues of early dawn	972
Stand up, stand up for Jesus	572	The royal banners forward go	245
A Standing at the portal	878	The sands of time are sinking	967
Star of peace, to wanderers weary	904	The shadows of the evening hours	62
A Stars of the morning, so gloriously bright	171	The Son of God goes forth to war	562
B Still, still with Thee, when purple, etc.	825	The spacious firmament on high	144
B Still will we trust, though earth seems, etc.	482	The Spirit, in our hearts	385
Summer suns are glowing	884	The strife is o'er, the battle done	288
Sun of my soul, Thou Saviour dear	874	The sun is sinking fast	844
Sweet is the memory of Thy grace	160	The swift declining day	865
Sweet is the work, my God, my King	31	The world is very evil	344
Sweet is the work, O Lord	18	There came three kings ere break of day	207
A Sweet is Thy mercy, Lord	451	There is a blessed home	654
Sweet Saviour, bless us ere we go	76	There is a book, who runs may read	86
Sweet the lesson Jesus taught	927	There is a city great and strong	971
Sweet the moments rich in blessing	243	There is a fountain filled with blood	410
Sweet the time, exceeding sweet	102	There is a green hill far away	254
Sweetly sing the love of Jesus	929	There is a land of pure delight	973
		There is a safe and secret place	631
Take me, O my Father, take me	442	There is a stream, which issues forth	394
Take my heart, O Father, take it	445	There is an hour of peaceful rest	969
Take, my soul, thy full salvation	477	There is no night in heaven	984
A Take up thy cross, the Saviour said	380	They who seek the throne of grace	672
Tarry with me, O my Saviour	872	Thine are all the gifts, O God	915
Teach me, my God and King	593	Thine arm, O Lord, in days of old	224
B Ten thousand times ten thousand	981	Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love	963
The beautiful bright sunshine	932	Thine forever! God of love	473
The Church has waited long	351	Thine forever! Thine forever	478

	HYMN		HYMN
Thine holy day's returning	7	We cannot praise Thee now, Lord	161
Thine is the power, Lord	685	We come unto our fathers' God	762
This is not my place of resting	964	We give immortal praise	96
A This is the day of light	16	We give Thee but Thine own	50
This is the day the Lord hath made	253	We march, we march to victory	554
B Thou art coming, O my Saviour	341	A We plough the fields and scatter	895
A Thou art gone up on high	312	We sing the praise of Him who died	247
Thou art my hiding-place, O Lord	461	We sing to Thee, Thou Son of God	516
Thou art the Way; to Thee alone	395	We stand in deep repentance	415
A Thou didst leave Thy throne and Thy, etc.	216	A Weary of earth and laden with my sin	428
C Thou Grace Divine, encircling all	162	Welcome, delightful morn	10
A Thou, Lord, art God alone	93	"Welcome, happy morning!" age to age, etc.	296
A Thou, sore oppressed	276	Welcome, sacred day of rest	43
B Thou to whom the sick and dying	230	Welcome, sweet day of rest	15
Thou very present aid	680	A Welcome, Thou Victor in the strife	285
Thou, whose almighty word	798	Who are these in bright array	764
C Though faint, yet pursuing, we go on, etc.	652	What grace, O Lord, and beauty shone	222
A Three in One, and One in Three	104	When all Thy mercies, O my God	125
Through all the changing scenes of life	629	When, along life's stormy road	469
Through the day Thy love has spared us	841	When gathering clouds around I view	612
Through the love of God our Saviour	627	C When God of old came down from heaven	359
A Through the night of doubt and sorrow	778	B When, His salvation bringing	237
Thus far the Lord has led me on	875	When I can read my title clear	659
A Thy life was given for me !	262	When I survey the wondrous cross	251
Thy love to me, O Christ	590	When Israel, of the Lord beloved	149
Thy way, not mine, O Lord	645	When Jesus dwelt in mortal clay	52
Thy works, not mine, O Christ	396	When, like a stranger on our sphere	236
"Till He come," O let the words	744	When morning gilds the skies	511
Time is winging us away	879	When our heads are bowed with woe	622
"'Tis finished," so the Saviour cried	250	When shall the voice of singing	800
'Tis midnight; and on Olive's brow	249	When streaming from the eastern skies	835
A To Calvary, Lord, in spirit now	257	B When the day of toil is done	846
To-day beneath benignant skies	702	A When the weary, seeking rest	839
To-day the Saviour calls	397	When the world is brightest	684
A To-day Thy mercy calls us	407	When this passing world is done	970
To God the only wise	532	When Thou, my righteous Judge, shalt, etc.	961
To-morrow, Lord, is Thine	866	When, through the torn sail, the wild, etc.	903
To our Redeemer's glorious name	514	When wounded sore the stricken soul	436
C To the name of our Salvation	494	Where high the heavenly temple stands	330
To Thee, my God and Saviour	6	While shepherds watched their flocks, etc.	201
C To Thee, O dear, dear Saviour	535	While the sun is shining	574
To Thee, O Father, throned on high	911	While Thee I seek, protecting Power	123
To Thee, O God, in heaven	725	While with ceaseless course the sun	882
A To Thee, O Lord, our hearts we raise	887	Who are these like stars appearing	780
To Thy pastures fair and large	474	Who is this that comes from Edom	308
To Thy temple I repair	37	Who is this with garments dyed	303
Tossed upon life's raging billow	907	Why should the children of a King	360
Triumphant Zion, lift thy head	786	With broken heart and contrite sigh	431
Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb	945	With joy we hail the sacred day	21
C Upward where the stars are burning	982	With joy we lift our eyes	42
Vainly through night's weary hours	873	With joy we meditate the grace	327
View me, Lord, a work of Thine	438	With silence only as their benediction	947
Wait, my soul, upon the Lord	621	With songs and honors sounding loud	134
Wake, awake, for night is flying	994	With tearful eyes I look around	426
Wake the song of jubilee	788	With the sweet word of peace	807
A Walk in the light, so shalt thou know	650	Work, for the night is coming	581
Was there ever kindest shepherd	541	A Ye choirs of new Jerusalem	286
Watchman tell us of the night	789	Ye Christian heralds, go, proclaim	714
We are but strangers here	660	Ye saints, your music bring	503
We are on our journey home	986	Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim	174
We are soldiers of the cross	921	Ye servants of the Lord	664
We bid thee welcome in the name	709	Yes, for me, for me He careth	332
We bless Thee for Thy peace, O God	610	Your harps, ye trembling saints	456
		Zion stands by hills surrounded	697
